

Capital • City • Courier,
BURR BLOCK.

To OUR FRIENDS: Lincoln, Neb., June 29th, 1889.

Having been asked repeatedly why we did not handle the better grades and finer qualities of Correspondence Papers and Fancy Papetries, we have placed on sale the finest line of these goods ever brought to Lincoln.

The stock comprises the best makes, including Whiting's celebrated papers and in quantities to suit the purchaser, viz.: from a quire to a ream.

The very latest styles are now all in and some of the finest novelties ever seen in the city can be found in our new stock.

You are invited to call while the assortment is complete.

Very Respectfully Yours,
Wessel Printing Co.

P. S. We are prepared to furnish these papetries with Monograms, Crests, and other dies, etc., all in the highest style of the engraver's art.
