

Your Farm Sale
Newspaper
in North Central
Nebraska

THE FRONTIER

Twelve Pages
In This Issue
Plus Farm Section

"The Voice of the Beef Empire"—North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, March 14, 1963

Volume 82—Number 47

Seven Cents

A MAZE OF WIRES confront workmen as they begin installing dial equipment in the new Northwestern Bell telephone office in O'Neill. Several months of work remains before the change to dial system is complete.

O'Neill Students To Compete at Kearney Mar. 22

The following students will represent O'Neill High school at the inter-scholastic contest at Kearney on March 22.

Ann Johnson, English usage, literature; Terry Kurtz, art ability, mechanical drawing; Delores Rosenkrans, second year algebra, chemistry, American history; Ivan Hurley, general biology, plane geometry; Wanda Hall, trigonometry, world geography; Jim Widfeldt, general science; Richard Frost, mechanical drawing; JoAnn Alm, algebra I; Bill Enke, world history; Dianne Gillespie, penmanship; Christine Herley, typing I and JoAnn Maschl, shorthand I.

Spring Court Term To Begin Monday

Holt county's spring term of court will open Monday at 10 a.m. The first case to come before the jury will be the State of Nebraska versus Willis J. Russell. Russell is charged with drunken driving.

Case number two is Melvin Dean Rossman and Truman Rossman versus Duane Saltz, a personal injury case. Case number three is Dale D. Master, et al versus L. Genug, property damage. The fourth case is Robert Waldo and Bonnie Waldo versus Carrol C. Summerer, personal injury and the fifth case is Honegers and Company Inc. versus Don Robinson, money suit.

Darla Waldo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo of Chambers was chosen by the American Legion to represent them at Girls State in June at Lincoln. Darla is a junior at Chambers high school, is an honor student, a member of the National Honor Society. She is also a cheerleader and active in volleyball.

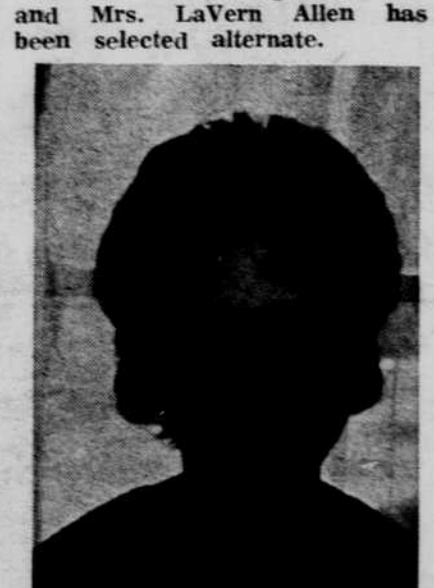

Chellie Nolze, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nolze, has been selected as the Clearwater representative to attend Girl's State sponsored by the local American Legion Auxiliary.

Miss Nolze, an honor student for the past three years is active in glee club, girls sextet and volleyball and holds positions on the student council and on the student paper staff. She has been a cheerleader the past three years in pep club and class and tendent both her freshman and sophomore years at the annual sports banquet.

EWING — Sandra Tellander, granddaughter of Mrs. Josie Versaw, and daughter of Mrs. Delores McClurg, Los Angeles, has been chosen to represent Ewing at Girls State. She is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Sanders post 214.

Sandra is a junior in the Ewing high school and president of her class. She is active in girl's glee, triple trio, band, pep club and is secretary of a science club.

PAGE — Peggy O'Brein has been chosen to represent Page at Girl's State in Lincoln during June and she will be sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 315.

Peggy is a junior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Brein.

Becky Beelaert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beelaert is alternate.

J. Enke Elected P-TA President

The regular meeting of the O'Neill P-TA was held Monday evening.

Election of officers were held with John Enke elected president, Grant Peacock, vice-president, Ruth Younie, secretary and Mrs. Bob Pappenhoeimer, treasurer.

