For 1890

Consider SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE when you are deciding upon your reading matter for next season. The subscription rate is low—$3.00 a year.

The standard of the Magazine is high. Its spirit progressive. The illustrations are interesting and of the best.

There is not space here to give even a summary of the features to appear next year, but among other things there will be a NEW DEPARTMENT and ADDITIONAL PAGES, and groups of illustrated articles will be devoted to the following subjects:

- African Exploration and Travel.
- Life on a Modern War Ship (3 articles).
- Homes in City, Suburb, and Country.
- Providing Homes through Building Associations.
- The Citizen's Rights.
- Electricity in the Household.
- Ericsson, the Inventor, by his Authorized Biographer.
- Hunting.
- Humorous Artists, American and Foreign.

There will be 3 serials. Robert Louis Stevenson will contribute in 1890.

Each subject, and there will be a great variety this year, will be treated by writers most competent to speak with authority and with interest. Readers who are interested are urged to send for a prospectus.

25 cents a number; $1.00 for 4 months.

Charles Scribner's Sons, 743 Broadway, New York.

To Owners of Fine Homes. The holiday issue of the COURIER will contain among a large number of art engravings a collection of about thirty of Lincoln's most elegant homes. The time intervening between now and the date of publication is limited, and so that none of our property owners having fine residences that they would like published in that issue shall be slighted, we request all such to leave information at this office not later than Dec. 5th. No orders for cuts will be received after that date, as there would be no time for engraving. If you want your home represented call at once.

Someones had a nobby window for Thanksgiving. It was a table set in the east window with four persons seated around it, the head of each being that of a turkey, but as large in size as that of a man. The work is a creditable showing of the skill of Harry Goss, the head salesman.

Those new tea kettles just received at H. J. Hall & Bro's, 1130 O street, will attract the attention of every lady. They are presented in brass, copper or nickel. See them in our show windows.

Ladies' Complexion Powder. Miss Johnston, the hair dresser, 1114 O street, has just received an invoice of the Felix Govine's face powder, of the "La Duchesse" make. This powder is a most delightful adjunct to the toilet and owing to its medicinal qualities is of great value in the cure of eruptions of pimples, blotches, moles, freckles, etc. It differs in effect from all other complexion powders, in that it does not produce a dry and parched appearance, but gives the face that soft and velvety look, so natural to youth and good health. It is prepared in three colors viz: flesh, white and brunette, and imparts a beautiful transparency that is free from anything that could possibly injure the skin. Samples cheerfully given to all ladies at Miss Johnston's hair dressing parlors.

Our Christmas Number. Every regular subscriber will be presented free with a copy of our handsome Christmas edition. It will be "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." If you are not a subscriber send in your name now and get that excellent number free. You can subscribe for three months (only 50 cents) and try the paper. Let us hear from you.

The autotypes on exhibition in the Senate chamber are reproductions from many of the greatest masters.

Nothing is more appropriate for a Christmas present for a married friend, than one of those fine carving sets. H. J. Hall & Bro. have a beautiful line of these, of unique design at prices that are very low.

Leavitt's Removal. Leavitt, the coal man, the man who first introduced "Leavitt's Domestic" (and which is now considered one of the finest kinds of its kind in the market), is moving his city office to 1133 O street and on and after Monday next will be found there ready to serve his patrons and the public with anything they may want in the coal and wood line. Remember the new place and call often, 1133 O street, first door west of Dennis' opera house hat store.

Ladies will find a complete line of the celebrated Gray Bros. ladies' fine shoes at J. Z. Briscoe, 1329 O street.

Compare the Century original drawings with the illustrations as they appear in the magazines, which the Haydon Art club has for inspection in the Senate chamber.

The noblest turnouts that are seen on our thoroughfares are from the Palace stables Telephone No. 435. Stables on M street opposite Masonic temple. Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by A. L. Shuder.

Pocket cutlery, in ivory, pearl and fancy wood handles, and the very best steel blades in large variety at H. J. Hall & Bro's, 1130 O street.

We sell a ladies' kid shoe every day for $1 such as other houses claim they have reduced to $1.50. We are satisfied with a small profit and therefore sell all kinds of boots and shoes at such prices that we cannot give a discount. Call and see us. J. Z. Briscoe, 1329 O street.

The loan collection of pictures which the Haydon Art club placed on exhibition in the Senate Chamber last Tuesday evening will be open every day from 2 to 6 and from 7:30 to 10 p. m. One of the members of the club will be in attendance each day to receive visitors and it is hoped all interested in the work of the great masters and the best illustrators of the present day will attend this exhibition.
