IN THE SOCIAL SWIM.

A WEEK'S HAPPENINGS CHRONICLED.

Accounts of Balls, Parties, Weddings Etc., That Have Entertained Society.

Marriage of Miss Reeme.
 Many of the society people of Lincoln will be surprised to learn of the marriage of Miss Effie B. Reeme, of Chicago, to Mr. Frank Stewart Osborn, of Philadelphia. The nuptials took place at the bride's home in Chicago, Wednesday, and after a short bridal trip, the couple will be at home at Hotel Lafayette, Philadelphia.

Our readers will remember Miss Reeme as the young lady who, in company with Miss Kelley, passed the winter of 1886-7 in this city and made many friends in our social circles. The COURIER joins friends in extending congratulations.

A Social Session.
 Lincoln Lodge No. 80 B. P. O. E. entertained the Gorman minstrels at their club rooms after the show, Wednesday evening. A large number of the members of the order turned out together with their friends who enjoyed the hospitality of the Elks and the entertainment afforded by the minstrels. Mr. Frank Zehring presented Gov. Add. Ryman "G. A. R." to the company present and bestowed upon him the honor of the chairman of the session.

The minstrels were called on from time to time to aid in filling out the program which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Each selection rendered by the jolly minstrels receiving a hearty encore. The entertainment was brought to a close in the "evening hours" when each one present left for their homes feeling as though they had been acquainted with the Gormans and their talented companions for "years and years."

A Pleasant Soiree.
 Aside from their several duties the employees of the legislature often enjoy a brief but pleasant time. Such was the occasion Thursday evening. At the conclusion of the night session all entered the brilliantly illuminated new library room and participated in an entertainment that for solid enjoyment that assortment of help has never before surpassed. Dancing was the most attractive part of the evening's program and good music attended in the festivities. A number of the honorables from both houses were seen in the gay gathering, a few enjoying the mazy waltz but more acting as spectators.

A Trio of Societies.
 Last evening a merry crowd met at Temple hall and passed the evening in card playing, dancing etc. Three clubs participated the "T. A. M.," "Yorke" and "Joe De Vol" the last two university organizations. About forty couples were in attendance and a great time was had by all present who thoroughly enjoyed the evening's entertainment afforded them.

The Brakeman's Ball.
 Monday evening Temple Hall was the scene of a gay and merry party. It was the occasion of the Third Annual Ball of Capital City Lodge No. 170 B. R. B. and it was a success from the start to the finish.

About seventy-five couples participated and kept the hall ringing with their merry laughter until the hands on the clock in the steeple above had got several inches past the midnight hour. Tasty decorations adorned the ceiling and walls and reflected much credit on the decorative committee who had spent the entire day in the preparation of it. Flags, lanterns and bunting suggestive of the orders colors and mottoes abounded on every hand. On the program were usually arranged twenty-four dances, including an intermission during which the entire company with their wives or sweethearts adjourned to the K. C. oyster parlors where a dainty collation awaited them. It was a grand success socially and financially and each year seems to find the order in a more flourishing and prosperous condition.

In Sympathy with Ireland.
 St. Patrick's Day was celebrated with a vim in Lincoln. Monday evening the Opera House was packed to the doors with the friends of the cause, and the stage was filled with speakers and prominent personages who took part in the entertainment.

Abile addresses were made by Gov. Thayer, who delivered the address of welcome; John B. Sutton, secretary of the Irish National League; Hon. Church Howe and others. Between the speeches several delightful vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by Mrs. J. A. Kilroy, Mrs. A. Halter and Miss L. T. Finn and Mr. Carl Fermoehlen, the singing of Mrs. Kilroy deserving special mention.

Without a doubt it was the largest and most enthusiastic Irish meeting ever held in this city and one of the most successful ever held anywhere.

Fancy Names for Railroad Trains.
 It may be a good advertising scheme to decorate the alleged fast trains of the modern times with appellations such as "Eli," "Gee-Whiz," and "Cannon Ball," to catch the eye of the traveler who does not know "tother from which," but the business man and constant traveler is not to be caught by craft of that kind.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway runs its own fast trains, with vestibuled sleeping and dining cars, from Omaha and Council Bluffs to Chicago, connecting there with the fast trains, morning and afternoon, to all Eastern cities.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, in connection with the Union Pacific Railway, also runs through cars between Denver and Chicago, and this is the favorite route from Colorado and Nebraska to all principal points east of the Missouri river. This line uses no fancy names to designate its trains, but "it gets there just the same."

Perkins Bros., sell a shoe for $3.00 that will fit and wear.

Order some of those delicious Indian river oranges at Cummings & Morris, telephone 20
