Time has come when all horses should be shod for the spring driving, and no gentleman can afford to let his horse go without shoes when there is such an excellent horse shoen in Lincoln as Charles Slattery. He makes fine work a specialty and never fails to give satisfaction. Call and see him at 315 South Eleventh street. Now that the season for using ice has commenced it behooves consumers to be very careful what they use. Much of the ice nowadays used is impure and conducive of bad results to good health. The ice sold by the Lincoln Ice Company cut from Oak Creek is strictly pure and healthy and will be delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders at 1040 O Street or telephone No. 1118.

Wedding Chimes. A very pleasant social event was the marriage on Tuesday evening last of Mr. Lewis F. Hellweg and Miss Susie Miller, which occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Meyer, No. 85 North Eleventh street, Rev. L. L. Lipe officiating. The ceremony took place at 8:30 o'clock, and was witnessed by members of the family and intimate friends only. The bride looked charming in a lovely dress of pink cashmere, the groom being attired in the conventional black. After the solemn words were spoken which united them for life the happy people upon whom congratulations innumerable were showered, all sat down to a bountiful wedding supper, and made merry the fleeting hours. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Meyer, with whom she has made her home for the past three years, and is a handsome and accomplished young lady who will adorn the home to which she goes. The groom has long been connected with the bindery department of the Journal, and is an upright and industrious young man well liked by all. Both are well and favorably known known to a large circle of friends whose well wishes and hearty congratulations will be extended with the true warmth of friendship, and to that end their marital life will be a happy one, the Courier also joins. Many handsome and costly presents, useful and ornamental, were received. The young couple have settled down to the enjoyment of home comfort at 711 J Street.

Mrs. E. S. Thompson returned Tuesday to Omaha. Ex-Senator Van Wyck was in the city Wednesday. Mrs. J. E. Riggs is recovering from a very serious illness. Hon. Alexis Haller made Denver a short business trip this week. Dr. and Mrs. Lane left this week for the east to be gone several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mullen of Kansas City are visiting relatives in Lincoln. Hon. H. H. Wilson returned Thursday from two weeks' business trip to Ohio. By all odds the finest line of pocket cutlery in the city at Zehring & Henkle's. Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Sheldon returned Tuesday from an all winter's stay in California. They know just how to please you with oysters in every style at Brown's New Vienna Cafe. Charley Hoxie, the real estate man, had a leg broken Tuesday by being thrown from a wagon. Tickets to points in Kansas, Missouri and tickets via Omaha on sale at Elkhorn office, 115 So. 10th St. Mr. W. R. Phelan, one of the efficient clerks at the Capital Hotel, returned Monday from his trip to Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Mahler and their bright little daughter, Miss Rosalind, leave St. Louis tomorrow for Lincoln. The Capital City Chataqua circle held a very pleasant meeting Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Joseph Plummer was given a very elegant party Tuesday evening. Many little ones enjoyed a pleasant time. Miss Lucy B. Griffin, the elocutionist, gave a very delightful entertainment at Bohanan's hall Wednesday evening. Mr. W. Walton, with Clark & Leonard, returned Wednesday from a two months' visit with friends in Paris, Ontario. May, the month of roses, once more is with us and is welcomed like unto the "flowers that bloom in the spring, tra la, la lu." Mr. W. H. Berger has bought his ticket to Portland, Oregon, over the Union Pacific short line, and leaves early the coming week. Charley Eaton, the well known travelling man of this city, who was hurt at the wreck at Alma last Friday, is gradually recovering.

