Telephone 111; residence 266. Parties going to the Dakota Hot Springs for pleasure or health can add to the attractions there by purchasing one of more lots that have just been platted and put on the market. The prospects are good that such investments will prove profitable. Quite a number of cottages are being built there this year by people who make annual trips to the place. One of Lincoln's residents, who recently returned from the Springs, purchased a site for a cottage and will erect a cottage thereon for his family's future use. We understand a building boom has been inaugurated in the place by the location there of South Dakota's Soldiers' Home and M. E. college. Work is now in progress on both buildings.

Fleck-Moore. Lincoln society has found a topic of much interest this week in the marriage of Miss Frances L. Moore to Mr. Henry E. Fleck, of Newark, Ohio. The ceremony was performed Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Wm. B. Ogden, 1721 F street, by Rev. Lewis Gregory. The only spectators present were relatives of the contracting parties, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Ogden; Mrs. Grace Fleck and Miss Alice Fleck of Newark, mother and sister of the groom; Mr. Edward C. Wright of Newark, Mrs. Moore, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Wallace of Washington, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dunby, Jr., of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Sutton of Omaha. The bride was attired in a heavy white silk, perfectly plain but in princess style and on train. She carried a large bouquet of white roses, and her only ornament was a magnificent diamond necklace, the wedding present of the groom. The clergyman used a very pretty nuptial service, and it was performed in the twilight, without lights. The ceremony was followed by a wedding reception. The Ogden home is one of those elaborate modern structures known as cottages for want of a better name, and one of its features is a great broad veranda. It was a charming evening, and the guests were received in the veranda, which had been enclosed for the occasion. The bridal couple were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Fleck, Miss Fleck, Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Dunby, Mrs. Carl Funke, Mrs. S. E. Moore, Mrs. Bussey and Miss May Moore. Though not a long resident in Lincoln, the bride had become a favorite in exclusive circles, and a hundred or more called to pay their respects and tender well wishes. Music was stationed in the swell of the veranda, and the soft strains of silver and guitar floated upon the evening air with exquisite sweetness. Within doors flowers on every hand filled the apartments with perfume, and in the dining room less engrossed a share of attention. Many of the ladies displayed toilets dainty and lovely, and altogether the affair was one of the capital city's most elegant. The presents were not exhibited. Mr. and Mrs. Fleck remained at the Ogden home until the following morning, when they departed for Minneapolis. They expected to make a wedding journey of two or three weeks in the north, but will enjoy planning it as they go. They will be at home in Newark about the middle of next month. Mr. Fleck is a wholesale merchant of means in that city, and the bride will find herself among friends, Newark having been her home previous to coming to Lincoln.

Picnics. One of the merriest of picnic parties invaded Cushman park Monday, going out at ten in the morning and remaining all day. They were indebted to the Messrs. Andrus for helpful attention and are singing the praises of Cushman as a pleasure resort. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jansen, Mrs. John Zehrunge, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Oakley, Mr. O. H. Oakley and family, Mr. W. S. Huffman and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Wiley, Mr. E. K. Criley and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown, Mrs. Geo. Cook and son, Mrs. O. M. Thompson, Mrs. Thos. Sewall and daughter, Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Mrs. Foreman, Misses Hattie Hooper, Aileen Oakley, Belle Oakley, Maud Burr, May Moore, Miss Tierce and Messrs. Will Maxwell, Lieut. Griffith, Dr. Reeves, Dr. Kerman, Welmer Murray, Frank Zehrunge, Matt Baldwin, Clint Andrus.

The picnic of the Old Settlers' association at Cushman park Wednesday was an immense success in every way. It is estimated that 500 settlers and 3000 other persons were on the grounds during the day. The addresses contained a fund of interesting history and reminiscences. The traveling men's outing at Cushman park will begin tomorrow, and the committee have arranged for a week full of entertainment. The twice-a-month club enjoyed a picnic at Cushman Monday evening. About thirty-five participated.

Evening Parties. Mrs. H. P. Foster gave a child's party Wednesday to celebrate the birthday anniversary of her little Edith. Eighteen children were present and had a supremely happy time, as only little folks can. Farmer Bronson, who has a hospitable home out near the asylum, entertained a jolly party Monday evening in honor of two visiting young ladies from Chicago. Several from the city were among the number.

