SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

There has been some desultory talk by the Elks of a ladies' social session, but as yet it has not materialized. At a recent meeting of that kind in Milwaukee Postmaster Nowell made a witty speech that will be appreciated by everybody who has attended an Elk social session...

Looking Out for the Future. The other afternoon Willie came running home from school in a great hurry. Throwing his books in the closet he asked his mother if there was anything for him to do...

Put Yourself in His Place. The Terror (after a session with papa in the woodshed)—When you were a little boy were you had like me, papa?

Making a Note of It. First Post—What are you entering in that little book? An inspiration? A happy thought?

Plucking Victory from Defeat. Mother—Why, Johnnie! What on earth have you been doing? Johnnie—Fight'n. 'N' say, you owe me half a dollar on it. Know that tooth you was goin' to pay a feller to jerk?

Desk Room and Office. In our new counting room which is carpeted with body Brussels and otherwise handsomely furnished, we have built a neat railing, giving room for two offices, or desk room, which we will rent reasonably to the right parties.

To New York via Washington. Two elegantly equipped trains leave Chicago daily, via B. & O. R. R. for Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

What It Brought to Two Topeka People. On Tuesday, the 12th of November, the regular monthly drawing of the Louisiana State lottery occurred and it brought luck to two persons in this city...

Language is hardly strong enough to express my admiration of the medicine. It is the best remedy for cough and whooping cough I have ever used. During the past eighteen years I have tried nearly all the prominent cough medicines on the market, but say, with pleasure too, that Chamberlain's cough remedy is the best of all.

low. They had considerable property, which was heavily mortgaged, and being unable to clear it off lost it by foreclosure. It is today worth $80,000 though then it was held at only $10,000.

The other one-twentieth ticket was held by Dennis Northington, a colored man, engaged in delivering coal for the Green coal company. He is a hard working economical man and had been his one ambition to some day be able to buy a Kansas farm and leave the city for more peaceful life in the country.

ELIZABETH W. GREENWOOD.

Antoinette Van Hoesen Writes of the Famous "Woman Preacher."

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—My first meeting with Elizabeth W. Greenwood was a pleasant surprise. I knew that she was a woman of unusual erudition and deep piety, and my preconceived idea of her was very different from the fair, slender, radiant faced woman who, with quick, soft footsteps, came through a curtained doorway into the elegantly appointed drawing room to meet me.

Being possessed of a deeply spiritual nature, she was especially fond of ethics, metaphysics and philosophy, and with no particular aim, but only "for love of it," she took a thorough course in theology. She says, with the gentle directness which is one of her chief charms: "I never sought my work; the doors opened and I entered."

Although licensed to preach, she has never sought ordination. It was old Sojourner Truth who said, "What's de use o' makin' such a fuss about yer rights? Why dun ye jest go long an' take 'em?"

While perfectly gentle, unobtrusive and womanly, as a successful projector and organizer Miss Greenwood has proved herself the equal of any woman of the day. While she was superintendent of the department of scientific temperance instruction of the Women's Temperance Union, in the state of New York, she organized and concluded an effort which eventuated in the passage of the bill by the senate and assembly which provides that "physiology and hygiene, with especial reference to the effect of alcoholic drinks, stimulants and narcotics upon the human system," shall be taught in the public schools of the state of New York.

Miss Greenwood systematically arranged every county and township in the state, and by means of circulars and letters secured the signatures of 57,418 persons to a petition asking for the passage of this bill. She also wrote a personal letter to each of the senators and assemblymen.

But after all has been said of Miss Greenwood as an able scholar, a successful philanthropic worker and an eloquent preacher, it is pleasant to record that she is still a sweet and winsome woman.

The Portia club has been formed in Boston. It is composed of women lawyers and those engaged in the study of law. Boston University law school has now eight young women law students. Most of them expect to practice.
