

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Albert G. Wallace and Miss Carrie Houck were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Houck, Twenty-third and Vine streets. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. Mr. Noonan. Miss Clara Wallace acted as bridesmaid and the groom was supported by Mr. J. C. Small. The wedding passed off very pleasantly in the presence of a small company that included Mrs. S. Houck, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Yates, Mrs. S. C. Brady, Mrs. S. C. Henry, Misses Wallace, Grimes, Brown, Lint, Houck and Lord, Misses Lena, Clara and Nora Brady, Messrs. J. C. and G. E. Small, Wallace, Graves, Coy, Houck, Swaney and Brown. They not only tendered congratulations, but brought substantial evidences of their good will. Mr. Wallace is one of the Peerless laundry force, and the friends of the young couple wish them all happiness. They will make their home for the present with the groom's parents. The bride received from her husband an organ for a wedding present. Following is a list of the gifts presented by kind friends: By Mr. and Mrs. James Houck, a set of breakfast and dinner china; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wallace, two antique oak chairs and a water set; C. E. Houck, silver knives and forks; Miss Lizzie Grimes, water set; C. C. Swaney, silver teaspoons; C. G. Coy, clock and fruit stand; Miss Ora Fenner, towels and napkins; Mrs. Brewer, chair drape; Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Houck, bed spread; Clara and Nora Brady, quilt; Mrs. C. J. and Mr. C. W. Houck, napkins; Mr. J. E. Wallace, napkins and table spread; Miss Rose Houck, lamp; Mrs. J. C. Yates, cake stand; W. E. Graves and Miss L. Lint, silver knives and forks; A. E. Small, silver butter dish; Mr. Chas. Brown and sisters, breakfast castor; Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Brady, Miss Lord and Miss Brady, silver cream and sugar bowl; Mr. J. C. Small and Clara Wallace, silver knives, forks and spoons.

The wedding of Mr. John S. West and Miss Fanny E. Stout, Tuesday evening, was a quiet but happy affair. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. Lewis Gregory in the presence of Messrs. W. H. B. Stout, John K. Stout and E. P. Stout, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stout, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stout and Mr. and Mrs. Charles West. After the nuptial knot was tied the company sat down to a wedding supper. The young couple then donned traveling attire and took the night train for Salt Lake. They were met at the depot by a company of young people who had gathered to tender congratulations and wish them goodspeed. Mr. and Mrs. West will be gone two or three weeks and will do Colorado on the way back. They will make their home with the bride's father, of whose household she has hitherto had charge. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Charles West, manager for the Lombard Investment company, and holds a position in the office. The bride is the daughter of Mr. W. H. B. Stout, the well known contractor. Both young people have been prominent in society and have many friends who take a kindly interest in their union.

The Junior Pleasant Hours had several very big pleasant hours at Cushman park last Saturday evening. Dancing was the feature of the evening, relieved by a dainty luncheon provided by Mr. Clint Andrus. Half of the party went out on horseback, and an exciting incident of the ride was a race between Frank Burr and Miss Minnie Franklin. The young lady overtook her competitor and held him even for two miles. The horses went at their fastest pace, and Miss Franklin held her seat in splendid style. About twenty couples participated and were chaperoned by Messrs. and Mesdames C. C. Burr, H. D. Hathaway, W. J. Marshall. Among the young people were Bob Muir, Aaron Buckstaff, Frank Burr, Ed and Jim Fitzgerald, Frank Hathaway, Lew Marshall, Chas. Burr and Elmer Henkel, Misses Daisy Doane and Emma Wakely of Omaha, Lona Giles, Fritza Barnard, Minnie Franklin, Fay Marshall, Bertie Burr, Minnie Latta and Lily Hathaway.

