Legionaires and wives were guests Friday evening at the Legion hall to observe the 44th birthday anniversary of the Legion. Forty guests were present. Pitch and Pinochle furnished the entertainment for the evening.

In pinochle, high scores were held by Floyd Neal and Mrs. Inez Jaekle, lows Benny Prater and Mrs. Harold Berringer. In pitch, high scores went to Fred Maben and Mrs. Arthur Ahlers, lows to Mrs. LaVern Allen and Arthur Ahlers. Lunch was served by the Auxiliary. Three birthday cakes were presented, they were baked by Mrs. Roy Stevens, Mrs. Benny Prater and Mrs. Inez Jaekle. Mrs. John Rix decorated all three. One was a flag, one bore the Legion post 267 letters and numerals and one a large 44, the number of years being observed.

Mrs. Roy Stevens was awakened in the wee hours Friday morning by the continuous barking of stray dogs. The dogs had chased cattle and barked other nights, but their continued disturbance caused her to get up to investigate. She looked out of her front window just in time to see a huge ball of fire in the air and sparks shooting from all side, after which all was quiet. After a little thought she went back to bed and upon investigation the next morning her calculations proved right. The dogs chased a coon up a light pole by the side of the road, and Mr. Coon had come down, lifeless, almost as fast as he went up, after coming in contact with some high voltage wires. The dogs didn't wait to claim their prey and it is likely they have found a little less exciting neighborhood to prow.
