It Holds it's Eleventh Annual Encamp-ment in Lincoln. The annual encampment of the G. A. R.

this week was largely attended notwithstanding the uncertainty of the running of trains. Many of the business houses were elaborately and beautifully decorated in honor of the gathering of the veterans. The entertain ment committee had everything prepared for the reception of delegates, and the whole affair passed off smoothly and pleasantly.

A welcome entertainment was given 'at Bohanan's hall Tuesday evening, an excellent program of exercises consisting of music, recitations, readings, songs, etc., had been pre-pared and listened to with much pleasure. The meeting closed with singing "Marching Through Georgia," by the audience.

Business meetings were held Wednesday morning and afternoon, and in the evening Farragut post gave an exemplification of the muster in rephesentative hall, followed by a formal reception to the G. A. R., W. R. C. and citizons, the evening's entertainment be ing closed with a regular old-fashioned campfire, led by Brad. P. Cook.

Something new in the way of entertain ments is always desirable and to a certainty Lincoln has had something new in the "Dairy Maid's Festival" which commenced last Satur day evening at the opera house and con-cluded with Tuesday and Wednessay evenings at Masonic Temple hall. For the past three weeks Lincoln has been on the qui vive for something it hardly knew what and couldn't guess. The curiosity was intensified when the young ladies would occassionly appear on the streets with domestic impliments of our grandames; the milk stools, skimmers and pails-but not until last saturday night did our citizeus know of the treat in store for them. Promptly at 8 o'clock (please note, critics, that this amateur entertainment managed by ladies, to, began at 8 o'clock, the time advertised,] after a complimentary selection in honor of Gov. and Mrs. Thayer, by the University orchestra, the curtain rose and at the word of command by Captin Gerwig, "Co. B," of the Dairy Maids, marched upon the stage, keeping perfect step and time, each carrying a milk pail for her weapon. "Right, left, right, left," and never a mistake as the captain ordered them by two's, now by fours, then in line of eight, or directed them in serpentine form, then suddenly be restored Mr. R. L. Brown, of Moline, Ill., is visiting an excellent program prepared, and aside to single couples, who demurely walked along, from the usual entertainment offered by the then presto, such complicated drilling, until young hostess, there are introduced such the old veteran heartily applauded the fair games as childhood alone can enjoy, and the older folks look on with delight. The meet-mand of Capt. Weber, armed with gilded milk stools, tied with blue ribbons. Nothing could be more pleasing than the manneuvers vanced and spring approaches, the meetings with the stools. This company was the admiration of the old soldiers and drilled to perfection. Both companies were uniformed in Following is almost a couple list of the pretty figured chintz dresses, becoming caps members of this popular young organization, which promises some day to be the leading of color effect that was delightful to the artistic eye. The climax was reached in the skimmer drill, when both companies united in a grand march, under Capt. J. B. Imhoff. Here the careful training was shown to the best effect. Though the drills were the principal features of the evening, other numbers of the program were choice and well selected.

The farmyard scene was old fashioned and effective. It pictured a farm yard, with two maids at the gate, waiting for the cows to come home; one at the haystack raking hay and another on the poarch spinning. chickens were there and all could distinctly hear the crowing of the rooster, the barking of the dogs, and the squealing of the pigs. Here Miss Jessie Lansing left the sea saw, came forward and sang very sweetly, "A Dairy Maid am I," the Dairy Maid's "Five o'clock in the Morning" and the Alpine solo by Miss Pennock, with chorus by the Maids were very pleasing. Mrs. Dorr sang "When the Kye Comes Hame" in her usual charming manner. Mrs. Weber delighted the audience with "The Cows are in the Corn" and as an encore "Tender and True." The ladies were presented with beautiful flowers, one design being a milk pail, the other a milk stool and Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond, as musical director. received a basket of flowers.

Married at Monroe,

The news of the marriage of Mr. H. R. Wiley to Miss Matie Montanye, at Monroe, N. Y., Feb. 22nd., was quite a surprise to many of the gentleman's friends in this city. It was known only to a few of his most intimate friends, his lady and geutlemen acquaintances generally conceding that he would yet awhile remain a member of the batchelor element of Lincoln. After the wedding the newly married couple visited New York, Chicago and other places of interest, and are now at home 1119 K street, receiving congratulations of a host of well wishers, and the COURIER joins in extending its best wishes for a long life of prosperity bliss and happiness.