Dianne Gillespie entertained the group by playing three musical selections.

A civil defense film was shown, followed by Bob Pappenhoeimer presenting plans and information on a civil defense program for the local area.

Refreshments were served by the 4th and 6th grade mothers.

Livestock Day Set at Stuart; Plan Program

Durward DeWitt, Manager of the Youth Department of the Consumer's Co-operative Association, Kansas City, Mo. will be assisting with the recreation school coming next week. The all day and evening session will be held Wednesday, March 20 at the Legion Hall in O'Neill.

John Orr, Associate Young Men and Women leader, from the University of Nebraska and other Agricultural Extension Service personnel will also be on hand to conduct the program.

Leaders of recreation from any organization are invited to attend. They are urged to attend the entire day and evening program.

Those attending are invited to bring a sack lunch if they wish.

"Fruit in Your Meals" will be the topic of the demonstration to be given as part of the women's program during the Grassland-Livestock Day, Monday, March 18 at Stuart. The program will begin about 2:00 p.m.

Fruit breads, fruit and meat combinations, salad suggestions, quick and easy, fruit desserts will be some of the topics covered in the demonstration.

County Agent, Catherine Indra, will present the demonstration. The public is invited to attend the afternoon program.

Elmer Juracek Are Honored on 25th Anniversary

A surprise open house was given for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Juracek on their 25th wedding anniversary at their farm home, by their daughters.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Lieb, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Juracek, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Derickson, Mr. and Mrs. William Derickson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krugman and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Juracek and Kay Hill, all of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Larson, Orchard, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Heese, Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Nelson, South Sioux City, Mrs. Sophia Nekuda, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Stewart, Mrs. Gene Mudloff and Larry, Page.

The Juraceks are the parents of three children, Mrs. Dean (Judy) Anderson, Irma Boyle, both of Seattle and Lyle at home.

Kersenbrock Named Country Club Prexy

The annual meeting of the O'Neill Country Club stock holders was held Monday evening at the Consumers meeting room.

New officers elected for the coming year are Duke Kersenbrock, president; Verne Reynolds, vice president; Dr. Gleason, secretary and Ben Grady, treasurer.

New board members named are John Conard and Bill Artus.

Boy Scouts Gather Goodwill Clothing

Boy Scouts gathered a semi-truck load of clothing and other articles in their annual good turn day Saturday. Scouts of Troops 210 and 245, together with volunteer workers who drove their own cars and trucks, gathered the packages and delivered them to the Booth Transfer dock where they were picked up by Valentine Motor lines to be hauled to Sioux City.

Boys! Sign Up Now Baseball Starts Soon

Spring must be here! The annual registration of boys interested in organized baseball starts with this issue of the Frontier. Elsewhere on this page will be found a registration blank for the youngsters. Kids are cautioned to fill in blanks carefully and accurately and return them to the newspaper office as soon as possible.

Open House Planned At New Spelts Home

Spelts Lumber company will hold open house at the new home recently completed at the corner of First and Dover in northwest O'Neill. The house will be open for inspection Sunday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. For complete details see the Spelts ad elsewhere in this issue of the Frontier.

Two O'Neill Women Attend Governor's Tea

Mrs. Leo Tomjack and Miss Florence Ponton attended a tea Sunday at the Governor's mansion for the kick-off of the Nebraska Easter Seal campaign. The Governor and Mrs. Mason were there to welcome county and state officers. Miss Ponton is on the board of the Seal.

OVER 600 DOLLARS was taken in Saturday at the benefit pancake feed held at the Legion hall in O'Neill. Proceeds will go to the band fund to help send the Indianapolis "500" festival.

Rites Held for Mrs. M. Novak At Verdigré

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Mary Novak, 90, March 7 at 2 p.m. at the ZCZJ Hall, with the Rev. David T. Gustafson, officiating.