T. W. Tate, familiarly known among the boys as "Dad" Tate, left Tuesday to spend a two weeks' vacation at his home in Newton, Iowa. The McCormick Harvesting company will erect a three-story brick on the site of their present building, corner of Tenth and Q streets. Mr. H. J. Whitmore, the attorney, is now at home in his new office, room 54, Burr block, which he occupies with Hon. G. M. Lambertson. Maud and Mrs. Montrose entertained a few friends on Saturday evening. Card playing was the feature of the evening and all passed a pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hawley of Nebraska City, arrived in the city Thursday evening and are the guests of Mrs. Hawley's sister, Mrs. N. S. Brock. Buffalo Bill and company are now upon the great pond bound for America, the greatest country in the world, and will reach New York about the 20th of May. Prof. Bartlett, who is to lead the choruses in the May musical festival, arrived in the city yesterday, and had a rehearsal at the Congregational church last evening. Beautify your lawns by using the celebrated Pennsylvania lawn mower, made in two sizes to cut either long or short grass. Large line, Zehring & Henkle's sole agents, 1317 O Street. Miss Mabel Burch, lately of Peoria, Illinois, has arrived in Lincoln where she will make her future home at 1024 L Street. Miss Burch will prove an agreeable addition to Lincoln society. Mr. Ralph Kitchen arrived in the city Tuesday from Kansas City, where he has been undergoing medical treatment for some time. We are pleased to record his great improvement. Mr. Ed. Wessel, formerly a Lincolnite but now a prominent merchant of Omaha, arrived in the city Thursday on a visit for a few days with friends and relations. He returns home today. The Swedish social club gave a very pleasant ball at Masonic temple Wednesday evening. Mr. S. A. Warner acted as master of ceremonies, and the time was enjoyably spent in terpsichorean exercises. Some of D. E. Cummings (successor to Betts & Sewell) specialties: C. & B. Pickles, Mustard and Catsup, Kennedy crackers, Muddock pure Spices, Queen Olives, Lee & Perrin's goods, and other fine goods too numerous to mention. Telephone No. 30. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the reception of the druggists of Nebraska next week, and the visiting gentlemen will get a taste of the far-famed Lincoln hospitality, which they will not soon forget. A new ticket case just placed in Zeimer's ticket office is one of the finest and most complete in the city. It holds more tickets, in three compartments, and tickets are easier and more conveniently handled than by other cases. The stationary department of the COURIER received this week another invoice of pretty programs, some new novelties in wedding and party invitations, announcements, etc., which we would be pleased to show callers. Dr. Patrick O'Shea, one of Lincoln's early settlers, died at his residence, corner of Seventeenth and Z streets, Tuesday. The funeral took place Thursday morning, and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives.

Art Club. At a meeting held in the University chapel Wednesday evening the "Haydon Art Club" was organized. Miss Sarah Wool Moore was the prime mover in the formation of the club, and although unable to be present her ideas were set forth in a paper read by her sister, Mrs. Dr. Norton. The club starts out with a membership of nearly seventy, and bids fair to be one of the most useful of our numerous organizations, having for its object the promotion of knowledge of art by means of lectures, meetings, etc. The officers elected are: President, N. S. Harwood; vice president, Mrs. A. P. Stuart; recording secretary, Henry E. Lewis; corresponding secretary, Miss Sarah Wool Moore; Miss Sarah Harris; directors, C. H. Gere, John R. Clark, Prof. G. E. Howard, Mrs. Mary E. Wing, Mrs. Anna R. Hall and Mrs. A. J. Sawyer.

Entertained at Tea. Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Brock gave a very pleasant party at their residence. An elegant tea was served at seven and the balance of time devoted to card playing. All were elegantly entertained. The names of those were: Messrs. and Mesdames W. W. Holmes, Miss Foster, Buckstaff, Burnham, O'Connell, J. Zehring, W. J. Marshall, Melville, C. G. Burr, A. C. Cass, John Doolittle, F. L. Sheldon, E. S. Hawley of Nebraska City, and J. J. Imhoff.

An Enjoyable Affair. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Will Leonard gave a very pretty 7 o'clock tea to a number of friends. Progressive Euchre was the feature of the evening and all enjoyed a pleasant time. The names of the invited guests are: Messrs. and Mesdames John Zehring, W. R. Hargraves, A. E. Hargraves, Benson, F. Sheldon, Lambertson, Carl Funke, S. H. Burnham, W. R. Dennis, Sen. Dorr, A. J. Buckstaff, W. B. Ogden, P. T. Foster, H. C. Zeimer, A. S. Raymond, Lawrence Heiskell, J. R. Greene. Messrs. Frank Zehring, C. E. Magoom, Thompson, Heiskell. Misses Outcall, Mrs. Busby, Miss Fannie Moore. The refreshments were particularly elegant.

Brilliant Birthday Party. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes gave a very elegant party to their daughter, Florence, on H Street, Tuesday evening, it being the occasion of her eleventh birthday. Dancing was participated in the entire evening, led by Miss Hawkins and music by Miss Willoughby. Many elegant presents were sent. Those present were: Misses Leland, Foster, Huffman, Gustin, Buford, Raymond, Weeks, Odell, Winger, Hammond, Gregg, Buckstaff, Manatt, McArthur and Masters, Gustin, Sheldon, Reihardt, Weeks, Hale, Odell, Doolittle, Buford, Harburt. This was without doubt one of the prettiest parties ever given for children. Everything was done for their pleasure and from 5 till 9 the little ones revelled in merriment. Elegant refreshments were served.

