"Leave No Stone Unturned" is Best Advice to Rock Collecting Housewife

By Mrs. Merrill Anderson
ATKINSON — A lifelong desire to work with rocks has inspired Mrs. Mary Parsons of Atkinson with many fascinating ideas that have made her home here a center of interest.

Mrs. Parsons was born on a farm in the rocky regions, nine miles east of Niobrara. When a young girl she spent many hours roaming the hills, gathering stones, and often pleaded with her father to build a stone house.

After her marriage to Guy Parsons, they left the rocky farm at Niobrara and with her husband moved to a ranch near Door Lake, 25 miles southwest of Atkinson. Here they made their home for about 30 years.

Five years ago the Parsons retired from ranching and bought a home in town. Remodeling was in order. New rooms were built on and old floors were replaced with new ones and major changes made throughout the old structure.

Mary envisioned many possibilities for beautifying the interior of their new home and also develop the exterior landscaping.
