

A Poem From Mrs. Eby ...

The Greatness Of God

We are profoundly impressed with God's greatness. He never does anything small. When He made an ocean, He made it so deep that man can't fathom it all. When He made a mountain, He made it so big that no one can measure or weigh it. When He made the valley so deep and wide that man don't try to survey it. When He made grace, He made it fathomless as the sea, grace for time and eternity. Even grace enough for me. Salvation flows like a river straight from the hands of the giver. Whatever blessing is in our cup it is sure to just run over. And as we trust in Him the overflow is sweet for some wandering rover.

For there's no grudging in God's giving. He gives and gives until we're quite overcome. And He's only begun. His grace to give, with His love to help us how to live.

We just can't doubt the greatness of God's power, to carry the load and freely give grace for every trying hour.

Abraham Lincoln once said, "Many times I have been driven to my knees convinced there was no where else to go for help", and he got it.
