Celia News

Mrs. Mark Hendricks

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Keller have moved into their new home, the former Frank Skrdla ranch home. They have been living on the Bill Coleman ranch the past few months until the Skrdla place was released to them. Those helping them move this past week were George Syfie, Ray and Rex Coburn, and Ed Bausch. Mr. Bill Coburn also helped. On Monday Ray and Harold Coburn and George Syfie helped Mr. Keller move his cattle to their pastures.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Giles, Elsmere, were dinner guests at the Keller home Tuesday. They delivered four bulls to the Kellers which Mr. Keller had purchased recently.

Rolland Thurlow, Gerold O'Connell and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Klinger and children were dinner guests at the Mark Hendricks home on Sunday. In the afternoon the boys started walking to the Kid Wade Canyon. The rest of the group met them later and enjoyed exploring the canyon again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sicheneder were dinner guests at the Jim Sicheneder home Sunday.

Mrs. Vic Frickel visited with Mrs. Mark Hendricks Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton McKathnie and children attended the school picnic of district 89 on Sunday afternoon. It was held at the school house.

Mrs. Milton McKathnie, a teacher at Dist. 89 and Mrs. Lou Havranek took the children of grades five through eight on an extended tour this past week. They went from the school first to the Twin Buttes, then on to Gregory, S. D. where they visited at the Soper Museum, then on to Reliance and saw the TV station, then through Chamberlain and on to Mitchell, S. D. where they viewed the Corn Palace from the outside as it was not open that day. They also visited the TV station where they watched a TV program being put on. They also visited a museum there, but it was closed so they were contented with looking through the windows and saw a number of interesting things. Then they returned home by way of Fort Randall, a tired but happy group. For arithmetic the next day the pupils had to figure up the mileage of their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Anderson were dinner guests of the Herman Meyers sr. Sunday.

Connie Bowlby Weds Delynn Pickering In Ceremony at Lynch

Connie Bowlby, daughter of Mrs. Lois Bowlby, became the bride of Delynn DeLynn Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pickering, Lynch, May 16, at the First Methodist church, Lynch. The Rev. John Neal officiated at the 6:30 candlelight ceremony.

Sharie Lower, played the traditional wedding march. Jean Mulhair sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride given in marriage by her uncle, wore a floor length white chantilly lace gown. It featured a Sabrina neckline and fitted V bodice with long sleeves coming to a bridal point at the wrist. The bouffant skirt was charmingly lace over slipper satin. Her nylon net finger tip veil was trimmed with imported lace and it hung from a rhinestone tiara. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom.

Sharon Christensen, the maid of honor wore a light peach dress and carried a bouquet of white carnations trimmed with peach tulle. The bridesmaid, Patricia McKenzie wore an identical dress in light blue and also carried carnations. Virginia Pinkerman and Tony Bowlby acted as flower girl and ring bearer.

Quentin Pickering was his brother's best man. Ushers were Monty Pickering and Douglas McKenzie.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Lynch city hall. Mrs. Clyde McKenzie cut the wedding cake. The guests were registered by Mrs. Mary Ann Revell. Mrs. Jessie Ehrhardt, Mrs. Betty Christensen and Mrs. Mary Jane Stewart, poured the Gloria. Mrs. Cathy Herbek and Nancy Shaw were in charge of the gift table.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a brown suit dress with matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickering are both graduates of Lyon High school. He attended Sioux City Barber college. After a short honeymoon the couple will make their home in Lynch.
