

Judy Rae Wait, Sam L. Watson Are Wed at Stromsburg

Judy Rae Wait, Stromsburg and Sam L. Watson, Inman were united in marriage at a 3:30 p.m. ceremony at the First Methodist church, Stromsburg, Dec. 23, 1962. Performing the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Lester Anderson, Stromsburg.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wait, Stromsburg and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Watson, Inman.

Lighting the candles were Barbara Hall, Scottshuff and Rita Nelson, Lincoln. They wore white robes and red and white carnation wrist corsages.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. John Lauber, Seward, sang "I Love Thee" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Rudy Randall.

The bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white taffeta, which featured long, pointed sleeves, a princess-style waist and a scoop necked bodice decorated with venise lace. The skirt swept to an aisle-wide train. Her illusion veil was held by a jeweled crown. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Richard T. Johnson, Stromsburg, the bride's only sister. Mrs. Edwin A. Langley, Omaha, a sister of the groom, was brides matron. The attendants wore street-length dresses of red brocade which featured scooped necklines, bell skirts and bows at the waistline of the bodice back. They wore white fur pillbox hats and carried white fur muffs, decorated with red poinsettias and white satin streamers. Red patent shoes completed their ensembles.

Serving as best man was John C. Watson, O'Neill, the groom's only brother. Groomsman were Roland Hansen, Inman and ushers were Ronald Tesch, Pierce and Eugene Peck, Auburn. During the ceremony, John Lauber, Seward sang "With This Ring" and Mrs. Lauber sang, "Hear Our Prayer," written by Wilbur Chenoweth, uncle of the groom. Following the ceremony the couple sang a duet, "Sweetheart, Sweetheart."

A reception followed in the church parlors. A three-tier wedding cake was decorated with white bells with insets of holly. Cutting the cake was Mrs. William Slusher, Valentine, sister of the groom. Assisting her was Ruth Ann Watson, O'Neill. Pouring coffee was Elaine Dorr, Falls City and Carleen Rogers, Burwell served the punch. Nancy Watson, O'Neill, Mrs. Ted Pfeifer and Mrs. William Schellpepper, both of Lincoln, served at the reception.

Mrs. Howard Rasmussen, Lincoln, was in charge of the guest book and assisting at the gift table were Mrs. Larry Cook, Stromsburg, Judy Umberger, Lincoln and Steve and Tom Slusher, Valentine.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson are at home at 535 South 41st Street, Omaha. Mrs. Watson is teaching with the Omaha Public Schools and Mr. Watson is attending the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

Priscilla Ann Moller, Thomas Al Drayton Wed at Wakefield

Priscilla Ann Moller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Moller, Wakefield, was united in marriage to Thomas Al Drayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Drayton, Orchard at the First Presbyterian church, Wakefield. The Rev. John Brunn officiated at the Dec. 23 wedding.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of white de-lustered satin, which featured a bell skirt accented at the waistline by a small bow. The dress's simple bodice with long pointed sleeves was complimented by a short cape descending into a chapel train. Her floor length veil fell from a pill box head dress of matching white satin. She carried a bouquet of white calla lilies.

Kathleen Moller, Wakefield, served as her sister's maid of honor. Her bridesmaids were Mary Ann Harris, Janice Olson and Rozan Drayton. They were all identically gowned in pine green velvet dresses which followed the design of the bride's dress. It featured a street length bell skirt accented at the waistline by a wide contour belt and bow. The bodice of the dress was accented by an elbow length cape of matching green velvet. They wore small haloes of white fur on their heads. Matching green satin pumps completed the ensemble and the girls carried white muffs trimmed with holly.

Terry Drayton, Orchard, was the best man. Lyle Trease, Lincoln, Kenneth Withee, Plainview and Will Edwards, Lincoln were groomsmen. Ushers were Dennis Drayton and Allen West.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gustafson as hosts and hostesses.

Registering the guests were Mrs. James Alexander, Dorothy Shallenberger was in charge of the gift book and Mrs. Norman West and Gertrude Gribble presided at the table.

After a wedding trip to Minneapolis, Minn., the couple will reside at Plainview.
