One of the interesting incidents of the evening was the photographing of the company by Artist Waltemire with an instantaneous camera and a flash light.
Weddings of the Week.
 Mr. Daniel G. Dutton and Miss Lydia Cambridge were married Tuesday morning, Judge Stewart tying the knot.
 Mr. E. Kearns and Mrs. S. Edgar were married at St. Paul's church Thursday afternoon by Rev. Dr. Creighton in the presence of a company of friends. The groom is the well-known builder and contractor, the lady was for two years matron of the hospital; for insanity. They have taken up their residence at 1833 G street.
 Mr. W. H. Gadd and Miss Lydia Reynolds were united in marriage last Monday noon at the home of the groom's father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Hawley in the presence of a small company of relatives. The new made couple took the afternoon train for a wedding tour through the seat and south, and on their return they will settle down in a home of their own. The groom is associated with his father, Mr. E. T. Gadd, in the real estate business, and the firm is interested in the sale of the Christian university lands. Both bride and groom are highly spoken of and have the well wishes of their circle of friends.
For the New Church Fund.
 An enjoyable musical and literary entertainment was given Tuesday evening at the Christian church, Tenth and K streets, for the benefit of the new church. In addition to several pleasing numbers by the Capital City orchestra the programme included the following: An old-fashioned courtship enacted by Mr. and Mrs. C. P.  Mr. Harry Sisson, a well-known horseman of Biggsville, Ill., was in the city Sunday visiting his sisters.
 Miss Maggie Hallett and Bessie Mendenhall are now at Denver and will spend a month in the American Switzerland.
 Mr. Max Rich of Bird City, Kas., a Lincoln pioneer, has been circling among old time friends here this week.
 Samuel Low of the governor's office accompanied the state officers in their week's trip over the Elkhorn system.
 Fred A. Falkenberg has gone to Colorado to organize new lodges of the Modern Woodmen. His family are with him.
 It's all a mistake. Mr. Leighty of the new firm of Morton & Leighty is not a family man, but he no doubt hopes to be.
 Mr. Will Harly spent Sunday and several other days in Omaha and returns much rested to reengage in the activity of city life.
 John Phillips, assistant to Ziemer, has gone to Utah to rough it on a sheep ranch this summer. His place is taken by S. D. Berger.
 Messrs. Fred Gadd of the Omaha hardware company and Leslie Gadd of the B. & M. at Nebraska City were in town to attend their brother's wedding.
 Mr. Charles Slater will leave next week for his old Vermont home. Miss Gossip has it that he will make a sentimental journey and will have company on the return trip.
 The young people of St. Paul's M. E. church will have one of their pleasant socials Monday evening at the church parlors and invite all their friends. Everything will be free.
 Mrs. G. M. Lambertson left Wednesday for New York, and from Chicago east is accompanied by her sister, Miss Gundry of Mineral Point, Wis. Mr. L. went as far as Chicago.
 Frank Walton of the German National bank expects to leave Lincoln soon. That bank intends to start a branch, probably in Dakota, and Frank will go to the new house.
 Hon. Patrick Egan will start tomorrow or Monday on his journey to Chill. The COURIER joins with all Lincoln in wishing its distinguished citizen a safe trip, a successful service and a happy return.
 Harry Heffelfinger and George McArthur, were among the Lincoln boys who were in attendance at the grand opening of the new Paddock hotel at Beatrice last night. They will return to day.
 Minister Egan had to delay his departure for Chill for a week. His family will no leave until he sends word that he has made arrangements for a comfortable abiding place in the southern continent.
 Mr. S. M. Ashby and son Royal returned Wednesday from Eureka Springs, Ark., Miss Mabel Ashby is receiving great benefit from the water of the springs, and she, and her mother will remain indefinitely.
 Senator and Mrs. Taggart of Hastings were Sunday guests of Lincoln relatives, and at the First Presbyterian church were surrounded by so many hand shaking friends at the close of the service as to make it almost a levee.
 "Gig" Edwards, who is on the road for the Baum hardware company, has made a hit among the knights of the grip as a singer. He has a fine bass, which has got into the Omaha Bee coupled with complimentary terms.
 Mrs. Guy A. Brown has rejoined her husband at Colorado Springs. Because she was summoned by telegraph the inference was drawn and published that Mr. Brown was much worse. On the contrary he is reported to be better.
 What a pity it is that the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church is not larger. The arrangement of the church is admirable, but the congregation has outgrown the seating capacity of the pews, which have to be supplemented with chairs.
 Anson Becker after an absence of three years returned Wednesday from Texas where he has been rusticated at Waco. He is looking well and says providence has been kind to him. He will remain at home for a brief visit then leaves again for the lone star state but will return next spring ("doubled-up," so we are told) to reside permanently in Lincoln.
 Knight of the Grip Whiting has been at home this week on account of the dangerous sickness of his child, but the little one is now well on the road to health. Mr. Whiting represents Liggett & Myers of St. Louis, who last year sold 20,000,000 pounds of plug tobacco, about 515 carloads. The magnitude of the business may be inferred from the fact that the four principal firms in the country sold over 60,000,000 pounds last year.
 Dan Loeb, who has entertained curious crowds with his artistic delineations in Sennott's windows, has signed with the Call for a star engagement. He is doing sketches for that paper, and will also help engrave them. Dan is a genius, by-the-way, having among other things been on the stage, so that he comes by his theatrical air honestly. He has some photos in "Frita" Emmet and Soanlan poses, and they are just too sweet. He does a good imitation of Irving a la Dixey, and the Eiks or some other organization ought to work him into some of their public entertainments. With all these attractions it is no wonder that he is a heart's member among the dimpled darlings of Lincoln.
 Telephone at the COURIER office is 263.
