THE COMBINATION of who will be the next president sinks into insignificance by the side of the question, when will congress adjourn?

ONLY one man has been in Omaha this week with the intention of buying the Republican. Business must be getting dull in the metropolis.

OMAHA will never be a great city until she can induce the Burlington and the Union Pacific railroads to build new depots or units in erecting a Union depot.

THE police judge has been kept busy the past week disposing of the unusual amount of business on hand. Evidently the quality of Lincoln intoxicants is deteriorating, or else hard citizens are getting more numerous.

IT seems to be the thing just now among the state press to ridicule the Lincoln ball club and one of the city papers has had the taste to join in. This is the same paper that pretends to despise "croaking," but manages to lead whenever a display of biliousness is visible.

THE report is widespread that Mrs. Langtry will soon apply for a divorce, having acquired a legal residence in San Francisco. Coupled with this is the information that Mr. Langtry will come over and make a fight. Freddie Gebhardt is on hand ready to take up the soiled Lily when the divorce courts give him legal right.

ONE of the most interesting articles ever published in a magazine is the one on "Railways," the first paper on which appears in the June number of Scribner's Magazine. It is handsomely illustrated, contains much interesting information in the most attractive style, and should be read by all who wish to keep up with the times.

THE COURIER acknowledges the receipt from President F. I. Foss of complimentary tickets to the annual assembly of the Nebraska Chautauqua association, which will be held on the grounds at Crete June 28th to July 10th, inclusive. The meeting this year will eclipse in interest any previous one, and preparations are made for a large attendance.

MAYOR SAWYER has determined to try aggressive measures in suppressing the disreputable houses of the city, and has ordered the police to arrest all inmates whenever, in their judgment, the laws are being violated. The experiment will be interesting to many who have studied the question of how to deal with the social evil, many arguing that the policy pursued by the mayor is the best way, while others believe a license or regulation by police authorities to be more conducive to public morality.

IN the future the COURIER will positively refuse to stop any paper refused through the post office by subscribers unless all arrearages are paid. There is no compulsion about taking this paper, and if a subscriber doesn't wish it any longer let him call at the office, pay up and we will stop it. If paper is returned more than once marked "refused" we shall take advantage of the special protection accorded newspapers, and collect it. There are few, we are glad to be able to state who do this sort of thing, and it is the few at whom this article is aimed.

THE COURIER presents to its readers today a finely illustrated page of Memorial Day matter, which will amply repay perusal. The proprietors are enabled to furnish such expensive features only because the public appreciate their efforts to get out a good paper. We are grateful for the liberal and increasing patronage extended us, and plans are under consideration for enlarging the scope of the paper, which we are confident will add to its popularity and usefulness. The co-operation of the public will, of course, be necessary, but as we have aimed to deserve it in the past, so we shall in the future.

DON'T you know? Well, that is simply because you have not read Demorest's Monthly Magazine. It is stored full of information on all subjects, and no one can read it each month and not feel that they are right up to the times on almost every subject. The June number, just arrived, is too full to mention even a quarter of its contents; but "Canoeing" for women, beautifully illustrated; "Harem Life in Turkey," "A June Wedding," "Practical Etiquette," the legal rights of "That Girl Baby," "Practical Hints for Travelers," "Painting on Textiles," "Sins Against the Stomach," "Baby's Diseases," "How to Set the Table on Twenty Cents a Day for Each Person," and "Furnishing the House from Celler to Garrett," are a few topics treated. The illustrations are very fine and include the portraits of thirty noted women. The fashion department looks fine, but the ladies are better judges of that. It is a wonderful twenty cents worth. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14 St., N. Y.

IMPURITIES IN

Time was, and not many years ago, when it was the popular belief that the process of freezing served to destroy whatever impurities (water contained, and it is only within the last year that sufficient evidence has been adduced to show that the germs of many of the infectious diseases retain their virulent propensities in the frozen medium for an indefinite period. That typhoid fever, for example, can be transmitted to individuals partaking of ice previously polluted with typhoid discharges can now no longer be doubted. It has likewise been shown that the clear block ice offers few, if any, advantages in this respect over the spongy, non-transparent layer that invariably forms part of the large blocks. Analyses carried under the most approved bacteriological methods by Professor Prudden in the laboratory of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York have demonstrated a power of resistance to changes in temperature on the part of some of the pathogenic bacteria, that practically renders them proof against all but very sudden changes. Repeated freezing and thawing is far more effective in destruction of these low forms of life than the long continued spell of extreme weather. Dr. Prudden is now conducting a systematic study of the bacteria contained in the Hudson River ice so much of which is consumed in and about New York. Some 350 samples of ice and water have been carefully analysed with the result that he finds in a cubic centimeter of melted ice an average of 3000 living bacteria. The snow ice contains more than the transparent block ice. He holds that the State Board of Health should have an active supervision over the ice harvest with the power to prohibit the business in localities which are too suspiciously close to large cities that discharge their sewerage into the river.—Physicians and Surgeons Investigator.

