SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The Atchison Globe of last Monday contains this item of general interest to Lincoln people: A notable society event of the season was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. R. Morrow on Saturday night, in the parlors of The Hyram, the occasion being their fortieth wedding anniversary. It was also the fifteenth anniversary of the wedding of their daughter, Mrs. E. K. Criley of Lincoln, who was present, as were also Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dilline of Fort Scott, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Morrow, George Morrow and Miss Helen Morrow. Mr. Criley was unavoidably absent, having been called to the bedside of a sick brother. The invitations included all the other people of Atchison, and many of the younger ones, and distinguished people from all portions of the state. Several hundred guests were present, and numerous congratulations were received from places in the state where Mr. and Mrs. Morrow formerly lived, or are well known. Mr. and Mrs. Morrow came to Kansas in territorial days, and are probably the best known couple in the state. In the early history of Kansas Mr. Morrow figured conspicuously in politics, and is remembered by pioneers with affection and esteem. Robert Morrow came to Kansas with the famous S. C. Pomeroy party, and was a banker at Lawrence when the famous Quantrell raid took place. Mr. and Mrs. Morrow were presented by their children with handsome and elaborately framed portraits of themselves. Mr. and Mrs. R. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. Dilline presented Mr. and Mrs. Criley with a handsome mirror. Mr. Morrow was also the recipient of a gold-headed cane from Mr. Criley. There was dancing and refreshments.

The Pleasant Hour Juniors gave an extra hop Wednesday evening that proved to be one of the jolliest of the year. It was not strictly a club affair, and Mr. Fred Houtz, as the moving spirit, invited in a number of outside young men. This brought a desirable addition to the usual company, and the unexpected accession of a number of out-of-town visitors gave the party an added dash of zest and variety. Among the company were Mr. and Mrs. Rector, Miss Minnie Hawke, Mr. McComas, Mr. Oteo Morton, and Miss Fannie Wilcox, all of Nebraska City, Mr. Rosder of Omaha, Miss Adams of Superior, Messrs. Hathaway, Houtz, Howe, Frank and Charles Burr, Wm. and Charles Clark, Meyer, Muir, Dorgan, Holden, Hall, Wheeler, Stors, St. John, Fitzgerald, Foreman, C. Y. Smith, Baker, Graham, and Irving Winger, Misses Minnie and Olive Latta, Maud and May Burr, Bertie and Grace Burr, Kittiedale Alice Cowdry, Anna Funke, Ziemer, Lillibridge, Hathaway, Brock, Montrose, Hawley, Marquette, Wilson, White and Baird. Among the spectators were Messrs. and Mesdames L. C. Burr, H. D. Hathaway, and Fred Kelley; Mesdames Buckstaff, Brock, Latta, R. H. Oakley; Messrs. Griffith, Snysner, Hammond, Bradley, Buckstaff, Langworthy, Hoover, and Anderson; Misses Oakley, Hooper, Hawley and Grace Oakley.

Miss Minnie Latta entertained a company of friends Thursday evening in honor of her friends, Mrs. W. S. Rector and Miss Minnie Hawke of Nebraska City. The personal and social graces which have won Miss Latta a warm and general esteem as ever a Lincoln lady enjoyed qualify her to be a most charming hostess, and Thursday's company were delightfully entertained. Progressive high five was the feature of the evening. The royal prizes were won by Mr. Pitzer and Miss Hawke, and the consolations fell to Mr. McComas and Miss Oakley. The company comprised Mrs. Rector and Miss Hawke; also Mr. McComas and Miss Fannie Wilcox of Nebraska City, Mrs. O. Jansen Colman of Omaha, Messrs. and Mesdames Beeson, Buckstaff, Sheldon, Leonard, Hargreaves, Pitzer, Hayden and McArthur; Messrs. McMurry, Magoon, Buckstaff, Lemist, St. John, Foreman, Hardy, Griffith, Polk and Richter; Misses Hathaway, Mullon, Hardy, Suddith and Oakley.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Weaver, 1821 F street, entertained the F Street club last Saturday evening very delightfully. A number of prominent society people outside of the regular members participated in the pleasure of the evening. Progressive euchre was the program. The following is a list of the invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hargreaves, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rudge, Mr. and Mrs. W. Garber, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Waldo, Mr. and Mrs. Montrose, Dr. and Mrs. Goodell.

