Linda E. Johnston Weds Richard Cobb In Rite at Norfolk

Linda E. Johnston and Richard G. Cobb were united in marriage April 20, at the Trinity Episcopal church, Norfolk. Father James M. Barnett, officiated at the 3:30 double ring ceremony.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Johnston, Orchard and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Cobb, Norfolk.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of silk organza with chantilly type lace bodice with bands of lace on front of skirt. A crown of sequins and pearls accented her bouffant veil, Diane Johnston was her sister's maid of honor and she wore a street length bouffant gown of mint green with a white carnation corsage. Sharon Davis as bridesmaid wore a yellow gown identical to the maid of honor.

Robert Behrens, Norfolk, served as best. Ushers were Terry Bartarfi, John Cobb, Norfolk and Warren, Orchard.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the parish hall of the church.

Mrs. Cobb attended Orchard high school and WSTC. She is employed at Northwestern Bell Telephone.

Mr. Cobb is a graduate of Norfolk high school and attended Norfolk junior college and WSTC.

Barbara Obermire, Jerry Van Houten Exchange Vows

St. Peter and Paul Catholic church, Butte, was the scene of the Saturday afternoon wedding of Barbara Obermire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Obermire, Atkinson and Jerry Van Houten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van Houten, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Copes, died early Monday morning at the Veteran's hospital, Lincoln, after a lingering illness.

Survivors include his widow, Lois; daughters, Mrs. Duane (Barbara) Bechtolt, Christine, sons, Michael and Stephen, father, Cecil Woods, brother, Dale, sister, Mrs. Harry (Jean) Pappas, all of Lincoln, granddaughter, Michelle Bechtolt and grandmother, Mrs. R. D. Copes, Page.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a modified sweetheart neckline and long tapering sleeves. The floor length hooped skirt of white tulle over satin was accented by a scalloped peplum of lace. The veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a crown of lace and seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations, pink roses and lily of the valley, showered with streamers of white satin with rose buds and lily of the valley attached. Her only jewelry was a silver cross and matching earrings, a gift of the groom. She carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed, blue and a penny in her shoe.

Mary Ann Zamunsky, Butte, was maid of honor. Mrs. Dean Obermire, Omaha and Judy Bauslaugh, Butte, were bridesmaids. They appeared in lime green nylon over taffeta street length frocks with head dress of white net and flowers. Their colonial bouquets were of pink carnations and pink satin streamers.

Linda Mahannah, Butte, was flower girl. She wore a floor length white tulle gown with green cummerbund ending in a large bow and streamers. She wore a matching green net head dress and carried a basket of carnation petals.

Dale Van Houten was his brother's best man, Dean Obermire, Omaha, and Byron Obermire, Butte, served as groomsmen. Ricky Obermire was ringbearer. Ushers were Donald Obermire and Glenn Van Houten.

Merle Liewer, Butte, sang, "I Love Thee, Oh Mary", accompanied at the organ by Sister Angelic.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Butte Legion hall for 175 guests.

The serving table was centered by a four tier wedding cake, which was decorated and served by Mrs. Don Mahannah, Butte. She was assisted by Patty Juracek, Verdigré. The punch was served by Mrs. Owen Johnson and Mrs. Gus Obermire poured the coffee. Jean Obermire, Stuart, registered the guests. The bride's table was decorated in her colors of green and white.

Mrs. VanHouten attended Butte High school and is now employed as a typist at Boys Town, Omaha.

The groom is a 1961 graduate from Butte High school and is employed in Omaha.
