Lincoln has a great many whist players, and of course progressive euchre has been established as a favorite social pastime. Cards are a necessity, but many a person has bewailed the absence of a card case and convenient counter. These are now supplied in a handsome novelty put on the market. It is in the shape of a small book with chased silver sides and back of plush. Instead of leaves there is a pack of cards held in place by a spring, and on the inside of each cover is a counter. This pretty and convenient novelty may be seen at Hallett's jewelry store on Eleventh street. In passing it may be noted that Mr. Hallett is constantly seeking novelties in his line of trade and is always glad to show them to visitors. Seekers of presents should remember this.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by A. L. Shader.

The loan collection of pictures which the Haydon Art club placed on exhibition in the Senate Chamber last Tuesday evening will be open every day from 3 to 6 and from 7:30 to 10 p. m. One of the members of the club will be in attendance each day to receive visitors and it is hoped all interested in the work of the great masters and the best illustrators of the present day will attend this exhibition.
