IN THE SOCIAL SWIM.

A WEEK'S HAPPENINGS CHRONICLED.

Accounts of Balls, Parties, Weddings Etc., That Have Entertained Society.

The Last of the Season.
Temple Hall was the scene of the last Pleasant Hour Junior party of the season, last evening. The fact that it was the last no doubt called out the unusual large number that were in attendance, about thirty couples participating in the evening's entertainment and making the hall ring with merry peals of laughter.

The young folks made the most of their time on this occasion preparatory to disbanding for the summer when pleasant lawn socials, tennis parties and out of door sports will take the place of the may waltz. Those present last evening were: Misses Lillibridge, Anna and Martha Funke, Ballentine, Giles, Hathaway, Laws, Minnie and Ollie Latta, Burr, Hamlin, Suddith, Leese, White, Ziemer, Andrus, Alice and Kitty Cowdry, Clara and Hattie Leland, Stout and others. Messrs. Sherwood and Latham, of Omaha, Storr, C. H. and W. E. Clarke, Nissley, Pumpelly, McConiga, Northam, Young, Muir, Hathaway, Langworthy, Andrus, Mason, Nutt, Funke, Scott, Phillips, Rogers, Marshall, Wheeler, Mallalieu, Stout, Everett and others.

A large number of the seniors were present and joined in the dance with the young folks. It was truly a typical Pleasant Hour party.

A Double Wedding.
A marriage in which a number of friends were witnesses occurred last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. Joel Stover 1438 S street. Mr. Albert and Miss Jennie Witherall, and Delmar Stover and Miss Lena Osterthum being the most interested. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. A. Williams, pastor of the First Baptist church, who in a few eloquent and well chosen words made the twain, man and wife.

At five o'clock the guests enjoyed a sumptuous wedding dinner, during which occasion well wishes were showered over the happy couples. Numerous costly and appropriate presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Delmar will be at home to friends at 1438 S street while Mr. Stover and wife will begin life at 508 north Fourteenth street. The COURIER joins friends in extending congratulations for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

The La Cross Club.
Wednesday evening a number of our young men organized themselves into a La Cross club, which promises to be a popular organization among the many outing clubs in Lincoln this summer. It is expected that ere long the club will contest with neighboring cities and as the membership now numbers thirty, they will undoubtedly make a creditable showing. Officers were elected and are as follows: President, L. E. Mutchler; vice-president, W. Walton; treasurer, M. W. Folsome; secretary, F. Shepard; assistant secretary, Russel Brydon; captain, B. H. King, executive committee, G. A. Kidd, Harry Orth and Will Walton.

A Pleasant Entertainment.
The novelty Bazaar to be given by the First Presbyterian church occurs Wednesday evening April 10th. The entertainment will consist of tableaux representing the Rodgers group of statuary. Music will be furnished by a Hungarian orchestra and the novel feature of the evening will be the Fortune tree from which will be plucked messages of Dame Fortune. Supper will be served from 6 until 8 o'clock. There will be offered for sale aprons and various other articles of ladies fancy work.

Warner's Pleasant Party.
A select party was given by Sam Warner at Temple Hall on Thursday evening. About forty couples were present and thoroughly enjoyed the long program. At midnight supper was announced and the young folks proceeded to Brown's where an elegant repast awaited them. We are pleased to note that Sam's parties are increasing in popularity from time to time, to the intense gratification of his patrons.

Maple Sugar Social.
The ladies of the First Free Baptist church will give a maple sugar social at the church on the corner of F and Fourteenth streets, Wednesday evening, April 10th. The ladies will furnish a good treat and ought to have a large patronage.

A curious incident happened one night last week to Sol Smith Russell, who is playing at the Baldwin "A Poor Relation." On opening the supposed lodger in the office room, he found it was an old register of the Russ House for 1873, and he saw there under date of May 18th, the names of the Berger family, Swiss Bell Ringers and Sol Smith Russell, humorist. It so startled Mr. Russell that he became all mixed up in his part. This registration was made on the occasion of his first visit to California and he was then playing a two week's engagement at Platt's hall, at that time a popular place of amusement. Fred G. Berger, Mr. Russell's present business manager, was at that time a member of the Berger family and his name appears among the number. It is needless to say that this page from the old register will be preserved by them as one of their choicest souvenirs.—S. F. Hotel Gazette.

When figuring on the decoration of your home for spring, just call in and see J. A. Raddy's elegant new line of wall paper and decorations. Bailey has a stock that will charm the eye of the most fastidious and the way his artists manipulate the brushes and hang the pretties on the wall, is an art in itself. Call in while down town and see the superb line.

Try the delicious cream soda at Wilson & Green's 139 south Tenth street. Nothing but pure and wholesome fruit flavors used.