Palbearers were Frank Dobry, Anton Somer, Charles Sokol, Benny Vavak, Emil Vonasek and Frank Vavak. Interment was in the Jelen cemetery.

Mary Janek, daughter of Joseph and Frances Janek, was born September 15, 1873 at Chicago, Ill. In 1880 she moved with her parents and sister to a farm in the Jelen community, west of Verdigré.

She married Joseph Vavak in 1893 and they were the parents of one child who died in infancy. After farming for twenty years, they retired and moved into Verdigré, where her husband died in 1921.

She was later married to James Novak. In 1956 she entered the Hills Rest home, Niobrara and lived there until February of 1963 when she became ill. She died March 4 at the Lundberg Memorial hospital.

She is survived by nieces and nephews.

O'Neill Woman Hurt As Auto Overturns

An O'Neill woman, Mrs. Maude Brion, was injured Saturday night when the car she was driving went out of control and overturned about one mile east of Inman. Mrs. Brion suffered a broken arm in the mishap.

Mrs. Brion was returning to O'Neill on highway 30 when the car went off the road and overturned. Extensive damage was done to the 1963 auto.

Rites Planned Here Friday for E. F. Petersen

Funeral services for E. F. Petersen, 64, will be held Friday at Biglin's chapel with the Rev. Glenn Kennicott officiating. Burial will be at Prospect Hill cemetery.

Ervin Frederick Petersen, the son of Hans and Anna Hansen Petersen, was born August 3, 1898 at O'Neill, and daughter, Mrs. Dick (Mardene) McNichols. He is also survived by brothers, Hans Petersen, Omaha, and Charles Petersen, Wichita.

Training Course Offered Here

Recreation leaders in this area can receive intensive training in many areas of recreation. This training is being offered during the week of March 25-30 at Nysted, Nebr. It is called the "Great Plains Recreation Leaders Laboratory."

The 1963 laboratory offers training in leather craft, sand casting, mosaics, simple scenery painting, peasant painting, scribe scribbling, shoe covering and dyeing, lapidary, simple photography, darkroom developing, border print pictures, wooden games, square and folk dancing, hat making, recreation philosophy and party planning.

Details on the cost and other requirements may be obtained at the County Extension Office in O'Neill.

Party Honors Andrew Gilbert On 85th Birthday

Andrew Gilbert, Chambers, observed his 85th birthday March 7 and was pleasantly surprised by the appearance of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gilbert, Stuart, bringing home made ice cream and a decorated birthday cake with 85 candles.

During the day several friends and neighbors called, bearing cards and gifts. Among them were Mrs. Lloyd Wintermute who took several pictures of the group.

Mrs. Z. X. Marshall, Stuart, called in the evening and enjoyed a visit with the Gilberts.

Two Students Named To Nebr. U Honor Roll

The University of Nebraska announced that David B. Garwood and Gary W. Fick, Inman, were among those from this area who earned grades of 8.0 or higher for this semester.

Four Persons Named At Inman School Caucus

Four persons were nominated for two school board posts at Inman school board caucus Tuesday.

Nominated were Clifford Sobotka, Walter Fick, Horace Sholes, and Harvey Tompkins.

The terms of Clifford Sobotka and Frelent Pribil expire.

Rites Planned Here Today for Rosa Harding

Funeral services for Rosa May Harding, 87, will be held Thursday (today) from the Wesleyan Methodist church with the Rev. Bernice Hubby officiating.

Palbearers will be her grandsons.

Rosa May Denton, the daughter of James Bradley and Nancy Jane Wanege Denton, was born October 13, 1875 at Macedonia, Ia. She married Thomas William Harding, January 1, 1886 and they became the parents of 11 children.

They came to Holt county from Iowa in 1921.

She is survived by sons, Thomas Denton, Petersburg, James Byron, Loves Park, Ill., Clifford John, O'Neill, daughters, Edna Jane Huelbert, O'Neill, Mildred Lorene Hobbs, Ewing, Wilma Fern Havens, Roscoe, Ill., brothers, Charles Denton, Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, Alva Denton, Paul, Idaho, sisters, Mrs. Rena Kric, Kent, Wash., and Mrs. Susan Hendrickson, South Dakota.

