These cars are models of excellence, and the best meals the market affords will be furnished at 75 cents. 10-21-89

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

And so our esteemed friend "Jack" Stobbs gave the boys the laugh on his return the other day from the east. They had it all down and the matter settled that Stobbs would return with a fair creature who would share house and home with him, and the fact is he did bring a fair creature with him but it was his sister, Miss Maud, whom he brought from their home in Hamilton, Ontario. "Jack" has rented the Houts property corner 17th and F streets and has had it handsomely furnished and next week together with his sister will begin active home life, a particular feature that he will enjoy after eating at hotels, restaurants and lunch counters for the past several years. There may be more to this than present appearances indicate and the genial "Jack" may just be arranging preliminaries, but further sayeth witness not. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hurd, living at Ninth and G streets, were the subjects of a surprise party Thursday evening by Daughters of Rebekah of Charity Lodge and their Odd Fellows escorts. Mr. Hurd had for a year delirious the Daughters, and they gave lasting form to their appreciation by presenting him with a handsome upholstered rocker. Among those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Augman, Byers, Crawford, Chaney, Dinges, Dillon, Fradenburg, Hill, Heaton, Howe, Hyde, Lasch, Randall, Williams and Thomas; Misses Fry, Masterman, Graves, Bax and White; Mesdames Bax, Katzenstein, Shoemaker, White, Hall and Bolshaw; Messrs. Bain, Hennacy, Albert Katzenstein and Taggart. The Lincoln humane society, whose object will be the prevention of cruelty to animals and children, has been organized with the following officers: President, Rev. E. H. Chapin; first vice president, C. M. Parker; second vice president, Miss Phoebe Elliott; third vice president, O. J. Sawyer; fourth vice president, Mrs. T. H. Leavitt; secretary, Mrs. W. S. Smith; treasurer, Dr. Garter; executive committee, J. H. Mockett, C. G. Bullock and Rev. P. W. Howe; board of managers, Rev. John Hunt, Dr. B. L. Paine, R. H. Oakley, Mrs. L. C. Richards, Mrs. A. S. Raymond, E. Lefever, A. R. Talbot, Mrs. T. M. Marquett, C. A. Atkinson, Mrs. J. H. Mockett, J. H. McClay and C. C. Munson. Miss Alice Orr entertained a company of young people very pleasantly Monday evening at her home on G street. Those present were: Misses Peckham, Ettie and Lottie Root, Annie and Kittie Clason, Laura Betts, Lulu Young, Messrs. Charlie Wilson, Frank Hadley, Harry Moore, Will Herdman, Tom Herdman, Dr. C. A. Shoemaker, Arthur Moore, Alex. Mahone, Bert Berle, David Orr, Henry Spears, George Root and Burton A. George. Lincoln's pilgrims to Manitowish are returning, not one by one, but in companies. On Sunday Mrs. H. D. Hathaway and children, Frank, Lily and Ralph, arrived home; also Bob Muir and Clarence Smith. On Monday came Mr. and Mrs. Fred Funke and daughters, Clara and Martha; also L. C. Pace and family and Mrs. Wm. Pickett. On Tuesday came Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Muir, W. H. Irvine and J. D. Parish. Landlord Criley was astonished at the influx of young fellows about town to Sunday dinner at the Windsor, but if he had noticed the admiring glances cast at the numerous blooming damsels of "The City Directory" company he would have understood the reason. Miss Mary Haverlan was the involuntary hostess of a party of young people Wednesday evening, but they had a jolly time. Among the guests were Misses Daubach, Nichols, Ledwith, Wright, Marsh, Casady, Purcell, Crono and O'Shea. The social event of the week, to use an original expression, has been the lawn tennis tournament, an account of which appears elsewhere. It seems to have absorbed all the social activity not already consumed by the heat. Mrs. A. C. Thompson gave a reception Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. H. C. McDaniel, who is about to leave Lincoln, and entertained a large number of well-wishing friends. The young ladies' missionary band and the society of christian endeavor of St. Paul's church will give a social at the church parlors next Wednesday evening.