A. D. Burr's Residence Burned.

The unfortunate fire which broke out in the residence of Mr. A. D. Burr is greatly to be regretted. This fine residence recently built by Mr. J. H. W. Hawkins, being a 'paragon of perfection" in elegance, comfort and safety. Mr. and Mrs. Burr had looked forward to it with much pleasure, only to be played. cut short by the "firefiend." The fire as heretofore stated, did not catch in the floor, nor from any defect in the flue, but in the side of the coal bin which was very recently put in, boards being placed very near the chimney and when the fireman built up a big fire early in the morning the pipe became hot and fired the boards

Much injury was done to the interior, whereas the house being built as near fireproof as possible one could scarcely tell that there had been a fire from the outside appearance. The total loss is about $5,000, which is fortunately covered by insurance, pressure was so low at one time that the stream could hardly reach the top of the house. Mr. and Mrs. Burr have already the sympathy of their many friends. Mr. Burr will proceed to rebuild at once and in a few weeks the house will be ready for occupancy. Engraved Calling Cards.

It is becoming more fashionable day by day for ladies to use the engraved calling card instead of the written or printed, and to be up with the times the COURIER now offers a line of these choice goods at eastern prices. During the past week we have taken no less than dozen orders from the leading society ladies of the city, and it will afford us pleasure to show specimens of the work to all who maycall. The engraving is done in the very finest style of the art, and the various shapes in cards are all represented. Ladies are invited to call on us in the new Burr block.

one. On entering the hall one was transported to the artic regions, by a view of the ice palace. It represented a place made of snow and the effect was unique and beautiful. From ii were served ices of all kinds and ice cream. This booth was under the auspices of the Congregational ladies. Mrs. Burnham assisted by Mrs. Dr. Bailey and Mrs. Boehmer.

The sugar house was faraished with al kinds of home candies, by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. It was in charge of Mrs. Wm. Cla-ke assisted by Mrs. Andrus. From underneath a Japuasse canopy, the ladies of the Episcopalian church, Mrs. Barnard, assisted by Mrs. CoTo.th and Mrs. Walsh served all visitors with tea. The booth was built circular in form and hung with drapery, giving to the whole an oriental effect.

The Lutheran ladies had charge of the flowers and all were worked to purchase boquets, by two little girls dressed to represent roses and they certainly were hard to re-sist. "Dingle Deil Dairy" presented a very quaint appearance. It was the porch of an old farm house, with thatched roof. On the porch was seen the old spinning wheel of our grandmothers, the old chair together with the churn, bright pans and other utensils necessary to successful butter making. Surrounding the whole was a log rail fence, which took one back to the old homestead. The ladies, with the assistance of Mr. Will Hardy, deserve great credit for the artistic taste dis

Mrs. Paul Holm furnished the guests with buttermilk, fresh from the churn, butter made on the spot, and baskets of fresh eggs. The Baptist ladies had charge of the New England supper table and all who were fortunate enough to be served by them will be glad in the future to partake of all the Baptist suppers. The ladies of the exchange served oysters and lubches throughout the evening-if it is a fair sample of the lunches to be served at their lunch room, corner Twelfth and P streets, we bespeak for them liberal patronage. The committee of arrangements for the fes tival were Mesdames Elliott, Storrs, Imhoff, Raymond, Griffith, Coffroth and Miss Jones To these ladies the great success of the enter tainment is due and by their efforts, the opening of a "Boarding Home" for the young women, becomes a certainty.

First Vice Preside

Mr. R. E. Fishback, whose illness was noted in last week's COURIEB, died on Sunday last. Mr. Fishback had been a resident of Lincoln for over two years, coming here from Winterset, Iowa, and during that period has been employed with H. Herpolsheimer, where his wife is also a clerk. The remains were taken to his former home for interment. The bereavement was so sudden that it is doubly sad, and the COURIER extends its sympathies to the stricken wife,
