Silks and Lace Wraps That Are Simply Dazzling—Walking Gowns That Are Visions of Loveliness—Blending Directoire Styles with Common Sense.

[Special Correspondence.]

NEW YORK, May 30.—Of all the wraps for very warm weather that I have seen, the two that are presented here are probably the best adapted for the purpose, and they are both entirely novel and can be made very easily. The little shoulder wrap is made of silk and lace, and is one of the kind that gives grace and piquancy to a slender figure and makes a stout one look slim. The model is of rich black Ottoman silk, trimmed with real guipure lace, arranged much in the form of a

SILK AND LACE WRAPS.

Berthe in front and set in the shoulder seam at the back, being held full over the shoulder. Crochet or jetted rosettes add richness to it, and at the neck there is a lace frill standing, with a fall in form of a collar. This is made by taking lace of the same width as the rest and gathering it so that the salvage edge comes at the top and the flowered edge falls below. The upper edge can have a buttonholing of colored sash silk along it, and this has a very pretty effect. The belt is of rich black ribbon. This wrap can be made of satin, velvet or plain lace silk, or it can be of heavy meshed net brocades or even grenadine. Old silk can be utilized, as the silk shows but little and is really more for the foundation than anything else.

Many ladies have lace laid by which would come in very handy for this wrap.
Thread, Chantilly, French imitation, Spanish or guipure, are all suitable, and it is a most dressy, dainty little garment. I asked the quantities of materials needed and find that it requires but one yard and one-eighth of silk and two and one-quarter yards of lace about nine inches wide and two yards of the narrower lace, or four if all of one width.
The length of the bows and ends govern the quantity of ribbon.

The long black lace mantle is made of the lace woven for the purpose, and is to be simply gathered on to a yoke and then gathered in the back to a ribbon.
These are worn over light colored dresses, and are very pretty. It is economical, as when the fashion for such a wrap goes out, it can be made over into a handsome dress. These are however only worn by matrons. The other wraps are for the younger ladies.

The two pretty walking gowns show the happy blending of the directoire styles with common sense, and both are entirely novel and exceedingly elegant.

I saw yesterday a dress that had just been finished for a young girl, and it was so pretty that I must describe it. It was of very light gray derobe, a material as cheap as it is pretty, and the skirt was plain and full in the back, being shirred about five inches deep around the hips.

Three rows of black velvet ribbon, one inch wide, were sewn around the bottom above the hem. The waist was surplice front, with black velvet ribbon on the edges. The sleeves had velvet cuffs, and there was a hemmed sash of the dress

LACE MANTLE.

A New Move.

p. m., Columbus 5:40 p. m., Norfolk 7:40 p. m., arriving at Sioux City 10:30 p. m. Returning, will leave Sioux City 7 a. m., Norfolk 9:30 a. m., Columbus 11:25 a. m., David City 12:15 p. m., arriving at Lincoln 1:30 p. m.

and Sioux City, leaving Columbus 6:30 a. m., arriving Sioux City 3 p. m. Returning, leave Sioux City 10 a. m., and arrive at Columbus at 8:40 p. m.

That the Union Pacific desires to give its patrons the best service to be found west of the Missouri river is clearly demonstrated by the new moves made in this direction during the past few weeks.

material draped on a buckram waistband, and edged with the velvet all around, and a fringe was made on the bottom of the sash by loops of velvet.

The young lady who will wear this will wear pink flowers, and thus be a thing of beauty and a joy to her sweetheart.

OLIVE HARPER.

A Strong Combine.
For several weeks past Hon. J. C. McBride and Mr. Harvey Bell have been negotiating a partnership, which was finally consummated last evening, under the title of McBride & Bell. The old firm of Crandall & Bell has been dissolved, Mr. McBride purchasing the interest of the former, and the date of the new firm commences with the first day of June. Offices have been fitted up at 107 South Eleventh street, under the Whitebreast company's coal office.

McBride and Bell certainly form a strong team in the real estate, loan and insurance line. Having the advantage of long experience and several years of large and favorable acquaintance, there is no reason why the present co-partnership should not be a big success. Their line of insurance embraces the strongest and most popular companies, both life and fire. They are general agents for the well known Missouri, Kansas and Texas real estate and trust company of Kansas City. The company is a boon to the well to do, as well as the laborer whose means are small and limited. They will build a house for you costing anywhere from $1,000 to $10,000, according to your own ideas, and take monthly payments for the same. This is certainly a great thing for the hundreds of Nebraskans who want a home and think they cannot afford to be a property holder. This company will either build a house for you, or loan you money to assist in building. If contemplating the erection of a building, it certainly cannot be any harm to you, to investigate the plan offered.

As to the real estate handled by McBride & Bell, it is a well known fact that the senior partner of the old firm always had for sale the choicest lot of city or country property, upon his lists being some of the most valuable slices in Lincoln, and it may be added that in the past year he has made larger sales than any other real estate man in the city. Mr.
Bell also has his list of property, which is large and contains some valuable pieces and a number of genuine bargains. These two lists combined form the largest and best variety of Lincoln realty to be found, and it will pay all intending investors to look over the field of bargains that McBride & Bell are offering.

In view of the brilliant prospect that now looms up before this new firm for a long and successful career, the COURIER takes pleasure in congratulating both gentlemen, and furthermore recommends them to the patronage of the general public of Lincoln and Nebraska.

"The Courier" at the Resorts.
Persons leaving the city for the summer can have THE COURIER sent them without extra charge. In case of changes of location during the absence from home, the address will be altered whenever desired. This applies to present and new subscribers. Have the COURIER follow you as a means of keeping posted on home affairs. Its weekly appearance will prove more interesting than a letter.

Quarter Off on Ladies' Goods.

off sale goes into effect at Foreman & Crowe's, which includes all white goods, embroideries, dress trimmings, buttons, ladies' neckwear etc. These goods are all of the latest styles and ladies should not fail to inspect these bargains.

A Great Ribbon Sale.
During the week the new store of J. H.
Mauritius & Co. has enjoyed an immense passage in the ribbon department. A special sale has been going on and the ladies of Lincoln not being slow to appreciate such bargains as have been offered turned out in large numbers to take advantage of the opportunity. Next week the sale will be continued and all colors, widths and qualities will be sold at prices that cannot fail to attract the attention of every lady in Lincoln. Ask to see some of these bargains.

A Great Success.
Our quarter off sale has proved such a grand success that we have decided to continue it a few days longer. Bear in mind that the discount is only allowed on cash sales.

etc. They are in cream, salmon, orange, call and see these papers. They are the newest thing out and add greatly to the appearance of shelves.

Mooney Now Has $15,000 in His Pocket.
It is a singular thing that two residents of Providence, R. I., are richer today than they were a week ago. The richest, $3,887, which drew the first capital prize of $300,000 in the drawing of March 12, brought one-twentieth part of the prize to Mr. John Mooney, he having paid $1 for that share in its chances.— Providence, R. I., Telegram, March 30.

McArthur & Sons will open another drug store next week at 1019 O street. It will make a specialty of prescriptions and fancy articles, and will also have a handsome soda fountain.