Miss Grace Snelling entertained the high school graduates of 1887 Wednesday evening. Ray Edminston read a class history, Miss Jennie Buncher gave a recitation and the evening was rounded out with dancing, music and refreshments. Miss Josie Redway entertained a few girl friends Friday of last week. Games, dancing and strawberries were features of a pleasant evening, Mrs. Buford presiding at the instrument. Those present were Misses Gertrude Baldwin, Ina Hatch, Tot Miller, Sallie Buford, Winnie Hyde, Grace Hantsinger and Katie Winslow.

Master Charles and Miss Stella Elliot gave a pleasant farewell lawn party Tuesday evening at their home on Fourteenth street in honor of Miss Cora Kelley, whose family have removed to Omaha. The grounds were handsomely decorated with Chinese lanterns and flags, and the Elche family gave an enjoyable program of music.

Pleasantly Entertained. One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the party given Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth of Burlington, Iowa, by her sister, Mrs. Sam Hershler, on M street, assisted by Mrs. M. Newmark. The company present numbered twenty-five guests, all of whom, judging from bright countenances and merry laughter, seemed to thoroughly enjoy the passing hours. The evening's entertainment comprised various social pleasures, prominent among them being the soap-bubble pastime, which elicited much interest and enjoyment. Miss Mayer, of New York, was awarded the lady's royal, having succeeded in passing the greatest number of bubbles through the wicket, and Mr. Goldberg won the gentleman's royal, while Mr. Henry Mayer captured the booby. Later in the evening the guests were regaled with a sumptuous collation served by the deft hands of the affable hostess. It was a dainty and toothsome spread, one that would do credit to Delmonico and Kinsey. After supper the time was spent in social chat until time for departure. It was a pleasant evening and certainly each one present enjoyed the affair in its fullest sense.

A Prize Winner. A short time ago the Daughters of Bethel of the African M. E. church held an anniversary entertainment and among other attractions was a contest for the most popular lady. The prize was won by Miss Mattie Banks. It was presented Wednesday evening by Rev. Mr. Braxton of the A. M. E. church and proved to be a large and handsome lamp. Miss Banks is very grateful to all her friends, both white and colored, who contributed to the result. Among the former were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brown, Miss Florence Brown, W. E. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Moore, Miss Fanis and May Moore, A. L. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Welch, Miss Helen Welch, D. E. Wheeler, F. E. Fulson, Henry Fefeiff, Mrs. C. W. Lyman, Mrs. Leonard, Misses Emma and Berta Falk, Mrs. Bussey, Miss Clara Lason, Mrs. C. M. Jamison, Miss Jamison, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. J. E. Houtz, Miss Gracie Leming, Harry Leming, Mrs. Hargroves, Mrs. A. R. Talbot, Mrs. Ensign, Mrs. Parker, C. M. Cobb and O. E. Rector.

