The Queen of Fame.

The ladies of St Paul M. E. church must have realized a substantial benefit from the presentation of the "Queen of Fame" Wednesday evening, for it attracted a large audience. Miss Almira Parker as the goddess, called the noted women of history before her to contest the honor of being crowned queen of them all. Each of them in a short recitation or song presented her claims, and the crown was awarded Louise M. Alcott (Miss Grace Snelling). The goddess was accompanied by six maids of honor: Misses Gertrude Marquette, Gertrude Laws, Rachel Brock, Lulu Ballentine, Katie Miller and Alice Cowdry. The contestants were introduced by a page (Miss Beadie Lane). The following famous characters were represented:

- Cleopatra.....Miss Minnie Latta

Notes from the Cadets in Camp.

The sixth annual encampment of the University Cadet Corps was at begun Nebraska City Thursday. The camp is situated about a mile and a half from the depot. Quartermaster-Sergeant Walters, assisted by Sergeant Thurber and half a dozen men, had erected twenty-five large hospital tents, making by far the most ample accommodations the corps has yet had. Every tent is now occupied. The camp was named in honor of Senator Charles T. Manderson. The commandant, Lieut. T. W. Griffith, has his headquarters at the north end of the camp, with Adjutant Stephens' tent on the right and Quartermaster-Sergeant Walters' on the left. The guard tents are at the opposite end and the main body of the camp is divided into four company streets. Co. A, Capt. Webber, is on the extreme right forming "A" street; Co. D, Capt. Gerwig, on the left; Co. B, Capt. Fletcher, on the right center, and Co. C, Capt. Baughman, on the left center. Co. D has perhaps the best location and parade ground. Major Watson, speaker of the House, called at Camp Manderson on Thursday and kindly left directions to ask for anything wanted. Capt. Webber was officer of the day Friday. Capt. Gerwig went on duty at 5:30 Friday evening. Capt. Fletcher goes on at 5:30 Saturday and Capt. Baughman at 5:30 Sunday.

Thursday night was perhaps quieter than the first night of our previous encampment, but was by no means oppressively quiet. Everybody is enthusiastic over Nebraska City and the kindness we have met. The number of beautiful young ladies was generally remarked upon. Of course there will be no flirting; it isn't military. There are about 100 men in camp, all told, and a number more are expected. Prof. Lawrence Bruner with the battalion and will, together with some of the students, collect a number of specimens.

Another Senator Married.

The marriage of Hon. J. D. Pope, senator from Saline county, is of interest to many in Lincoln, as well as throughout the State. Senator Pope was one of the youngest members of the senate, but he was faithful and conscientious and displayed personal qualities that won the esteem of all who came in contact with him. The wedding occurred at Friend Wednesday evening. Rev. E. H. Curtis of this city officiating. The bride, Miss Lillian McDougall, is a daughter of the late Hon. Matthew McDougall of that place. Her wedding gown was of cream Henrietta, and train, trimmed with Chinese silk, and she wore a wreath of flowers. During the ceremony the bride and groom stood under a floral canopy, and the bride was attended by four maids of honor: Misses Hazel McDougall, Maud Kramer, Mabel Callahan and Jennie Ferguson. Senator and Mrs. Pope left on the night train for a ten-day wedding journey to Denver and other Colorado points.

Reception for High School Graduates.

The sixth annual reception of the alumni association of the Lincoln high school will be given to the class of '89 on Monday evening, June 10. The programme includes a reception at Temple hall from 8 to 10 p. m., a banquet and business meeting at Brown's at 10, and a dance to close the festivities at the hall. The class graduating this year is composed of the following members: Harry G. Barber, John F. Barrett, Cora Beach, F. James Congrove, Wilford A. Dawson, Frank B. DeWitt, Christine Fosner, Willard Hammond, Wm. Arthur Wigginton, Ralph E. Johnson, Alice L. Kearns, C. Della Klock, Erasmus Madison, Charton C. Marlay, Beattie A. McDill, Ward B. Richardson, Francis F. Tucker, Raymond M. Welch, Thomas E. Wing.

At Home to the Seniors.

Chancellor and Mrs. Bessey entertained the members of the Senior class of the University Wednesday evening. The many souvenirs and photographs gathered by the professor and his wife on their trip abroad furnished abundant material for an unusually pleasant evening, and both host and hostess supplemented these by a store of amusing incidents and experiences. The entire class were enthusiastic in their expressions of delight. Mrs. Bessey was assisted by Miss Moore, Miss Cochran and Mr. Menzendorf.

John Love Address, Welcome to Incoming Junior Class. Vocal Duet, Misses Gaylord and Becker "The Swallows Farewell."—Kuchen. Carlito Tucker Address, Welcome to Incoming Freshman Class. Vocal Solo, "L'Arletta."—Luisi Arditi.

