To the Public. Having changed the location of our city sick office from 115 South Tenth street to the more central one of 1123 O street, near Frank's opera house, we take this occasion to offer our thanks for the generous patronage the Northwestern Line, Elkhorn road, has received, and to solicit a continuance of the same in the future. As a matter worthy of attention the statement is made that, whereas, the first service on this line between Lincoln and Chicago consumed nearly 24 hours, several more than by competitive lines, the time is now 17 hours and 30 minutes, or fifteen minutes less than any other service. By our fast train, connections are made at Missouri Valley with the Northwestern's ves- tible limited, composed of Palace sleeping dining and reclining chair cars, also with the St. Paul limited for Sioux City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and the northwest. Sleeping car accommodations are reserved in advance for St. Paul and the northwest, Chicago and the east, when desired. A cordial invitation to call is extended to all who desire information concerning our line of railway, assured of its being cheerfully furnished. Geo. N. Foreman, Agent. A. B. Fielding, City Ticket Agt. 1123 O street.

The royal prizes were won by Miss Usher and Mr. Wechbach, the consolations by Miss Hammond and Mr. Hardy. Among the guests were Misses Josie Freeman, Josie Winger, Effie Leese, Bessie Moudonhall, Jennie Buncher, Louise Pound, Stella Kierker, Lottie Usher, Maggie Hallett, Maud Ham-mond, Sarah Schwab, Lena Law, Belle Man-ley, Naomi Weaver, White, Avery and An-d us, Mrs. Rodgers; Messrs. Brown, Winger, Scott, Woods, Will Bigger, Seybolt, Edmit-ton, Wechbach, Will Phillips, Joyce, Hallett, Hardy, John Phillips, Perry, Lamaster, Johnson, Shilling, Rodgers, Jo Bigger, Mc-Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond, John M. Thayer, jr., Miss Sadie Harris, and Miss Maggie Mullon went to Weeping Water Wednesday to attend the wedding of Miss Carrie Hard and Mr. J. F. Frank, a young business man of that place. The bride is the daughter of Capt. C. N. Baird, a sister of Mrs. A. S. Raymond, and formerly resided in Lincoln. Mrs. L. C. Richards is visiting at Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Richards are visiting in Chicago. A party of swell Omaha young men are only awaiting the word—and invitations—from a Lincoln friend to come down for the charity ball. The regents of the state university have re-fused to accept the resignation of J. S. Dalos as treasurer of the experiment station, and his salary will be readjusted. E. E. Munger has returned to Lincoln, hav-ing sold his interest in the Sidney Journal. He will leave soon to enter an eastern medi-cal college. D. E. Thompson, superintendent of the Northern division of the B. & M., has resign-ed to give his time wholly to his private busi-ness. Mrs. Senator Taggart of Hastings and Mrs. W. B. Wolcott and Mrs. Crissey of this city made a party for an Omaha trip Tuesday. D. D. Muir has resigned the cashiership of the First National bank and removed to Col-orado. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mr. and Mrs. George Bosselman left Ham-burg, Germany, last Sunday and may be in Lincoln next week. Several Lincoln young people are going to Beatrice Christmas to attend a ball given by Diana lodge, K. of P., whose membership comprises the society young men of that city. The G. A. R. fair this week was one of the most successful enterprises of the kind. The Calumet club had its regular party Thursday evening. Mrs. J. R. Sheiton is visiting in Topeka, where she will spend the holiday season. Miss Nowlin and Miss Alice Nowlin of St. John, New Brunswick, are visiting their sister, Mrs. C. L. Richards. The East Lincoln Social club was entertain-ed last evening by Mr. Stephens, corner of Q and Twenty-eighth streets. The next hop of the York club will be held Dec. 31. Several new dances will be intro-duced. Society has been very gay for the ladies of Lincoln during the past month on account of the unusual number of afternoon receptions, a perfect epidemic of them. Many of them have been marked by great elegance, making a social display that will not suffer by com-parison. Miss Louise Kingsley, the contralto in "The Messiah," has arrived and is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. L. Brace. The printing of the invitations for the char-ity ball has been delayed and they will not be out until next week. The Pleasant Hour club will dance next Thursday evening. T. P. Kennard has sufficiently recovered from his long illness to be able to be up and about the house. Mrs. A. C. Ziener will be "at home" to call-ers on New Year's Day, assisted by Miss Gruninger and Miss Ziener. Mrs. W. A. Preston has gone to visit her parents at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for the hol-idays, and will remain until the return of her husband from Salt Lake, whither he has gone to sell some of the Nebraska apples stored in Lincoln to catch the big advance in prices. Mr. John and Miss Bertha McBride gave a progressive high five party last night at their home, Knob Hill.

It is a pleasure to make Christmas presents, but oh! if only some method were invented to do the duty of making suitable selections. Of course that is out of the question, but the next best thing is to ask Hallett, the Eleventh street jeweler, to assist you. There is this ad-vantage about gold and silver ware: it is al-ways suitable and acceptable for presents, it offers articles for all kinds and conditions of persons and the range of pieces is such that any purse can be fitted. Mr. Hallett's long experience in the business has peculiarly qual-ified him to advise buyers, and he is always glad to show goods. Then, too, he is an hon-orable dealer in whom one can place implicit trust. Call on him and see if it is not so. The display now made in the windows of the Globe Clothing House is one of the most at-tractive ever seen in the city. Much taste and clever judgment has been exercised in the arrangement of both windows, particu-larly the east one, in which is a beautiful ar-ray of gentlemen's hosiery. The work is a credit to the Globe's head salesman, Mr. Y. A. Bostrom, and shows that gentleman to be an artist.
