SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The editor of the COURIER received a letter from Prof. Mahler of St. Louis during the week in which that thoroughly accomplished instructor of dancing and deportment speaks of his prospective visit to this city. Mr. Mahler has a number of flattering offers from as many prominent cities, but being well known here prefers to return to this city, but he must have assurances that a certain number will join his classes before he decides to come. Mr. Mahler needs no introduction, especially to our prominent citizens or social leaders. His gentlemanly ways, together with a complete knowledge of his profession, have won for him an enviable reputation in Lincoln, not only in a business light, but socially as well. He would arrive about the first of May and remain two months, but as above stated must first be guaranteed a certain number of scholars. Many have expressed a desire to join the classes, but have not signified the same to Mr. Mahler. In order to facilitate matters and wishing to have that gentleman and his interesting family with us again, the COURIER will receive the names of all desirous of becoming members of the class. Names should be sent in within three days, to the office, telephoned by No. 253 or sent per mail. This list will then be mailed to St. Louis and the result announced as soon as an answer can be received. If you are interested in dancing, now's the chance to learn from a master of the art—one who was veritably born a dancer. Instead of entertaining the East Lincoln social club at their homes Messrs. S. K. Hale, O. H. Frow, N. S. Baird, P. A. Hallett and G. O. Hale engaged Temple hall for Thursday evening and invited the Calumet and Comus clubs to join in the gayety. The result was one of the largest and jolliest parties of the season. The grand march was led by Mr. Fred and Miss Maggie Hallett, who introduced several new figures. The music, with Miss Willoughby at the piano, was excellent, and the prompting was the best the writer has heard in Lincoln. A third of the dances were quadrilles, and many new changes were introduced. The calling was so clear and distinct that no one had any difficulty in following the new changes, and the result was a pleasing variety. Miss Ellen Dristy, for a long time with Herpolsheimer & Co., is soon to leave for Europe, and on Friday evening of last week the proprietors and employees of that house made her a pleasant surprise visit at her home. The party comprised Messrs. and Mrs. James Herpolsheimer, Anderson and Boehm; Mesdames Shaw, Williamson, Redford, Fishback, Smithson; Misses Jennie and Mack Leathers, Pauline and Marie Hantck, Driehle, Gustava Ohstrum, Robertson, Louie and Laura McGrew, Redford, Blake, Maginnis, Lynn, Larson, McAllister of Grand Island; Messrs. Mohrenstecher, Thompson, Parmalee, Webb, Warnke, Hornelius, Stanley, Decker, Wybel, Gatchel, Robinson, Hallie and Chas. Ducker. Manager Gardner of the Lincoln Packing and Provision company, of West Lincoln, has decided to put a line of meats on the market for summer trade, and the article introduced is home made sausages. These are made of choicest meats, prepared by the most experienced sausage makers and will bear the closest inspection. Later on, smoked meats, hams, bacon, etc., will be put on the market. All butchers handle the Lincoln Packing Co.'s goods. They claim their meats are the best that can be had, and besides that, they are always fresh and received daily. Your butcher is not wide awake enough to handle these goods call up 487. Mrs. John Zehrung and son Frank have left Los Angeles on their way homeward, and they will make several stops and may not reach Lincoln before May 1st. They could not get along without the COURIER for home news, and have been sending for back numbers. Which reminds us: The COURIER will be mailed to any address, and the address can be changed as often as necessary by dropping the office a postal card. Lincoln people away from home may have the COURIER follow them, and they will never find a paper so interesting as when away from home. Each issue contains more news than a dozen letters. The COURIER will be mailed in this way at the regular price. The monthly reception of the First Congregational church was held Wednesday evening under the general direction of Mrs. W. Q. Bell, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Nesbitt, Miss Lona Gillespie and Miss Fanny Marley. Supper was followed by a program with sleep as its theme. Mrs. Will O. Jones gave a cradle song from Kjerulf, Mrs. A. W. Janssen sang the lullaby from "Ermelin", Miss Cochrane played a cradle song by Mason and Mrs. Mann sang a lullaby from Gotschalk. Quite a number of quotations were given, and five scenes from "The hanging of the crane" were presented. Cards are out for a double wedding at the First Baptist church at 7:45 next Tuesday evening. Miss Cora A., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Preston, will be married to Mr. Charles S. McKenney. Miss Carrie J., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. McKenney, will be married to Mr. Alva S. McKenney. The two bridegrooms are engaged