Wing Allen of Omaha was in the city Tuesday and invited a number of the young men to a subscription ball that was given at the Paxton last night. The subscriptions were expected to reach $300, a number of prominent ladies consented to act as patronesses, an elaborate spread was ordered, and altogether the preparations were for an exceedingly swell affair. Some of the gentlemen went yesterday afternoon, and a number of ladies would have had they not had engagements for the Pleasant Hour hop. Mr. Allen, by the way, has a very fine position as secretary of the Omaha Coal exchange.

The home of Mrs. W. M. Leonard was the scene of another ladies' company Wednesday afternoon, and they whiled away the hours very pleasantly with an exciting game of progressive high five. Mrs. S. H. Burnham won the royal honors and Mrs. Ogden received the consolation prize. The company comprised: Mesdames Outcalt, Burnham, Little, Swan, Beeson, Sheldon, Buckstaff, Hargreaves, Funke, C. C. Burr, L. C. Burr, Maxwell, Rector of Nebraska City, Ogden, Baird; Misses M. Latta, Hawke of Nebraska City, Burr, Funke, Oakley, Burr, Funke, Stobbs, Walsh, Harris, Becker, O. Latta, Suddith.

Misses Helen and Lydia Mullon gave a jolly progressive high five party Monday evening. The royal prizes were won by Mr. Richter and Miss Treeman. The consolations fell to Mr. Buckstaff and Miss Latta. Of the company were Misses Latta, Oakley, Baird, Hathaway, Griffith, Hooper, Marquette, Fisherick, Lillibridge, Treeman, Maud and Bertie Burr; Messrs. Griffith, Richter, Hathaway, Fisherick, Buckstaff, Mohrenstecher, Cameron, Lowe, Waite, Foreman, Smith, Spahr, Thayer, Edmiston and Charles Burr.

Master Allie Sanders gave a progressive high five party at home on the corner of Fourteenth and B streets Tuesday evening. Cards kept the young people merrily engaged until a late hour when elegant refreshments were served. Miss Nellie Lau and Mr. Will Tyler carried off first honors. Those present were Misses Nellie and Anna Lau, Daisy Cochrane, Maud Tyler, Jessie Leland and Grace Sanders. Masters Mark Buford, Frank Sanders, Will Tyler, Fred White and Stafford Hewitt.

The photographs of prominent actors and actresses shown and for sale at the COURIER counting rooms are the finest productions of the art. The work is that of Falk, the celebrated Union Square artist of New York, and the collection includes such subjects as Lillian Russell, Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett, Helene Modjeska, Marie Jansen, Lily Langtry, James Brown Potter, Joseph Jefferson, W. J. Florence, and over a hundred others, either in stage costume or street attire.

Mr. Charles H. Warner and Miss Bessie Mendenhall were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Curtis before a small company. The groom holds a position in the office of the chief engineer of the B. & M. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mendenhall. They have taken up their residence in a cozy home at Q and Twenty-fifth streets, and will receive their friends after May 1st.

Dr. Robert E. Giffen and Miss Fannie Reed were married Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Curtis at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank M. Hall. It was a quiet home wedding celebrated in the presence of a few relatives. After the ceremony the newly married couple went to the doctor's home. The groom has a large circle of well-wishing friends, and those who know the bride admire her as a bright and estimable lady.

Ed Cerf and bride arrived in the city Wednesday from New York and are now at home at the Windsor hotel. The marriage was quietly consummated in the great metropolis last Saturday. Mrs. Cerf is not an entire stranger in the west, having visited in Lincoln on several occasions and formerly resided in St. Joseph. THE COURIER joins the host of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cerf in best wishes for a bright future.