Miss Grace Griffith has returned from college at Allegheny City, Pa. Miss Gruninger contemplates a visit to Denver with a side trip to Manitou. Col. Harry Hotchkiss will be chief of staff at the K. F. encampment at Columbus. Mrs. C. R. Clapp and Miss Effie Hunt of Kearney are guests of Mrs. Harry Wertz. Mrs. J. E. Montrose and daughter May have gone east to visit at Rochester and Cleveland. Mrs. Cal Thompson is one of a B. & M. party who are doing the mountains in Colorado. R. T. Van Brunt has been enjoying a visit from his sister, Miss A. E. Van Brunt of New York. Miss Holmes, the guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Townley, has returned to her Kansas City home. Mr. and Mrs. W. Q. Bell had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burlingrin of Omaha. Max Rich of Bird City, Kan., was a two days' visitor in Lincoln, leaving for St. Louis yesterday. J. L. Pope and daughter, the guests of Hon. and Mrs. H. A. Babcock, have returned to New York. Dr. J. O. Carter has gone to Newport to attend the meeting of the American medical association. Joe Kubat of Zehrunge & Dunn's has returned from a visit to his old home at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Ed Brown of the Nebraska City Press ran up Tuesday to register his name for the editorial excursion. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sawyer have been entertaining Mrs. Hazen of the Mt. Carrol, Ill., conservatory of music. Morris Rich of New York arrived Wednesday and after a day's sojourn in Lincoln went west over the Burlington. Mrs. Emery Caldwell, Walter and Miss Clara Caldwell and Miss Osborne have gone to Portland for the summer. Miss Estelle Morrison of Chicago, a niece of F. F. Roose, has arrived in Lincoln and is taking a course in shorthand. C. E. Yates and family left Monday for the mountains of Colorado, accompanied by Mrs. Y's sister from Burlington, Iowa. Miss Cora Outcalt is the proud possessor of a fine pony and handsome little phaeton, all of her own selection and purchase. Court Reporter Mullin is being assisted by his son, James Mullin of Omaha, and expects to go on the excursion to Portland. Frank A. Manly immediately on graduating from the State University joined a B. & M. engineering corps near Culbertson. Lieut. Griffith expects to leave today and will spend two or three weeks at Hot Springs, Ark., on his way to his Pittsburg home. Misses Frances Dunscombe and Louisa Tucker of the city schools have gone to Fremont to attend the normal for a few weeks. Rev. R. H. F. Gairdner has joined his wife, who is visiting her parents at Detroit. They will visit Canada before returning next month. John Riley, an old Lincoln boy, but now telegraph editor of the Omaha Bee, was in town Monday but wouldn't divulge the name of the attraction. Mrs. R. H. Oakley's home and lawn were the scene last evening of a highly successful social under the direction of the ladies of the church of the Holy Trinity. Mrs. M. D. Welch had a trip to Hot Springs, Dak., in contemplation, but the robbery of her husband's safe has caused a change of plan. She had her trunk packed and her ticket bought. Prof. F. M. Gibault leaves today for a visit to the old home at Monmouth, Ill., for a stay of several months. He may go to Europe, but expects to open regular classes again in September. Elmer Henkle, late with the Hart hardware company, has accepted a position with the Omaha hardware company. He will go on the road for them and will drop in on Lincoln friends occasionally. Charles Shelper, late with Ashby & Millsbaugh but now representing Edson, Keith & Co., a Chicago wholesale dry goods house, has had Lincoln added to his Kansas territory and will have his headquarters here. Mrs. A. C. Ziemer received a novel and acceptable present from her husband on her recent birthday anniversary. It was a five dollar bill for each year of her age. The bills were in sheets, just as the local bank receives them from the government. Miss Ada W. Smith, of New York City, has become a resident of Lincoln for an indefinite length of time, and is making her home with Dr. Mrs. Painter. Miss Smith was a volunteer nurse in the union army during the rebellion, and much of the time aide to Dr. Painter by appointment of General Grant, through whom she received her passes. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burr returned yesterday from a delightful trip to the Shattuck military school at Fairbault. They attended commencement exercises and saw their son Charles graduate with honors. There was additional gratification in the fact that Lieut. Burr's company, Co. C, took the flag in the competitive drill. Mrs. Adolph Weber and Nat Brigham will sing at Cushman park tomorrow. Mrs. Weber expects to start for Europe next week to pursue her musical studies and also to take dramatic lessons. She has no intention of going on the stage, but thinks it well to improve her splendid opportunities to acquire an accomplishment that may be of use on occasion.

What's in a Name?

Not much perhaps, generally speaking—but the name of SEMMONS somehow seems to identify itself with popularity. We've worked hard to get where we are—on top of the heap of competition—and we intend to stay there, too. It's easy enough to tell what put us there; simply honest business methods. One price for all. A tremendous stock which contains everything good that the market affords, and coupled with low prices making in all a combination that is always a sure winner and hard to beat.

We have an idea that there's nothing too good for the Lincoln populace—at least that's what we think, some few fogies perhaps may think our stock too good for this town, but our methods will pay best in the long run, i. e., supply the best quality for the least money, nullis secundi.

The tremendous cut we are making in the price of our entire stock, be it Clothing, Hats, or Furnishings, has stirred 'em up, and though our business was larger last week, we expect more the coming week. Elegant Neckwear this week for a trifle. Straw Hats. Buy now while the iron's hot and your dollar will do you double service, at