Little Ones Entertained. Miss Florence Brown entertained the dancing school in honor of Miss Hawkins, their able instructor, at her home on H Street last evening. The little ones danced from 6 to 8 o'clock, and it is unnecessary to say that they enjoyed every minute. The program was of eight numbers, and the children danced perfectly, and were admired by all who were fortunate enough to receive an invitation. This is the second time the school has been entertained this week, and the extraordinary ability in dancing is greatly admired. It is probable that they will receive many more invitations. Miss Brown entertained the little ones elegantly and took much pleasure in so doing. The names are as follows: Misses Leland, Gustin, Harwell, Huffman, Huffman, Hammond, Hammond, Moore, Rebee, Bebee, Mosher, Buckstaff, Manatt, Wedgewood and others.

Notwithstanding the immense stock of Betts & Sewell on hand, D. E. Cummings has added largely and will give close figures on wholesale basis. Don't forget the place, 1120 O Street. Telephone No. 30. A grand book sale will be inaugurated next week for a limited season at Holbrook & Bonbright's, 234 South Eleventh street, at which books by the best authors will be offered at slaughtered prices. A list of the books with prices will be found in an advertisement on the eighth page of this issue. Don't fail to read it. While playing in the yard about a week ago Miss Clara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff, sprained her knee, but at the time was considered a slight accident. However, the fracture has since become worse and given the little one much pain. With the careful attention of Mrs. Buckstaff the little lady will soon be out again. Mr. J. H. McMurtry, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Tote, arrived home Wednesday morning from California, where the ladies have spent the winter. Miss Tote is greatly improved in health, a fact her many friends will be pleased to learn. The weight social at the Congregational church Wednesday evening was a very pleasant event. After musical and literary exercises, supper was served, the gentlemen getting their free on condition that they pay half a cent per pound for their fair companions. Much fun resulted. It is stated that the occupants of the Led with block were so overcome by the cold on last Sunday evening that it was impossible to sit in their rooms, thereupon they formed a grand procession and marched around the ball, until bed time. The police were alarmed at the emotion and appeared on the scene of action, but could do nothing, except talk. But they found their equal and left—left—left.

The passenger department of the Union Pacific (the overland route) has gotten out a fly-ribb designed to call attention to the summer resorts along the line of this railway. It is a good bill and tourists, pleasure seekers, sportsmen and fishermen should apply at once to J. S. Tebbetts, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb., for information regarding the points of interest along this line, before deciding where they will spend the summer season, or vacation holidays. The time for the good "beaut" to take out his best girl for a moonlight drive or an afternoon's horseback ride to the country has arrived. In conversation with Bishop Skinner, a reporter was informed that the veteran livery man had his many beautiful turnouts in elegant trim, and besides his favorite collection of speedy and gentle horses of last season, he has a number of new ones that will be introduced this spring to his patrons. Skinner knows how to rig the boys up and never fails to please them. Mr. George W. Andrews, traveling passenger agent of the Lake Shore line, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Andrews informed a reporter that the decision rendered in the U. S. court early this week, relative to the Pullman company's endeavor to prohibit the Wagner sleeping car company running vestibule trains on the Lake Shore had been decided against the latter but, as heretofore, this popular eastern route will continue running their handsome vestibule train service with but slight modifications.

High School Entertainment. All those who have attended the public meetings of the Irving society will be pleased to hear that they will give a public entertainment at the High school this evening, and extend a cordial invitation to all. The program will be as follows: Instrumental Duett—Misses Mendenhall and Freeman. Reading—Miss Olive Latta. Oration—Mr. Eugene Heaton. Vocal Solo—Miss Emma Smith. Debate—"Would an International Copyright be a Benefit to the American People?"—Affirmative, Miss Louise Tucker; negative, Miss Lila Fletcher. Vocal Solo—Miss Charlie Pace. Recitation—Mr. Frank Fisher. Music—Mr. Lucius Bumstead. Essay—Miss Carrie Dennis. Instrumental Solo—Miss Emma Wittman.