Decorations Day.

The years that have elapsed since the close of the civil war have served to obliterate all sectional feeling, and a united and prosperous nation joins in keeping green the graves of all its beloved dead. It is in this spirit that the publisher of the NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER has had written a thrilling and pathetic romance, peculiarly appropriate to the national holiday, entitled: "Faithful Leonora: or His Grave Kept Green." In the same paper will also be found a weekly instalment of the "Life and Adventures of a Showman of E. T. Barnum," written by himself, and equally interesting to the young folks as well as the heads of families. These are rare literary treats, and those of our readers who are not already enjoying them will do well to obtain No. 766 of the NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER of their newsdealer or send direct to the publisher, Munro's Publishing House, Nos. 24 and 26 Vandewater Street, New York and receive the paper four months for one dollar, postage free.

Growth of American Railways.

The evolution of the railway and of its roll-stock follows the same laws which govern the rest of the world; adaptation to circumstances decides what is fittest, and that alone survives. The scrap-heap of a great railway tells its own story.

Our railways have now reached a development which is wonderful. The railways of the United States, if placed continuously, would reach more than half way to the moon. Their bridges alone would reach from New York to Liverpool.

Notwithstanding the numbers of accidents that we read in the daily papers, statistics show that less persons are killed annually on railways than are killed annually by falling out of windows.—From "The Building of a Railway," by THOMAS CURTIS CLARKE, in Scribner's Magazine for June.

Legal Notice.

Joseph W. Scoggin is hereby notified that on the 18th of April, 1888, his wife, Nellie G. Scoggin, filed a petition for divorce against him in the District Court of Lancaster county, Nebraska, asking for a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony on the ground of failure to support, and asking for the custody of their child May, and that she be restored to her maiden name Bailey, and Joseph W. Scoggin is notified to answer said petition on or before July 9, 1888.

NELLIE G. SCOGGIN, Plaintiff.

Now that the season for using ice has commenced it behooves consumers to be very careful what they use. Much of the ice now always used is impure and conducive of bad results to good health. The ice sold by the Lincoln Ice company cut from Oak creek is strictly pure and healthy and will be delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders at 1040 O street or telephone No. 118.

D. E. Cummings, successor to Betts & Sewell, still continues to handle the old reliable Monarch brand canned fruits and vegetables. Also all the fresh fruits and vegetables to be had in market. 1120 O street. Telephone 20.

The Iron Duke to his Soldiers.

"Do your duty," were the words of Lord Wellington to his soldiers just before the battle of Waterloo and history tells us how well they obeyed. The same advice might properly be given to every living man at this time. There are many men who would do their whole duty in time of war or great need, but who sadly neglect it in times of peace, they would gladly risk their lives for their country, but when there is no such great occasion, neglect their plain simple duties to their God, their families and themselves. It is not for want of honor nor because they do not love their families, but from pure neglect, as an instance, statistics compiled by the national authorities show that more deaths result from bowel complaints than any other one cause, except consumption, yet not more than one family in six are provided with medicines that will relieve or cure the diseases. It is the duty of every man to look after these small matters? and protect their families, and they are certainly at least, guilty of criminal carelessness if they neglect to do so. No one can plead poverty in this instance, as the best remedy there is for the purpose only costs but 25 cents. The article we refer to is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a certain cure for cramps, colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea, bloody flux, cholera infantum, and bowel complaint in all its forms. No family can afford to be without it during the summer months as great suffering and even life may be saved by it before a physician could be summoned or medicine procured. Do not delay, but procure it at once, before it is forgotten.

How is it with you?

Do you relish your food? Is your digestion good? Are your bowels regular? Do you have a tired or languid feeling? Is your tongue coated? Does your back ache? Is your skin sallow? If your system is in a bad condition take St. Patrick's Pills, they will aid your digestion, improve your appetite, regulate your bowels, correct your bilious disorder and make you feel like a new person.

BETTER AND SALT RHEUM.

The itching and smarting of these diseases causes almost perpetual misery, but that can be relieved almost instantly by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment, and its continued application has cured a great many bad cases. Try a 25 cent box and you will be surprised as well as delighted with its effect.
