It was nice to hear from old neighbors and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Yorke of Seattle. They report liking their new state very much but miss Nebraska and old friends. They spoke of having flowers in bloom, garden was ready for planting and the cherry trees were showing first blossoms. Right now our own Nebraska is boasting early spring but we have been fooled too often before and those first robins and other birds have found themselves in a rush for shelter from a blizzard. So we do hope those fruit trees and flowers are not enticed too easily, we don't mean to sound pessimistic, just speaking as a true Nebraskan here as 'Shorty' Kane and was kan that has more than once dug out heavy winter clothing that had been tucked away for the spring and summer.

Members of the MYF of the Methodist church and helpers served pancakes and sausage to the public at the Legion hall Saturday beginning at 11 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. They report a very satisfactory turn out.