Mrs. Longshore-Potts, the Philadelphia Quakeress doctor and lecturer, is a charming little woman without a hint of manliness. Her dark eyes gleam benignantly behind gold-bowed spectacles, while her intelligent face is surrounded by short brown curly hair plentifully sprinkled with gray. She will lecture at Temple hall all next week, and many will doubtless come to make her acquaintance during her stay.

Mr. J. M. Buford of Memphis, and Miss Fern Peterson of this city were married at the bride's home Wednesday evening. The groom is a son of Major and Mrs. C. H. Buford, but has been living in Tennessee for nearly two years. The bride was handsomely remembered with gifts. The happy couple took the night train for their Memphis home.

R. S. McIntosh has just been honored with an invitation to become a non-resident member of the New York Jockey club, one of Gotham's noted horse associations. The initiation fee is waived, and all the privileges of the race course and the new club house are tendered in an elegantly engraved letter.

Mr. Charles Hurl and Miss Mabelle Hendricks were married Monday evening at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Cecil. Miss Hendricks is the accommodating office clerk at the Lincoln steam laundry. Mr. Hurl is a clever tonorial artist at the Commercial parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Herschler, who have been visiting the latter's parents at Burlington, are expected home today. They were present at the marriage of Miss Ada Eisfield (a sister of Mrs. Herschler) to Mr. I. Strause, which occurred Wednesday evening.

Asa H. Pace has gone to take a place as advertising solicitor on the Helena, Mont., Journal. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pace, gave a company for him Wednesday evening and entertained about twenty-five of his friends.

The Pleasant Hour club held its post-Lenten party last night. THE COURIER goes to press too early to report it, but the club represents Lincoln's most exclusive circles, and its dances are always fine affairs.

Miss Latta entertained Mr. and Mrs. Rector and Miss Hawke of Nebraska City while in the city. The visitors went to Omaha yesterday to attend the party at the Paxton last night.

It was rumored yesterday that negotiations were in between Herpolsheimer & Co. and A. D. Kitchen & Co. for a large building to be erected for the former on O street near Fifteenth.

SHORT-HAND IN TEN LESSONS.

In two weeks the COURIER will begin the series of short-hand lessons which for the past three weeks have been announced in these columns. The course was projected and perfected by Professor Eldon Moran, of St. Louis, Mo., who was stenographer in Judge Garrison's court, reporter for President Hiram, and is both editor and publisher of a text book on short-hand which is unequalled by any publication extant.

The course of study will consist of ten lessons, in which the Pitman system will be taught in a crisp practical manner. It will be presented so plainly that it can be acquired with ease by the patient and persevering student.

In connection with this course THE COURIER has effected arrangements by which any student who desires to have the additional benefit of direct personal instruction upon each lesson in the course may do so by the payment of a tuition fee of two dollars. The exercises will be corrected by Mr. Bert E. Betts of this city, to whom all communications in regard to the matter should be addressed. This will be of great value and with additional helps which will be brought forward during the period of instruction in the way of lesson helps, circulators, introduction, cards, etc., will afford an opportunity for securing, for the nominal sum of two dollars, instruction which in the ordinary course of instruction would cost at least fifteen dollars.

The membership of the COURIER class in short-hand, which will receive personal correction of their exercises by Mr. Betts, will be limited to fifty and as a large number of names have already been received, we would request those who desire their exercises corrected to send their address to Mr. Betts in order that the list may be closed as early as possible.

Short-Hand. Every reader of the COURIER who has any interest whatever in the above subject should send his address at once and important information will be given. Address Short-Hand, care COURIER, Lincoln, Neb.

Spider and Fly Puzzles. The sale that the great puzzle, Spider and the Fly, has had, has been wonderful. The first invoice has nearly been exhausted and we have had them but ten days, and there are but a dozen left. While in New York, we could get only two gross of them and had to await our turn for the balance. We have been notified that the balance of our invoice would be shipped next Monday. You ain't up with the times if you don't have a Spider and Fly puzzle.
