Birthday Party.
About twenty friends of Mr. George Stabler assembled at the family residence, 2810 O Street Wednesday evening and tendered him a birthday party. A duet by Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Utter, banjo and guitar solos by the Stabler brothers, and other instrumental pieces helped pass a very pleasant evening. Elegant refreshments were served on the lawn. Mr. Stabler received numerous presents, among them an elegant gold watch and chain from his parents.

Surprised on his Forty-Fourth.
Last Friday evening was a very pleasant one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Craig, 1328 O street, the occasion being a complete surprise gotten up by Mrs. Craig and a host of friends.
The intruders arrived about eight o'clock and after calling the attention of Mr. Craig to the fact that the day was his 44th birthday, made themselves at home and began to enjoy the evening. Music, mirth and merriment filled the atmosphere and all was happiness about the place. Mrs. Craig favored the guests with instrumental and vocal music, and Mr. George Stabler skillfully manipulated the guitar, accompanied by Mrs. Utter on the piano.
Refreshments were served and dancing was a feature of the evening, music for the latter being furnished by the hostess. Numerous very pretty and substantial presents were bestowed on Mr. Craig, and showers of congratulations were extended by everyone.
Following is a list of those present:
Messrs. and Mesdames, J. H. Clark, Lewis Craig, Richard Whitehead, Whitmore Blake, Thomas Utter, Wilson, Misses White, Knight, Mrs. Rowena Craig, Mrs. Baltzer, Mr. Hall and daughters, Mr. Summerlad and sister, Messrs. Knight, Tom Love and George Stabler.

A Dightful Musement.

One of the notable events of the week in social and musical circles, was a musical given last Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Schwurr, 1809 O St. given by Miss Cora A. Preston in honor of her brother J. R. Preston, who has been visiting for the past two weeks and leaves in a short time for his home in Binghamton, N. Y. Miss Preston and her brother received the guests as they arrived. The parlor and lawn were brilliantly lighted which rendered the scene beautiful, the first number on the program being a chorus by all present and followed with a selection by a quartette consisting of Misses Preston, Thompson, Messrs C. S. McKinney, J. R. Preston, which was well received, next an instrumental duet by Mrs. Utter and Mr. Stabler which was well rendered, other musical numbers were a soprano's solo "Love's Enchantment" by Mrs. Utter which was received with a hearty encore. Next a selection by male quartette Messrs R. Williams, P. Nichols, C. S. McKinney and L. Bumstead. A hearty encore brought a second selection by the same quartette, then came a chorus by Misses Preston, Thompson, Messrs Preston, McKinney which was well received. Miss Preston responded by a solo which was of high order and rendered excellently. This was followed by all standing joining hands in one verse of "Auld Lang Syne." After close of musical program, refreshments of cake, ices, ice cream, fruits and lemonade were served, after which a very pleasant social session brought the evening's entertainment to a close and the party dispersed in different directions for their homes having enjoyed a most delightful evening with a most popular host and hostess.

Beatrice Nights Join Apollo.

Tuesday night Apollo division uniformed rank K. of P. initiated six pythian brothers from Beatrice, and the following from the Democrat of that city tells how they enjoyed the work and hospitality of our boys:
Messrs. O. H. Phillips, C. O. Bates, H. A. Lee, C. S. Fosselman, W. S. Cole and Frank Barclay, members of Beatrice Lodge, Knights of Pythias, went to Lincoln yesterday and in the evening joined Apollo division, uniform rank. They were received by the Lincoln knights with the utmost graciousness and while they stayed in the city nothing was too good for them. After the ceremonies were over the banquet room was opened and the knights were treated to a dainty collation. The late hours of last night and the early hours of this morning were filled with the enjoyments for which the Apollos are famous. The K. P. band was in attendance and nothing was lacking to make it a great occasion for Apollo and the guests from the Queen City of the Blue. The boys returned home this morning highly pleased with their visit and reception. They say they were never so well treated before.

Our Boys in the West.

Letters received from the quintet of Lincoln hunters now on the frontier say that they are having a very gay time, and the report of their being scared to death by a bear or any other bird is fiction. They have been doing lots of gunning—in fact so much that their supply of ammunition had been exhausted and required them to run down to a trading point for supplies. The boys will return in about a week and then look out for stories of adventures, bear tales, etc.

Additional local on first and fifth pages.

Dr. W. J. P. Lawton is a delighted papa, the event occurring Wednesday. As it is a bouncing big boy "ten centers" have been the quality of cigars from sheet. "Doc" says boys come high, but no well-regulated family is without one.

Mr. W. B. Hastings has returned home again. There have been many things said of his leaving that are untrue, and the many friends of the gentleman are glad to know that he has come back to live down the stories. He will stay in Lincoln.

The military band gave a very delightful open-air concert at government square last Saturday evening, and one also Thursday evening. The band is rapidly improving in efficiency, and, under the tutelage of Messrs. Hagenow & Aechmann taking high rank.

The bank clerks administered a lesson in ball playing to the engineers at Athletic park yesterday afternoon. The game was well contested throughout, the score standing 9 to 6 in favor of the bankers. Ganthier and Tyler were the battery for the engineers, and Dethlets and Weckbaugh and Janson and Meyer for the bank boys. Eleven of the former and six of the latter struck out.

Morris Newmark of the Globe clothing house, returned Tuesday from New York via St. Louis. Mr. Newmark informs a COURIER reporter that his recent purchases comprise the finest line and noblest styles he has ever shipped west and that the fall styles are models of neatness and nobby designs. Mr. S. Langsdorf, Mrs. Newmark's father of St. Louis, accompanied him on the home ward trip and will visit in Lincoln for several weeks.

Walter Davis walks along the principal commercial highways nowadays with the air of a king or a monopolist, and to observe his stately gait as he walks down O street, one would imagine he owned the town and had a first mortgage on the county, and all on account of a new baby boy that arrived last week. Walt says he's a beauty and looks just like papa. The COURIER congratulates papa, mamma and the baby.

M. Ackermann of the Famous has been all smiles and happiness for the past week and his greatest desire on earth has been duly gratified, for now he is a gallant papa and ever since Tuesday morning. In consequence "two-for-twenty-five" cigars have been lashed on his friends and everything is gay and festive at the Ackermann home 1067 J street. Mother and son doing well and the young man will be started on the road ahead drummer for the Famous millinery one week from 4 o'clock.

America is a wonderland, indeed. She has her wonderful Yosemite valley, her wondrous grand Yellowstone park, her Manitou, her fine mountain scenery, and her thousands of hills and dales, as beautiful as anything that the Old World can produce. Lincoln, too has many things that it would pay people to look at. For instance, there is Hallet's jewelry store with one of the largest and finest stocks of goods in the city, which delight the eye of the beholder. Call in and examine them. 113 North Eleventh street.