in business in east Lincoln. Miss McKenney has been living at Spencer Brook, Minn. Three parties were given last evening that the COURIER cannot report because of going to press too early. Mrs. George H. Clark entertained the elder people at cards and Miss Gertrude Marquette entertained a large company of young folks likewise. Miss Florence Putnam, 501 South Twelfth street, celebrated her eleventh year with a party for her girl and boy friends. Line in division, Uniformed Rank, and Capital City lodge, Knights of Pythias, had the largest social of the series Thursday evening. The entertainment included cards, dancing, refreshments and drilling. The ladies of the uniformed rank, who are drilling for an entertainment on the 25th, marched in and were introduced by Captain Percival. J. W. Cutright, for the past year city editor of the OZ, has resigned to become Omaha correspondent of the Journal. George Smith, now filling the Omaha place, has become interested in a new periodical in that city and is also part owner of an advertising agency that has already built up a considerable business. John Dorgan and Lew Marshall have entered upon a contest whose intensity compels their anxious friends to hold their breath expectantly. They are to run a race in mustache growing for three months, and have up a five dollar forfeit. P. S.—Clarence Smith has joined in the issue and W. F. Meyer ought to. Quite a number of friends dropped in on Miss Nellie White Monday evening, and they organized an informal high five party. John Dorgan was set back six points once, but even then he won first honors. His success seemed to puzzle the rest of the company, but perhaps he kept the score. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Riggs returned Monday from their Kansas City visit. Mr. Riggs has not yet decided on his business plans for the future, but is considering propositions to go into wholesaling concerns already well established. It is to be hoped he will not leave Lincoln.

It seems that the COURIER was under a wrong impression in making the statement that the last party of the York club closed this season. The club's program calls for another hop, and arrangements are being made to have it the most memorable one of the series. Senator Frank Taggart of Hastings was in town Wednesday. Mrs. Taggart was seriously sick for two months, but is now convalescing, and the little daughter is the brightest and best girl in the state. Secretary of State Cowdry has received a letter from Boston announcing that Mrs. Elizabeth Wright of Somerville, Mass., aged twenty-five, would like to marry a western man who would support her. Mrs. Gruning, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Ziemer, has gone to Sioux City for a short visit, and will go thence to Cleveland for the summer. Otto Mohrenstecher, junior member of the firm of Herpolsheimer & Co., was handsomely surprised by his employees recently. They presented him an English stag horn umbrella and a box of cigars. Will Alloway, 1218 M., celebrated his fiftieth year Monday evening by entertaining a company of young people. Games, dancing and refreshments made a very happy affair of it. W. R. Dennis and family will soon remove to one of the new Barr houses on South Eleventh street. They are said to be among the most elegantly finished residences in the city. Mr. and Mrs. John Schmitt left Saturday for Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. S., by the way, has just made a deal in Denver real estate that has netted him a handsome profit. Mrs. Chancellor Bessey was called east Monday by the death of a sister, Miss Athern, at Cambridge, Mass. The deceased spent a winter in Lincoln several years ago. Major C. H. Buford returned last Friday from Kentucky and brought three thoroughbred horses, one each for J. E. Smith, C. T. Vandusen and E. P. Cagney. Miss Mary Lemist of Atchison, who made many friends while in Lincoln last summer, has been spending the week with Mrs. A. B. Coffroth. G. G. Beams and Wm. Lane have formed a partnership in the real estate and loan business. They will also handle grain in carload lots. Messrs. R. H. Oakley and C. E. Yates and their wives left Friday for Fort Leavenworth to spend Sunday with Lieut. and Mrs. Dudley. Edward K. Harris of Ord was in the city Saturday on his way to Las Vegas, N. M., to join his father-in-law, Fred Funke. H. H. Dean says he has had enough city council in his and Al Hargreaves stands a good chance of being his successor. It seems the profits of the Kirmess were even larger than at first reported. They grew from $1,250 to $1,312. Walt M. Seeley returned Tuesday from the Pacific coast. He has been appointed a special agent of the census bureau. A telegram from Las Vegas, New Mexico, on Thursday reported Mr. Fred Funke to be in a very critical condition. The Lincoln Dromios, Wing and Walsh, have taken up their summer residence in the Clark house, on H street. Lieut. Griffith has had one hand in the hospital. A maulage bottle broke in his hand and cut an ugly gash. Miss Maggie Dorrance, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Alf Shilling, has returned to her home at Carlton, Ill. Lincolinites may find the COURIER on sale in Omaha at Keith's newstand in the Boyd opera house block. W. E. Painter has been promoted to conductor, and went to Aurora Tuesday to take out his first train. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Camp are glorying in the possession of a new son, who arrived Thursday. The Elks will probably have a social for members after the regular meeting Monday evening. Miss Olive Latta will entertain the Heart Whole and Fancy Free High Five club this evening. Miss Esther Briggs, the guest of Miss Maud Buckman, has returned to her home at Freeport, Ill. Mrs. C. C. Valentine and her daughter Enid of Omaha are visiting Mrs. M. E. Wheeler. Dr. Charles Spahr left yesterday noon for a flying trip to Denver. He will be back Monday. W. R. Dennis left again for Kansas City on Wednesday, but will be back tomorrow. John Stire has been enjoying a visit from his brother, Capt. F. H. Stire of Lacon, Ill. The York club will hold its last party on April 11, and will make it a notable affair. Lawrence Heiskell, and H. C. Eddy will race with Judge Houston for police judge. Mr. and Mrs. Mason Gregg entertained the whist club Monday evening. A. B. Cherrier has been granted a divorce. H. C. Nutt has returned from the east. [Other Social News on Page 2.] Joe Semmons, a brother of the prominent clothier, is again a resident of the city, but, unfortunately for Lincoln, only temporarily so. George Semmons is east on a purchasing tour and during his absence about a month jovial Joseph presides as manager of the "Outfitters to Mankind" headquarters. After his brother's return, which will be next week, Joe goes to Beatrice to take charge of the new store. To our readers and friends in the city by the Blue we would have a word: Joe is an enterprising and sociable young man and the COURIER trusts his reception there will be a pleasant one. The many friends of Miss Tote McMurtry will be glad to know that letters received from Colorado springs report a steady improvement in her health. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boehmer entertained a company of friends very delightfully Tuesday evening. Cards were the feature of the evening. Mrs. F. A. Chapman has returned from Beloit, Wisconsin, where she was called by the sickness and death of her grandmother. The brakeman's brotherhood annual ball will be held at Temple hall Monday evening. The university boys are arranging for a hop at Temple hall next Friday evening. Hoarseness is the first symptom of croup. By giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as a child becomes hoarse, it will prevent the croup, which can always be done if the remedy is kept at hand. There is not the least danger in giving it. Sold by A. L. Shrader. Oysters are served at Brown's cafe in every style. Orders filled on short notice.

SPORTS. Lincoln has one lady bicyclist. Omaha has none. Miss Buranell of Buffalo, N. Y., covered 250 miles on a bicycle in 1889. The Omaha Wheel Club netted $300 from the recent tournament in the coliseum. H. H. Rhodes of Omaha claims the half-mile wheel championship for Nebraska. The Semmons lacrosse club are talking about changing their name. The proposition will be discussed at the meeting Monday night. S. L. Geithardt is publishing a manual to stir up interest in the state tennis association. A state tournament will be held at Kearney in June and at Omaha in September. J. D. McFarland, R. H. Henry and D. T. Mount were a committee of the late board of agriculture appointed to arrange a racing circuit with other state fair associations. The season of the players' baseball brotherhood will open April 21. A $20,000 prize fund will be distributed as follows: To the club winning the championship, $6,250; second place, $4,800; third place, $3,500; fourth place, $2,500; fifth place, $1,750; sixth place, $800; seventh, $450. An Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas speed circuit has been formed. But why should the state fairs of the states last named be yoked with such an insignificant place as Creston, Iowa. Entries will close June 2. The program in this city calls for races Sept. 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12. The Lincoln tennis club is arousing itself from its winter somnolence. The new officers are: S. L. Geithardt, president; F. L. Sheldon, vice president; C. A. Hanna, secretary and treasurer. These gentlemen, with W. E. Hafby and R. H. Townley compose the executive committee. The grounds will be put in condition soon. Hereafter, the dues, one dollar per month, will be paid in two six-dollar installments, one in April and the other in July. An increase in the taxes will make the rent of the ground this year nearly $150. The club will use over $125 worth of tennis goods in a season. It is probable there will be a club tournament in June. PEN, PAPER AND INK. The leading illustrated paper of the March number of the Magazine of American History is a wonderfully vivid picture of "Life in New York Fifty Years Ago" by the editor, whose genius in word-painting combined with exact knowledge of the theme produces brilliant results. The period reproduced