Talmage's Sermon.

Dr. Talmage is now in Canada, and his yearly address at the Grimsby campmeeting will be found on the inside pages of this week's COURIER. The title is "Great Results May Depend on Small Events," and is in the Doctor's usual vigorous, earnest manner.

To the National Encampment.

The Union Pacific, the Overland Route will sell tickets at a rate as low as the lowest to the National Encampment at Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 10 14th. Remember this is the only line offering the choice of six different routes from the Missouri river to Columbus. For a party of twenty-five or more, Family Sleepers will be furnished free from any point on the line through to Columbus without change. For dates of sale, limit of tickets, etc., call on your nearest ticket agent.

J. S. TURNERS, Gen. P. & T. A.

Corner Stone Laid.

The corner stone of the new Christian university at Bethany Heights, near the city, was laid Thursday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. Rev. B. J. Radford of Eureka, Ills., delivered a powerful address, outlining the object of the gathering, the needs of a Christian university, and the good such a one does. Elder Johnson, Rev. R. C. Barrow, Rev. T. J. Williamson and President Aylsworth of Fairfield also addressed the gathering. The auction sale of lots drew quite a crowd, thirty-nine being disposed of for $8315.

Have You Heard

That the great state fair opens in a week?
That Barnum will be here next Thursday?
That Harry Tebbetts would like to live on Pike's peak?

That there was a democratic convention in the city this week?

That the Elks are preparing for another delightful social session?

That General McBride is going to show the balance of the republican ticket how to run?

That Lincoln will soon be counted among the leading manufacturing towns of the west?

That a prominent young business man and a leading society lady will shortly join hands and hearts?

That a special train will leave this evening over the Burlington for the Bonnet campmeeting?

That one of the biggest crowds Lincoln has ever had within her gates will commence to gather in about ten days?

That the saloon keepers of the city always decorate their places of business on convention day, whether it is republican, democratic or prohibitionist?

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the most perfect preparation in use for bowel complaint. It acts quick, can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. Sold by W. J. Turner.

MANY MATTERS MINCED.

News Notes of Local and General Interest to Courier Readers.

Misses Aileen Oakley and Hallie Hooper are once more at home after a two weeks visit very pleasantly spent with Miss Georgia Hawke at Nebraska City.

Mr. Aaron H. Buckstaff returned Tuesday from a very pleasant western trip. He visited Manitou, Salt Lake City and other points of interest in Colorado and Utah.

Mr. A. L. Sullivan, who has been spending the summer in France on business for the Importing Draft Horse company, returned Tuesday. His wife accompanied him.

Miss Minnie Latta returned Thursday from Manitou. Miss Latta has spent the last month in the mountains, and was charmed with the delightful retreat at the base of Pike's Peak.

Sidewalks all over the paved districts are coming down to grade. Messrs. Davis & son and S. E. Moore deserve special credit for putting down stone walks instead of planks.

Charley McMahon's turn came this week. His wife presented him with a pretty little girl of the regulation weight Wednesday. Charlie says nothing is too good for the baby.

Mr. Chas Keith and family returned Saturday from Chicago, where they have been living since January 1st. They will remain in the city several months and perhaps permanently.

Mr. J. A. Keith, who has been a sufferer from rheumatism for three months, is improving. Jim has had a hard siege of it, and his many friends wish him a speedy and complete recovery.

Girls, if your good night fellows want take you to see Barnum's greatest show on earth—why, come down to the COURIER office and we will provide you with a seat to see the great pagout.

A very light vote was cast at the election Tuesday to decide whether engine house No. 1 should be sold or not. The proposition carried, and two new engines in different parts of the city will be erected.

Mr. Fred Mielchert, the jolly Missouri Pacific conductor, who has been spending his vacation at Washington, has returned. Fred is looking rather thin, and admits having lost forty eight pounds in weight.

Mrs. Sue Rustin and Miss Sue Johnson, who have been guests for the past two months of the family of L. C. Pace, departed Wednesday for Evansville, Ind., accompanied by Mrs. L. C. Pace and daughter, Miss Clarkie.