Master John Deak, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Deak of North Twenty-ninth street, was the involuntary host of a company of young people last Saturday afternoon, his mother having arranged a surprise party to celebrate his fourteenth birthday. It was a successful surprise and right jolly affair. The following young folks were present: Misses Jennie Pentzer, Pearl Bonnell, Zuella Trester, Ida Harry, Bertha Goddard, Jessie Decker, Minerva Pearson, Edith Wedge, Nellie Leonard, and Masters Lynn Freeman, Albert Wilson, Johnnie Pearson, Eddy Harry, Morton Trester, Harry Leonard, Johnnie Stevens.

Harry Smith, the new manager of the Postal telegraph company, is credited with originating the idea of decorating the graves of deceased Knights of Pythias. He is a member of Columbia lodge, No. 48, of Cincinnati, which has decorated the graves of dead brethren for the past six years. The cemetery is six miles out, and so many people accompany the Knights on their annual pilgrimage that the excursion generally nets the lodge a handsome profit to be applied to its benevolent work.

A letter from Mr. Jacob Mahler says he has decided to return to Lincoln next May and give a series of dancing lessons. As master of ceremonies at Congress Hall, Saratoga, he says it has been an exceptionally successful season. He has returned to St. Louis, where he will have a new building for his own use.

PEN, PAPER AND INK.

In Art Amateur for September Theodore Child has a critical review of Decorative Art at the Paris Exposition; and "Montezuma," in his "Note Book," gives some curious facts about the "Angeles" and other pictures. The colored plates are, as usual, excellent. There is a marsh-mallow design for an easel scarf for painting and embroidery; Professor Knauft continues his profusely illustrated Pen Drawing for Photo-Engraving; the Orichalc plate series; the "Crescent" salad plates; the practical articles on Flower Painting, Tapestry Painting, Illumination, Amateur Photography, are all continued, and there are lessons in Fret-sawing and Stamped Leather work, and "The Art of Making Smoke Pictures."

The August number of The West Shore Magazine contains a store of information about various portions of Oregon and Idaho, with many illustrations of prominent buildings and residences in Salem, Joseph, Enterprise and Baker City, Oregon, which places are specially described, as well as Weiser, Caldwell, Boise and Pocatello, Idaho. Accompanying the number is a large tinted supplement containing numerous engravings of scenes in and about Yaguina bay, one of Oregon's favorite sea coast summer resorts, and of special interest as the ocean terminus of the Oregon Pacific railroad, which will soon become the Pacific end of a new transcontinental route.

In Outing for September is a timely article on The Fast Yachts of Great Britain in 1888, by Prof. F. Sumichrast, of Harvard. The text is illustrated with reproductions from photographs of leading English flyers. As road runs are a popular amusement among wheelmen just now, that brotherhood will thank Outing for telling them How Cycling Road Records are made in England. "Paed" Wilson has furnished an exhaustive description of this branch of cycling sport.

The Overland Monthly has published a number of articles on the Indians of Arizona and Southern California from the pens of white men who have lived among them, and the September number has an interesting account of the Moquis.

The Art Exchange presents its readers with a design for the decoration of a four-fold screen. It is a beautiful combination of swallows and wisteria.

Old trunks made as good as new or taken in trade for new ones at trunk factory 308 So. 11th st., tel. 663. Wirrick & Hopper. Also a fine line of trunks, valises, etc.

There is no serious danger of Lincoln losing the state fair. It is only a question of subscribing five or ten thousand dollars to put the fair grounds in condition to keep the great exhibition the next five years, and for Lincoln people that amount is a mere bagatelle. State fair visitors who incidentally improve their time while in the city to buy needed articles should remember that if they want any thing in the line of silver or plated ware for the table the man the see is Hallett, the old reliable jeweler on Eleventh street. They will find a big stock of goods and may rest assured of fair, square dealing.

DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINES.

We have no exhibit at the State Fair, but PHIL. JACOBS, State Agent, can be found at 122 North 11th St., Richards' Block, where he will be pleased to meet his old trade and all parties who contemplate dealing in Sewing Machines.

The "Domestic" is the Star that Leads them All.