opens with the completion of the Erie Canal, and glimpses are given, through the diary of an old New Yorker for twenty-five years, of characters and affairs, of inventions, politics and panics, of clubs, dinners, fancy balls and foreign visitors. Dickens was here, and being then regarded as the greatest living novelist, was feted and complimented beyond any other writer of his generation. The departments of the month are unusually full and valuable. The twenty-third volume of this unique periodical, now half issued, promises to eclipse in practical interest the whole series thus far. Price $5 a year. Published at 743 Broadway, New York, N. Y. In the April Cosmopolitan Miss Elizabeth Bisland will begin a series of illustrated articles describing her flight around the world. The Cosmopolitan, now one of the handsomest magazines published, and the COURIER can be had for $3 a year. Obituary. Isaac C. Wise of this city died at the home of his wife's parents in the city of Cincinnati, February 21st, of a complication of stomach troubles. Mr. Wise was born in Walnut Hill near Cincinnati, O., August 10th, 1854. He came to Lincoln in 1881 to enter the business house of his brother, David Wise, which was established here in 1875. He was a member of the order of Knights of Pythias, belonging to Lincoln lodge, No. 16, of this city, and the lodge has adopted a series of resolutions expressing a very high regard for the deceased. In May, 1884, Mr. Wise returned to his home in Cincinnati and took unto himself a wife in the person of a Miss Lowenstein. After a brief honeymoon they settled down to enjoy a life of blissful happiness in this city. Their first home was on Twelfth near K street, but they subsequently moved to a more commodious residence on K street, which was the home of the deceased at the time of his death. The first intimation of serious illness was discovered in June of last year, and after being treated by local physicians for a while without success it was decided to take the patient to his former home. In October he went to Cincinnati, but without getting permanent relief. He died at home, surrounded by his wife, parents and other relations, his mother holding his wrist when the pulse beat its last feeble stroke. The funeral service was conducted at the residence by the Rev. Dr. Wise, the last sad words at the grave were uttered by the Rev. Dr. Levi, and the body was interred in its final resting place in the Jewish cemetery of Cincinnati. At the time of his death the deceased was 35 years of age. He was considered well to do in the way of worldly possessions, and among others he was owner of the Gotham cigar and news business on Eleventh street. He was recognized as one of the staunch young business men of Lincoln and had a promising career before him. He had a large circle of friends, commanding the warmest regards of those with whom he became intimate, and his death is sincerely regretted by many in the Capital City, the home of his adoption. Teeth Treated and Filled. Dr. R. C. Trogden, Dentist, 228 South 11th street, over Elite Studio. Telephone 433. Appointments made by telephone. Gentlemen, Think of It! Now's your chance. Baker, the clothier, 1125 O street, is selling 30-cent collars for ten cents and cuffs worth 25 and 30 cents at 15c. These goods are guaranteed to be 20000 linen and 4 ply. All the latest styles in either turn down or standing collars. You need not see them to appreciate this bargain. Call and see. 1125 O street. Spider and Fly Puzzles. The sale that the great puzzle, Spider and the Fly, has had, has been wonderful. The first invoice has nearly been exhausted and we have had them but ten days, and there are but a dozen left. While in New York, we could get only two gross of them and had to await our turn for the balance. We have been notified that the balance of our invoice would be shipped next Monday. You ain't up with the times if you don't have a Spider and Fly puzzle. The new line of card cases just received at the COURIER office are worthy the inspection of the most fashionable callers. The line embraces genuine seal, oze calf, Russia leather and numerous others, including a number of beautiful imported novelties. We have them for both ladies and gentlemen. Ruth M. Wood, M. D., Conservatory Place, Thirteenth street, three doors south of L street. Fine watch repairing at Perry & Harris, 1221 O street.

WE ARE ALWAYS ON TOP. Just to make it interesting all around, we've been doing some smashing of prices, in fact we are so well pleased with our last week's efforts that we are trying it again for this. To illustrate our position we will call your attention to a colored child and little dog bent upon making a noise in some way. The story is short. There was a dash, a crash, and a smash, but the large party does not appear to have suffered any inconvenience unless it was that he was out a little furniture. We are always ready to come down whenever occasion demands it, even if we have to lose money by the drop, but you may always depend upon it that we are at the top of the heap. Don't fail to see our $14.00 suits. A. T. GRUETTER & CO., 1116-1118 N Street.
