

Eagles Sidelined At Ord Tournament

The end was sudden and bitter for the Eagles of O'Neill High on Monday evening when they fell victim to Broken Bow by a 65-58 score in the first round action of the District Tourney at Ord. The top-seeded Eagles couldn't get moving the first half while Broken Bow's George Kovar scored 15 points in the first quarter from the middle of the free throw lane.

The Ord Warriors out-hustled the O'Neill crew off the boards and bottled up Rich Hill, holding the 6' 7" center to five points the first half. Senior Terry Kurtz dropped in five of the Eagles' seven field goals in the first half, and the only three of the first quarter as the big blue simply couldn't get rolling.

Broken Bow started hitting from out in the second quarter and the OHS team found themselves trailing 31-21 at the half.

The turning point of the game occurred with 2 seconds to go in the first half when Hill committed his fourth foul while trying to block a Broken Bow lay-in.

Without the services of Big Rich in the third period, the Eagles found their outside shooters covered and they had to rely on the work of sophomore pivot man Ivan Hurley, who scored seven points in the third stanza. The Eagles were trailing 48-38 going into the final period when Hill returned from the bench. But Rich's 16 points in the closing quarter couldn't make up for the deficit.

Back-court men Gary Plessell and Kurtz fouled out with less than two minutes remaining.

The story could be related simply and quickly in two words: free throws. As usual, the Eagles missed and their opponents hit. Broken Bow dropped in nine of twelve charity tosses in the final quarter while the O'Neill guard hit 46% for the evening.

Kovar's 32 tallies led Broken Bow. Two other Warriors scored in double figures.

The Eagles closed out their regular season play with a disappointing 62-55 win over Bloomfield on Friday. O'Neill jumped to a 29-6 first quarter lead as all of the first five seemed to be finding the range, but with a 30-10 lead the visiting blue suddenly relaxed and they found their lead cut to 33-21 at half-time.

The twelve-point advantage held up going into the final stanza but again Bloomfield rallied, this time to within one point of the Eagles before Coach Kokoroda's crew recuperated and hiked the lead back up to seven points where it remained when the buzzer sounded.

Rich Hill's 28 points led the OHS attack, followed by Terry Kurtz with 12 counters.

Rot Eisenhower paced the losers with 22 points.

service is aimed at finding the unknown cases of tuberculosis among adults does not mean that children are immune to tuberculosis," Dr. Rogers said. TB can and does strike at any age, and children can develop pulmonary tuberculosis. However, it is much less common among them than among those of middle age and over.

"We can be fairly sure that a child who develops TB catches it from an adult, probably one in his immediate family. It seems best to prevent this by finding the hidden cases of TB among the adult population," he explained. Dr. Rogers emphasized the fact that a child does not inherit tuberculosis from his parents. However, he pointed out, adults can be passing on TB germs to children, as well as to other adults, not knowing that they have the disease in active form.

Workshop for Area Recreation Leaders Planned

March 20 is the date set for the county wide recreation school to be held in O'Neill at the Legion Hall. The day long and evening sessions are open to anyone who plans, assists, or leads recreation for an organization. Since this is not intended to entertain, only those who will actually conduct recreation are asked to come.

The session will begin about 8:30 in the morning and continue until 10:15 in the evening. Covered during that time will be ideas on music, games, folk and square dancing, dramatics and the philosophy of recreation. Exhibits on world wide games, puppets, decorations, crafts and home made games may also be seen.

The recreation school is sponsored by the Holt County Agricultural Extension Service. However, the personnel would like to emphasize that the school is not limited to any organization. Anyone interested in leading recreation is invited to attend.

Irrigators to Attend Meeting Here Tuesday

The workshop will consist of three afternoon sessions on March 12, 19 and 26 beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Soils and irrigation specialists from the University of Nebraska will conduct the workshops. These specialists include John Decker, M. D. Weldon, Deon Axthelm, Clinton Hoover and Paul Fishback.

Chest X-Ray Survey Planned Here March 11-22

In announcing the dates for the Holt County Chest X-Ray Survey Mrs. James Gallagher, Survey chairman, wishes to call attention to the fact that only the communities of O'Neill and Atkinson will be used as locations for the X-Ray Unit. All Holt County residents are urged to participate in the survey at these locations. O'Neill: March 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22. Atkinson: March 26, 27, 28, and 29.

The necessity for this type of scheduling was explained by a State Health Department representative at a recent meeting of the County Tuberculosis Committee. The Health Department's X-Ray Survey facilities have been limited to one Mobile X-Ray Unit because of a reduction of funds appropriated for this program. To make this Unit available to all Nebraskans in a minimum of time the plan was devised to limit locations of the Unit to the county-seat and/or other large community in the county. This plan has been in effect since October, 1960 but aside from the fact that it is not as convenient for everyone as formerly, results have been very satisfactory. Why high school students are not included in the community chest X-Ray program was explained by Dr. E. A. Rogers, director of the state of Nebraska Department of Health. "The fact that the free X-Ray
