Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

How can the weather change so quickly? Saturday was such a grand day and then when we awoke Sunday morning it had begun snowing and by that time we had received about an inch of snow. However, there was a lot of good moisture in it amounting to about .70.

Mrs. Paul Andre was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening after the Prayer meeting service when members of their congregation brought and served birthday cake and coffee.

A Sunday School rally was held at the Free Methodist church Friday evening with Rev. Ivan Turner, Ringgold, in charge. He spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Glen White.

Prayer conference was held at the Amelia (Bethany) Free Methodist church Saturday. Rev. Ivan Turner, Ringgold, was speaker at the 10 o'clock morning service. A basket dinner was served at noon with 41 people present. The afternoon speaker was Rev. Charles Phipps, Atkinson, State Superintendent of Wesleyan churches. There were about 50 in attendance for this service.

Clyde Burge, Robert, Joyce and Bruce, Sunday dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hansen and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Barnett, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Maude Forbes was a dinner guest Sunday with Mrs. Lindsey and Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Weigle and Judy visited over the weekend with relatives at Red Cloud.

Julie, Susie and Becky Blackmore, North Platte, stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Watson from Saturday until Wednesday of last week while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Blackmore, were in Chicago to attend a machinery show. Bob and two other employees were sent by the company by which they are employed to attend the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Robak and family, Homer, visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sammons and family Saturday and Sunday.

Amelia Progressive Club
The Amelia Progressive club met Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 27 with Mrs. Vern Sageser. The meeting was called to order by reading the Club Creed and followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer. Roll call was answered with a sewing hint or question. Ten members were present. It was decided to make articles of clothing for the University Hospital in Omaha and to do some sewing for the Atkinson Hospital. Mrs. Milton Clemens was appointed to find out what garments were most needed. Year books were filled out and names for new mystery sisters drawn. It was also voted to send a Christmas box to the children's ward of the University hospital again next year. A letter of thanks was read for the gifts sent the past Christmas. Mrs. Clyde Widman presented the lesson on "sewing with wool" and Mrs. Rees gave an interesting article on silverware and displayed several old pieces. The next meeting will be with Florence Lindsey.

World Day of Prayer

Eight members of the Amelia WCS attended the World Day of Prayer service at the Chambers Methodist church Friday afternoon. Those attending were Mrs. Blake Ott, Mrs. Ralph Rees, Mrs. Vern Sageser, Mrs. May Sageser, Mrs. Ernest Johnston, Mrs. Leola Backhaus, Mrs. Clyde Widman, Mrs. Asa Watson and Mrs. Edith Andersen.

Mrs. Maude Forbes returned home Tuesday from Atkinson where she had been staying with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Forbes.

Among those from this community attending the funeral of Lloyd Gled Friday, Mar. 1 were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sageser, Mrs. Frank Pierce and Mrs. Ralph Rees.

Mr. George Fullerton and her daughter, Mrs. Gene Skala and Kelly visited her sister, Mrs. Paul (Mary Lou) Moore and family at Rapid City, S. D. last week.

Mrs. Gertrude Adair returned home Friday from Washington, D. C. where she had been with her daughter, Mrs. George Fogel and family and Mrs. Ted Price and Mr. Price. She also visited another daughter, Mrs. Bill (Joan) Schmitt and family, Council Bluffs, Ia. enroute home.

Mrs. Heinie Frahm and family and Mrs. Maude Forbes were in Atkinson Saturday. Patty Frahm had the cast removed from her arm which she had broken at Christmas time.

A card was received from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leder, Atkinson, saying they were visiting their sons, Kenneth at Lompoc, Calif., and sons Arlen and Lee also in California. Mrs. Leder formerly operated the telephone switchboard in Amelia.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svatos, Mrs. Maude Forbes, Patty and Sue Frahm visited the Lindseys Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinie Frahm, Patty, Doreen Sue, Dannie, Douglas and Gregg and Pete Frahm visited over Saturday night with the Jerome Krutz family near Pilger.

Mrs. Blake Ott was a business caller in Chambers Wednesday and also visited Mrs. Stella Sparks while there.

This is a copy of part of a letter to accompany a check received from their son, Floyd, who recently was sent to Germany on active duty requirement.

"I am a Captain in the Air Force Reserves. I had an opportunity to accompany an Aerial Medical evacuation team to Germany to bring back a jet plane load of sick and injured service men and their dependents as a part of my annual 15-day active duty requirement. We flew Com-1 Aircraft to McGuire Air Force jet to Frankfurt, Germany and then returned non-stop via Air Force jet to McGuire. The trip over took 7 hours and 10 minutes, the trip back because of slight head winds took 8 hours. We were in Frankfurt and Wiesbaden. My main job was to prepare newspaper and magazine articles and take pictures of the aerial evacuation operation."

Floyd's home is at Prairie Village, Kansas City, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolcott entertained their card club Friday evening, Mar. 1. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Doolittle and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett. Mr. and Mrs. Everett were high score winners.

Mrs. Emma Reed, of Page, brought her sister, Mrs. Morris Kennedy to Amelia Wednesday. They were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Kennedy and later in the afternoon visited at the Art Doolittle and Edgar Peterson homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peterson visited their sister-in-law, Mrs. Morris Kennedy at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stevens, Page, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Kennedy's home is at Riverside, Calif.
Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sageser went to Atkinson Tuesday to have dental work done.
Mr. and Mrs. Troxell Green and family called on Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Barnett Saturday evening.
Rev. Paul Andre was called to Inman Tuesday to conduct funeral services for Mrs. Otto Retke.
