Gold Star Moms Are Honored At Atkinson

The American Legion Auxiliary, Atkinson, held their regular meeting Wednesday evening. On June 2 and 3 the junior members are planning to go to Minnare. Barbara Minar gave a report on her visits to the Veteran's hospital and the Soldiers and Sailors Home, both in Grand Island. Mrs. Leo Monahan reported that $186 has been collected thus far from the sale of poppies.

It was voted to present a television set to the Good Samaritan Home. Roy Aten presented the unit with a desk.

Mrs. Roy Ries, Mrs. Fred Mack and Mrs. Carrie Keating were elected to serve on the nominating committee.

The Atkinson post will be hosts to the County convention in July and they will honor all past county presidents.

Following the meeting the Gold Star mothers and sisters were honored. Mrs. Claude Humphrey was in charge of the tea and she also baked and decorated in gold a three tier cake.

A trio consisting of Julia Fertherston, Bonnie Dobrovoly and Carol Hansen, sang "My Buddy" and "Flanders Field". A poem "In Flanders Field" was read by Mrs. Leo Monahan. Mrs. Ed Schmuscker read "Americans Answer" and Mrs. Roy Ries, "Poppies Day Facts".

Mother's Day honored were Mrs. Fred Mack, Mrs. Fred Jungman, Mrs. George Goldfuss, Mrs. Susie Tushla, Mrs. John Zahradnick, Mrs. Eve Seger, Mrs. August Troshynski, Mrs. Ray Carley and Mrs. Perry Barnes. Sisters honored were Mrs. Frank Kilmurry, Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mrs. John O. Olson, Mrs. A. G. Miller and Mrs. Herman McDaniels. The program ended with the hymn of the month, "Onward Christian Soldiers".

A beautiful American Legion Auxiliary lamp was presented by the Gold Star Mothers to the Unit for Life membership extended to them this year.
