Marion Sindelar Weds Dale Ring in Catholic Ceremony

PAGE — Marion Sindelar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sindelar, Howells, Neb., was united in marriage to Dale Ring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Ring, Winner, S. D. Dec. 27 at St. John's Catholic church with the Rev. Vaclav Kovac officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a super-ly shaped gown of silk mist taffeta re-embroidered on alencon lace. The sculptured bodice encircled in a crushed cummerbund enhanced with a pearl encrusted overlay of lace was fashioned with a portrait neckline. The long sleeves tapered to the traditional bridal points over the wrist. The gently controlled skirt was designed with a back interest of ruffles and flowing panels. Her double veil of imported French illusion fell in a circle sweep from a jeweled coronet. She carried a bouquet of white carnations which was centered around a removable orchid corsage.

Veronica Sindelar, Howells, was maid of honor for her sister and she was gowned in a royal blue satin dress with a fitted bodice which featured a scoop neckline with bracelet length sleeves. Her floor length princess skirt carried out the rosette trim at the back. Her matching swiss braid coronet was topped with a single rosette trimmed in a miniature veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations accented with silver glitter.

Ervin Sindelar, brother of the bride was the best man. Ushers were Gerald Novotny and Alben Sindelar. Following the ceremony a dinner for close friends and relatives was held. Dorothy Belina and Joann Flamme registered the guests and took care of the gifts. Mrs. Alben Sindelar cut and served the wedding cake. Angela, Marjorie and Adeline Sindelar and Elaine Dvorak served the bridal table.

The bride graduated from Howell high school and worked in Fremont before her marriage. The groom is a graduate from Lane High school and Southern State Teacher's college. He is now teaching at the Page public school.

Announce Marriage
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brady, Omaha wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Kathleen Faye to Mr. Robert F. Panek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Panek, Omaha, on January 2 at the Bellevue Presbyterian church, Bellevue.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill high school, attended one year of college at Hastings college and a year at Omaha University.

The groom graduated from Omaha University and received his Masters Degree at Northwestern University at Chicago, Ill.

The couple are residing in Omaha where the groom is employed as a certified public accountant.

The door bell rang and a caller asked, would he come, his mother was dying and needed some one. He opened his Bible to look for a comforting thought, but it ended with malachi, no gospel, no promise it brought, no promise of hope, no salvation was there, all he could do was weep and join in her bitter despair.

Two days later he conducted the funeral rite, no message of comfort, though he tried with all his might, only dust and ashes to ashes and an eternal farewell. If Christ hadn't come there was no comforting promise to tell. He suddenly awoke with a shout of joy, as he heard singing in the church by a chapel boy.

Oh come all ye Faithful, Come let us Adore Him, that he heard, I bring you good tidings, for unto you is born a Savior, Christ the Lord. Then he started and struggled wide awake, to keep, for Jesus had come and he'd been asleep.

Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

News is real scarce this week due to the snow storm and cold weather. We received our first major snow storm Friday and Saturday. Our temperature dropped to around 15° below and snow drifts deep enough to keep everybody home. The Atkinson mail reached here Friday but was unable to get here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Matthews are parents of a daughter born Saturday, Jan. 12. She has been named Rebecca. Mrs. Matthews is the former Joan Fullerton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton.

The Helping Hand club met Thursday, Jan. 10 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hiatt. In spite of the stormy day there were ten members and five visiting men folks. A very delicious dinner was served at noon. Business meeting was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Hiatt. Other new officers are Mrs. Lew Backhaus is the secretary; treasurer, Mrs. Elmer Coolidge, vice president, Mrs. Ralph Rees, music leader, card chairman, Mrs. Bert Waldo, gift committee, Mrs. William Fryrear and Mrs. Charlie Peterson, and news reporter,

Mrs. Ralph Rees. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Joe Stocker and there will be a Valentine and pot holder exchange.

Vern Sageser has been attending the National REA meeting in Las Vegas, Nev., the past week, going by train from Grand Island Friday.

Don Adams was guest to a turkey supper at the Edgar Peterson home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnston and children, Laramie, Wyo., came Saturday and visited until Sunday with the Rev. Paul Andre family. Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Andre are sisters. The Johnstons left home Friday and due to the storm had to stay over Friday night in a motel. The temperature in Laramie reached a minus 50 degrees while they were away, so they did not think our 15 below weather was very cold.

Fredrick DeHart Council Bluffs, Ia., visited at the Marvin Doolittle home last week.

Mrs. Lew Backhaus helped Mrs. William Fryrear with some house cleaning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schade visited at Lindsey's Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Svatos and girls called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svatos Sunday afternoon. After finding his folks pretty well and got his tractor outfit and dug them out.

Heinie Frahm opened the snow drifts in the Amelia street Sunday afternoon.

The Lindseys received word that P. L. Strenger, Omaha, is again very ill in the Veterans' hospital here. He is the son-in-law of Mrs. Lindsey.

Mrs. Glenn White, Mrs. S. C. Barnett, Mrs. M. H. Madson, Mrs. Paul Fisher, Mrs. Harvey Hansen went to O'Neill Wednesday to hear the Missionary speaker at the Wesleyan Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White, Rev. and Mrs. Paul Andre and family, Clyde Burge, Joyce and Bruce attended the dedication of the new Wesleyan Methodist church in O'Neill Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Ott spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Everett.