Daily of Vermillion, South Dakota, who had been visiting Miss Nellie Zehring, has returned to her home. Prof. Lawrence Fossler has resigned as principal of the high school to take the chair of modern languages in the state university. Miss Gretchen Marquette made a visit Wednesday to what she terms "Saratoga," and returned the same evening from Greenwood. Ed Brown, of the Nebraska City Press, was in the city Tuesday, having galloped an Ogden belle thus far on her journey homeward. Deputy State Auditor and Mrs. Bowerman have been entertaining Miss Lottie Gould, of Springfield, Ill., and M. J. Benner, of Jacksonville, Ill. Prof. D. F. Easterday, organist at the First Baptist church, will preside at the organ through the dedicatory services of the Christian church Sunday. T. R. Gadd, son of the colonel, has returned from the artillery school at Old Point Comfort, where he has put in five years, and will make Lincoln his home. Mrs. Charles B. Fox and daughter left Wednesday for Odell, Dakota, to visit Mr. Fox, who is manager of the Verges sandstone company at that point. Will Clarke left Wednesday for a visit to Camp Clark, which is located at his father's bridge across the Platte river north of Sidney, on the road to the Black Hills. A. S. Badger, late of the National lumber company, has received inducements that will lead him to remove to Chicago. A large circle of friends will regret the change. Several hundred people enjoyed the Ohio picnic at Cushman park Wednesday. Speeches were made by President Hullock, Judge Houston, T. F. Munger and Judge Parker. W. Q. Bell, correspondent of the Omaha World-Herald, left Tuesday for Alliance as a guest of Superintendent Thompson, of the B. & M., traveling in the latter's private car. Sam Cox, contrary to rumor, has returned home alone and safe. The Lincoln girls who have been doting on Sam's handsomeness to these many years may still hope to bask in his smiles. Frank Morrasy, Esq., of Sheffield, Ill., has located in Lincoln for the practice of law, and is officing with Attorney Mansfield in the Burr block. Mr. Morrasy is of a wealthy Illinois family and comes highly recommended. Old trunks made as good as new or taken in trade for new ones at trunk factory 308 So. 11th st., tel. 663. Witrick & Hopper. Also a fine line of trunks, valises, etc. The State fair will be a great exhibition and will leave a great deal of money in the city. A newspaper correspondent says it means $200,000 a year to Lincoln, and the people ought to see that it remains here the next five years. Incidentally it may be remarked that Hallett, the Eleventh street jeweler, gives one of the finest exhibitions of jewelry, gold and silverware and other articles usually carried by a first class dealer in his line. Not only is he a permanent fixture of Lincoln, but by honest representations and reasonable prices he has made the people of this city hundreds of dollars by leaving the money in their pockets. Buy your coal of the Whitebreast Coal and Lime Co., and it will always be well screeded, full weight, best quality and at right prices. Old papers, large and clean, to wrap up bundles with or put under carpets, for sale at this office at 25 cents per hundred. WON A FORTUNE. Herman Fischer of 4161 Easton Avenue Picks up the Snug Sum of $30,000. The quiet neighborhood of Easton avenue and Sarah street is all agog over the luck of Mr. Herman Fischer, a popular druggist, who lives at No. 4161 Easton avenue, where he is employed as a clerk by Theodore Fischer. Mr. Herman Fischer was fortunate enough to strike it rich in an investment made in the Louisiana State Lottery. The July drawing brought him the snug fortune of $30,000. Mr. Fischer has lived in St. Louis for nearly 20 years, and is a very popular young man. Naturally his congratulations are numerous. He is about 45 years of age and has a wife and four children. A reporter called on Mr. Fischer today and found him in unusually good spirits. "Yes, sir, it is a fact," said he in a reply to a question. "I am $30,000 richer than I was a week ago, and have received my money. Last month I sent a letter addressed to the New Orleans National Bank, in which I enclosed $2 requesting them to send me one-tenth of a ticket in the July drawing. I never joined any clubs as is usual. I preferred to go it alone. I received one-tenth part of ticket No. 43,758. I received my list, and I tell you I was surprised to find that I had actually struck the first capital prize of $300,000, my tenth ticket entitling me to $30,000. I then went to the Fourth National Bank, deposited my ticket, and in three days I received word that the money was waiting there for me. I must say for the institution that their payment is prompt and businesslike as any bank or mercantile firm in the world. "I have my money and of course will use it to the best advantage." Mr. Fischer is a business man and accepts the situation very calmly, just as if he was used to such things all his life.—St. Louis (Mo.) Star Sayings, August 2.