Minor Mentions.

No, "Taken by Siege" is not a war story. Lieut. F. A. Williams of the national guards has resigned. Yes, "Taken by Siege" is a romantic story of real life. No fiction, but a true story. Mrs. E. C. Hill died Thursday noon at her home, Fourteenth and A streets. Mrs. W. A. Jones, of Rushville, Ind., is in the city, the guest of Mrs. J. E. Riggs. The Pleasant Hour club will hold a business meeting at Hardy & Pitcher's this evening. Representative Specht of Omaha and Senator Polk of Plattsmouth were in town Tuesday. Rebecca lodge of Odd Fellows had a pleasant social Tuesday night after regular business. Miss Anna Cassidy of Council Bluffs will visit at the residence of Mrs. H. W. Brown next week. The old settlers will meet next Saturday to make final arrangement for their outing at Cushman. Dr. W. J. P. Lawton and H. R. Krug will build handsome residences at Twenty-sixth and N streets. Wait Mason, if rumor comes true, will soon transfer his talents and allegiance to the Omaha Republican. Last chance today to read the opening chapters of "Taken by Siege." The story commences in this issue. Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Stone of Louisville, Ky., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMurry. The ladies are sisters. M. L. Davey reports that there are valuable gas wells on land near Perry, Iowa, belonging to W. H. B. Stout. Mrs. Adelaide Dearborn, formerly instructor in elocution at the State University, died in Boston last Thursday. Miss Lillian Chamberlain of Omaha has been engaged to sing at the commencement exercises of the Union society. The graduating class of the high school have issued elegantly engraved invitations for commencement, June 10th. The East Lincoln Woodmen are to have a new hall in a building being erected by Baker & Smith at Twenty-seventh and 8 streets. E. W. McCullough of this city will be married next Thursday at the Bethany Congregational church, Chicago, to Miss Clara J. Moore. Rev. F. S. Stein of Milwaukee is the new pastor of St. Paul's and will preach his first sermon tomorrow. He was a college mate of Postmaster Watkins. Mrs. W. R. Dennis expects to leave next week for Chicago and after a visit there will in company with relatives leave for the lakes to pass the heated term. Gen. McBride had been married twenty-two years last Monday and celebrated the anniversary by presenting Mrs. McBride with a crayon portrait of himself. The musical program at the Sunday meeting of the Irish league was sustained by Miss May Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. A. Kilroy, Messrs. Thos. Carr, David Fitzgerald and N. Lawlor. The ladies of St. Paul's took in about $100 of net revenue Wednesday evening with "The Queen of Fame." They are selling copies of the play at $3 each, Hastings, Holdrege and Geneva having already invested. C. S. Perry, formerly of Perry & Harris, the jeweler, is now special correspondent of the Watch Dial, published at Cincinnati, and to judge from a marked copy is doing a big share of the editorial work on it. Mrs. McConiff-Van Dusen was thrown violently from her buggy while out driving yesterday afternoon, the horse becoming frightened and running away. Although badly shaken she was not dangerously injured. Mr. H. E. Berry and Miss Alice Shipp were married Thursday morning at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. P. Converse, on North Twentieth street, and they at once began house-keeping at 619 South Nineteenth. The groom is a well known barber at N and Eleventh streets. The Eleventh Annual Tournament of the Iowa Firemen promises to be a big success. According to the Council Bluffs papers quarters for over forty teams have been secured and every day increases the list. There will be ten or more teams from Nebraska, one from Colorado and probably one from Deadwood. Miss Chic Brown is enjoying life at Nantasket, a summer resort near Boston. While at the beach the lady is also studying her favorite art, i. e. music, both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Brown expects to leave for Boston the latter part of the month and Mr. Brown will follow in July, and together the party will return in August. A gay party of young folks spent Memorial Day in the woods near the penitentiary known as Levitt's Grove. It was a basket picnic and the day passed without an incident to mar it. An accident seemed inevitable, however, for while the party were seated on a branch suspended over the creek the branch broke, but the gallant Mr. Blake's timely assistance saved the picnickers from a ducking. The party consisted of Misses Canfield, Hyde, Becker and Harper, Messrs. Wackerhagen, Blake, Ryons and Pisk. A well known lover of horse flesh has been sporting a big diamond stud for the past week that has been the envy of everybody in sporting circles. The stone is of great purity and cost an even $250. It has a handsome gold setting and is one of the finest stones in the city. It is said that he bought it of Hallett the jeweler on Eleventh street just north of O, which brings to mind the interesting fact that Hallett has the biggest line of diamonds brought to Lincoln. Not only are these stones the acme of jewelry, but they can always be converted into cash, and these facts make them the most prized of all precious stones. Mr. Hallett will no doubt be glad to show his diamonds to visitors.