Dimes Drive Nets $3,196 In County

The Holt County March of Dimes drive final reports are completed and the following is a report of the drive. Amelia, Bernard Blackmore, $5.50; Atkinson, Mrs. Ted Manzer and Mrs. Don Mills, $624.03; Chambers, Mrs. James Gibson, $161.41; Emmet, Mrs. Vernon Beckwith, $28.70; Ewing, Mrs. Kaven Rotherham, $103.63; Inman, Mrs. James McMahon, $40; O'Neill, Mrs. K. L. Van Voorhis, $1,120.73; Page, Mrs. Cordes Walker, $175.40; Stuart, Mrs. R. C. Patterson, $196; Rural Mailers, $426.32; Rural School, Miss Alice French, $312.02.

The total amount is $3,196.56, less campaign expenses of $172.50 and 25 per cent for Medical Scientific research fund, $756.02, which leaves a total of $2,268.04. Half of the amount will go to the national headquarters and the other half will be for the local chapter.

The local chapter has given assistance in three cases in the past year and has contributed $750 to the Nebraska State Chapter to be divided equally between the Birth Defect Clinic at Children's Memorial Hospital in Omaha and the Rheumatoid Arthritis Clinic at St. Joseph's in Omaha.

The University of Nebraska College of Medicine works with two clinics. Any child with a congenital birth defect is eligible to receive the benefits of a three day evaluation at these clinics, upon referral of his personal Doctor, expense free. The clinics are held on the third Thursday of each month. Anyone desiring information in detail can contact the Holt County Chairman of National Foundation.

The Health Scholarship program has undergone a change and is under complete jurisdiction of the local chapter's of Directors for student reviews.

Any student who is interested in this phase of our program can get information from Mrs. K. L. Van Voorhis, Holt county National Foundation, O'Neill or from your local drive chairman who can see that the information is passed along to her.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Supper to Honor Members

The American Legion Auxiliary will honor the Legion members and their wives Monday evening to a pot luck dinner on March 18 at the Legion Club. Serving will start at 6:30.

At this time the charter members of the Auxiliary will be honored and also World War I Veterans.

Following will be the meeting of the Holt County Legion and Auxiliary. Every one is welcome to attend these meetings and the dinner.

Randall Boat Club Names Trupp President

Mike Trupp was elected president of the Fort Randall boat club at a meeting held Thursday night at Pickstown. Officers re-elected were Loren Kettelsen, vice-president and Mrs. Kettelsen, secretary-treasurer. D. H. Clauson was among those re-elected director. Dr. H. D. Gildersleeve is the outgoing president.

Sandy McKim will be the boat club caretaker for the coming year.

O'Neill Little League and Pony League Baseball Registration

Every boy, who is 14 years old or under on July 31, 1963, must register to play baseball this year. All registrations must be in by Saturday, March 23, 1963.

Due to the large number of boys in the Little League, any boy not registered will not be allowed to play baseball this year.

If two or more boys in family, use a plain piece of paper.

Registry forms can be obtained at your newspaper office.

Name .....
Street Address .....
Name of Team played with last year .....
Age ..... Birth date and year .....
BRING OR MAIL REGISTRATION TO EITHER NEWSPAPER

DATE	H	I	PREC.
March 7	40	25
March 8	38	27
March 9	40	27
March 10	51	21
March 11	43	30	.06
March 12	45	33
March 13	38	21

THE CHEST X-RAY UNIT has seen a steady line of persons waiting to get their free chest x-ray. Residents are reminded that the unit will remain in O'Neill until March 22 but will not be open on Saturday or Sunday. Anyone 18 years of age or over is invited to stop in for their free x-ray. The unit will move on to Atkinson March 26.