AK-SAR-BEN... one of Nebraska's largest taxpayers

In 1962, AK-SAR-BEN paid the state $598,242 in taxes from its racing meet. $78,318 was paid to the state racing commission for Nebraska's county fairs and every county fair shared in it. The balance went into the state's general fund to pay for highways, colleges and universities, agricultural research, state highway patrol, state hospitals and institutions and other governmental operations. ■ Since racing was legalized, AK-SAR-BEN has paid to the state in taxes and license fees and in voluntary contributions for agricultural, educational, civic and charitable programs $6,042,169. ■ Voluntary programs sponsored by AK-SAR-BEN—programs which otherwise would often have required tax funds—include thousands of scholarships covering every university and college in Nebraska... grants for county fair grounds improvements... 4-H and FFA projects... 4-H leaders training institutes... hospital, fire and rescue equipment for many Nebraska communities... co-sponsorship of the annual school for training volunteer firemen... and many others. ■ Yes—AK-SAR-BEN is one of Nebraska's largest tax payers. AK-SAR-BEN, a good citizen of Nebraska, invites other good citizens of Nebraska to join AK-SAR-BEN.