Death of Mrs. Neville. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neville were shocked to learn Sunday of the death at 3:30 that morning of Mrs. Neville. She had been sick but a short time, and her demise was unexpected. Mrs. Neville was born in Woodstock, Ill., and at the time of her death was 22 years and 8 months old, having been married but three years. She was a lady loved and respected by all, and numbered her friends by the hundreds. The COURIER extends its sincerest sympathy to the bereaved ones. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon, and the remains were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives. The interment took place in the Catholic graveyard, where, after the last sad rites of the Holy Church had been said, all that was mortal of the loved one was laid to eternal rest beneath the green sod that bedecks the beautiful city of the dead. Unshrinkable Scotch Flannel Shirts. Chicago Tribune. "Everybody in the trade is figuring on a great run in flannel shirts this spring and summer," said the proprietor of a downtown furnishing goods store. "We have laid in an immense stock. The indications are that we will not be disappointed, and that the flannel shirt, popular as it suddenly became last year will become four times as popular this summer. Why shouldn't it be? It is the most sensible, comfortable, and coolest fashion that ever struck the climate during the hot months. The flannels used in the better grades come from France and Scotland. The patterns will range from 50 cents for the domestic flannel to $5.00 and $6.00 for the French and silk. About $3.00 will be the average." W. R. Dennis, 1137 O Street, has opened the choicest line of the above goods that is shown in the west.

An Old Landmark. The Clifton house is a thing of the past. The building, which was sold last year to Zehring Bros. has been sold to Small Bros. and is to be removed by the nineteenth, after which the owners of the valuable lots on which the building has been standing, will commence the erection of a handsome business block of brick and stone. This old hotel was one of the first in Lincoln and at one time was considered a very fine hostelry. Will Stay with Cummings. Mr. D. E. Cummings, the grocer, successor to Betts & Sewell, has succeeded in securing the services of Mr. John Betts, a partner in the late firm to remain in his services, having given him sufficient inducement to remain at the old stand and act as head salesman. This was a wise move and one that will certainly prove profitable to Mr. Cummings and pleasant to Mr. Betts, the former being comparatively a stranger to the trade and the latter so well and favorably known to all that he will handle the interests of the new proprietor in a way that will be a pleasure to both the trade and Mr. Cummings. Mr. Betts having been with the house before he himself was one of the late firm thoroughly understands the wants of each individual. As a grocery salesman he has few equals and certainly no grocer man in the city has more friends or controls a better or more element of trade. It is with these facts in view that the COURIER extends congratulations to both gentlemen, one for having secured the services of so able and competent a right bower and the other for having secured a lucrative position under such pleasant circumstance, and with so congenial an employer.

Again to the Front. Commencing Monday, April 30, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will resume the running of trains, via Manilla, between Council Bluffs, Omaha, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Yankton and other principal points in Dakota, Minnesota and Northern Iowa. For tables and other particulars enquire of any ticket agent. Don't forget the Manilla line. A Wonderful Drink. Persons who have visited the celebrated Blue Lick springs of Kentucky and know of the curative powers of the water therefrom will be glad to hear that this water is now being shipped in barrels to Lincoln and bottled by the Lincoln bottling works and will be sold by all druggists and confectioners. The first shipment has just arrived and bottling will be commenced at once. It will be sold to families in cases of one dozen quart bottles and orders should be left at 719 F Street near Burlington depot. This celebrated water is today undoubtedly the best curative for skin and blood diseases and acts as a rejuvenator to the dyspeptic. It will pay you to give it a trial. Catering to Private Families. Mr. F. C. Gray, the St. Cloud caterer, desires to announce to the ladies of Lincoln that he is prepared to do all kinds of catering, supplying any and all kinds of dishes, promptly in the finest style of the art. Would also be pleased to furnish estimates for private suppers, banquets, etc., at residences. Kindly give him a call, get prices and particulars at the St. Cloud European restaurant, 124 South Twelfth street opposite Funke's opera house. D. E. Cummings, successor to Betts & Sewell, still continues to handle the old reliable Monarch brand canned fruits and vegetables. Also all the fresh fruits and vegetables to be had in market. 1120 O Street. Telephone 30. McMurtry's addition on K Street, below Nineteenth, is one of the highest in the city, as well as being right in the centre of the fastest growing portion. Call at his office below the Capital National Bank and secure one of these lots. On and after April 29th, the day coaches on the Union Pacific's No. 3, known as the "Overland Flyer," will be taken off, to better enable it to make time. This will add largely to the popularity that has already been gained by this fast train. After that date it will carry only passengers holding first-class tickets to points where the train makes regular stops, between Council Bluffs and Ogden. Such passengers must purchase tickets for seats or berths in Pullman sleepers, before entering the cars. P. D. Corsets at Oakley & Co's.