Prof. F. M. Gibault returned Thursday from the east. While away he made a very pleasant trip up the St. Lawrence river, visited the principal cities of the east, and spent considerable time at his home in Illinois.

Mr. H. A. Tebbetts and wife and Miss Jessie A. Johnston returned Wednesday from their western trip. They made the ascent of Pike's Peak, returning on burros. They pronounce it the most delightful trip they have ever made.

A leap year circus party has been arranged by a number of young ladies for next Thursday evening, for which occasion the fair ones have invited escorts, and will furnish coupes, sideshow tickets, red lemonade, reserved seats and peanuts.

Mrs. Weber will give her last concert at Cushman park on Sunday. She will be assisted by her sister, Madam Baker, Mr. Barnaby, Mr. Seemark and others. Go out and enjoy it, and if you have never been out go and see what you have missed.

Mr. Frank Pearce of the News company and Miss Alice R. Hargreaves were married Wednesday evening last, at their new residence, corner Twentyeighth and P streets, the Rev. J. T. Mielhart officiating. The COURIER extends congratulations.

A pound social was given Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. J. W. Willey, 930 North Thirtieth street, by the Ladies Auxiliary Guild of the North Lincoln Episcopal church. The attendance was quite good, and the results consequently satisfactory.

John McClure of the Milwaukee line, was in the city yesterday. Mr. McClure informs us that the rate to the encampment at Columbus is the lowest that it will be this season again, and all those anticipating going to Cincinnati had better take advantage of the present rate.

A danger signal. Nature in many ways warns us of approaching danger, one of the most notable is hoarseness in a child; it is a sure indication of croup. By giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse all symptoms of croup will disappear. Sold by W. J. Turner.

The fashion department of the COURIER this week is an interesting feature. The latest styles, direct from Paris, of boys' school and playing suits are pictured in a style interesting to mothers. For the ladies there is a neat fancy apron, a descriptive article of new lawn tennis suits, and some of the latest fashions in fans.

At a meeting Monday evening of the Y. M. C. A., the following officers were elected: President, J. H. Morkett; first vice president, John R. Clark; second vice president, S. H. Burnham; third vice president, J. L. Doty; secretary, J. W. Winger; treasurer, M. L. Easterday; directors for three years, J. Z. Briscoe, Chas. West and A. H. Weir.

Mr. E. R. Wells of Nisley & Co., has returned from a month's visit in the east. After a very pleasant stay with relatives in Reading, Pa., Mr. Wells visited Philadelphia, New York, Coney Island, Manhattan Beach, and other seaside resorts, returning by way of St. Louis and Kansas City. The COURIER is pleased to note that the gentleman's health is greatly improved by his trip.

Our merchants are already beginning the work of fixing up their stores in anticipation of the state fair rush. New goods are daily arriving and being placed in attractive positions. Hallett, the jeweler, is one of these enterprising gentlemen, and he has, as a consequence, one of the prettiest stores in the city. When you wish anything in the line of jewelry, watches, clocks and articles of vertu call on Hallett, at 113 North Eleventh street. Fine repairing a specialty.

Rev. Lewis Gregory has returned from a very pleasant summer vacation. Quite a number of members of the First Congregational church gathered in the church parlors Wednesday evening and tendered him a welcome home. Mesdames Raymond, Berry, Wadsworth and Miss Louise Kingsley entertained the company with some choice vocal music. Mr. Frank Lewis delivered an address of welcome, and a general good, social time was had by the members present.

A lawn social took place last Saturday at Mr. C. Van Ralston's new residence, corner S and Twenty-second streets. The grounds were beautifully illuminated and a splendid lunch was served on the lawn. After lunch some fine music and singing was heard. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Blair, Mrs. Johnson and daughter of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eichey, Mr. and Mrs. More of Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, Misses Murray and Skinner, and Mr. Frank Clyde.

Additional local on first and fifth pages.
