A Poem From Mrs. Eby ... The Frontier-

Taking Out Supplies An old colored lady at hard labor there, Earned a very precarious living and fare.

But was a happy triumphant Christian they say, Oh Nancy! said a gloomy lady to her one day.

It's fine to be happy tis true, but thoughts of the future should sober you.

Suppose you'd be sick and couldn't work or old and gray, Or perchance your employer should move away.

Maybe no one would give you anything to do, Or suppose I suppose your laboring days are in your hour, Oh "Stop cried Nancy", I never suppose,

The Lord is my Shepherd and I always know, That I shall not want and "Honey" to her gloomy friend, Them supposes make you miserable to the end,

Better give them up and trust the Lord, In their place just put the blessing word, This verse in Hebrews takes them out of your life,

And supposes just die in the midst of strife, That verse in Hebrews I am talking about, Just keeps me happy and makes supposes rout,

Hebrews 13, 5, 6. Be content with such things as ye have, For he hath said, I will never leave thee nor forsake thee And that includes Eby
