SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Pitcher gave an elegant dancing party Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. O. Jansen Collman of Omaha, who had recently returned from a visit with Mrs. Collman's parents, Senator and Mrs. Paddock at Washington. The guests were welcomed in the reception room, in which pleasant ceremony Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kennard and Hon. Thomas P. Kennard assisted. The house was prettily decorated with roses, amylax and plants. The grates were banked with roses against a background of green, and the curtains were ornamented with roses. The music was stationed in an alcove of the dining room. The Pitcher home is splendidly adapted for dancing, the four large rooms on the first floor opening into each other with double doors. The furniture had been removed and the floor canvassed. By going through the wide hall the dancers were enabled to make a circuit of the rooms without the usual jostling in small apartments. A program of sixteen dances, mostly round, but wings to the hours. Ice was served in the intervals, and a delicious accompaniment was the Apollinaris lemonade served by a colored attendant from a huge, well-filled punch bowl. The billiard room on the second floor was utilized as a dining room, and a dainty luncheon was spread, of which the guests partook at their convenience and desire. A center piece of roses was a feature of the table decoration. The other rooms were thrown open for promenading, cards, etc. The company was one made congenial by long and intimate acquaintance, the hospitality of the hosts was of the most cordial and gracious kind, the appointments were complete and elegant and the guests had an evening of rare enjoyment. The invited guests were Messrs. and Mesdames C. D. Lippincott, McArthur, Foster, Buckstaff, Ogden, Dennis, Beson, W. C. Davis, C. A. Keith, Riggs, Hayden and A. E. Kennard; Messrs. Lillibridge, Newman, Burgess, Walsh, McClintock of Omaha, Hawke of Nebraska City, Latta, Olive Latta, Fritz, Fritza, Barnard of Omaha, Anna Hawkins, Lana Dunly of Omaha, Clara Funke, Leonis, Barr, Hardy, Suddith, Oakley, Baird, Sterling, Davis, Anna Funke, and Eva Kennard of Omaha; Messrs. J. D. Wright, Mohrensteeher, H. J. Hall, Polk, Buckstaff, Griffith, Hardy, Richter, W. E. Clark, Cooper, C. H. Clark, Nissley, Lemist, H. B. Newman of New York, Oscar Funke, Zehrung, Magoon, A. B. Smith of Omaha, Law, David Baum of Omaha, Frank Smith of Alliance, H. C. Nutt of Alliance, and T. P. Kennard.

Miss Ella Smith, the amiable registrar at the State University, invited the seniors to a jack wax sociable at her home (Fourteenth and V streets) last Monday evening. The novelty of the entertainment and the excellent candy made it a most enjoyable occasion. The following were present: Misses Gertrude Laws, Anna Chikle, Edith Mocket, Jessie Wolfe, Dena Leonis, Rachel Manley, Nellie Scott, Nellie Cochrane, Ethel Marsland, Mrs. Merst and Misses Brace and Collins; Messrs. E. E. Gillespie, L. S. Storrs, T. H. Marsland, Hugh Lamaster, H. K. Hefeman, F. F. Almy, C. S. Ansley, F. G. Taylor, Will Maret, S. C. Langworthy, G. H. Finkler, F. H. Woods, H. B. Duncanson, Geo. O. Hear, A. J. McClatchee. Mr. Piny S. Chapman and Miss Julia Fuller Wilson were married at ten o'clock Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hewitt, assisted by Rev. O. A. Williams, at the home of the bride's parents. The groom is an employee of the First National bank, and his colleagues in that institution evidenced their esteem by presenting a handsome dining room set of furniture. The newly married couple took the noon train to visit Mr. Chapman's parents at Gibbon, Neb. They will be at home after May 1 in a cozy home at Twenty-ninth and Starr streets. The friends of both bride and groom unite in wishing them every happiness.

The photographs of prominent actors and actresses shown and for sale at the COURIER counting rooms are the finest productions of the art. The work is that of Falk, the celebrated Union Square artist of New York, and the collection includes such subjects as Lillian Russell, Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett, Helene Modjeska, Marie Jansen, Lily Langtry, James Brown Potter, Joseph Jefferson, W. J. Florence, and over a hundred others, either in stage costume or street attire. Dr. J. M. Lucas and Miss Lura Rich were quietly married at ten o'clock last Sunday morning. The ceremony was performed at the Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Curtis. Half an hour later the newly married couple took the Missouri Pacific for St. Louis, and their wedding journey will carry them to Chicago. They will be at home after May 1 at 1620 P street. Dr. and Mrs. Lucas have many friends, who unite in wishing them all joys and blessings possible. The young friends of Master Guy Guthrie attended a surprise party Thursday at his home, 2037 K street, and helped him celebrate his fourteenth year. The participants were Misses Grace and Gertrude Bongardner, Winnie Fowler, Bertha DuTeil, Allie Lederos, Myrtle Jaws, Hattie J. Bomgardner, Josie Hoyt, Masters Francis and Henry Burleigh, Charley Hoyt, Harry and Frank Dean, John Marquet, Henry Tucker, Fred Phillips, Morris Fox and Oscar Lederos. The annual meeting of the old settlers' association will be held May 10, at Bohanan's hall. It will elect officers and fix a time and place for the next picnic. The association has about 1800 members, but it wants all it can get. Any one who has lived in Lancaster county fourteen years is eligible. Names may be left with Major Bohanan, who will see that they are properly presented and voted on. Mrs. S. H. Burnham entertained a company of friends very pleasantly Wednesday evening, with high five to while away the hours and provoke chat and chaff. The company comprised Messrs. and Mesdames I. M. Raymond, C. C. Burr, A. D. Burr, R. C. Outcalt, A. C. Ziemer, Carl Funke, W. B. Hargreaves, S. W. Burnham, Appelget, A. Watkins, J. Swan, E. P. Holmes, L. Heiskell and J. Doolittle. An informal tennis company have laid out a court at the residence of the Misses Smith, Seventeenth and B streets, and are enjoying the sport almost daily. In addition to the Misses Smith the company includes Misses Gertrude and Carola Hill, Miss Maud Smith, Messrs. J. E. Ferris, E. N. Lowe, Fritz Westerman, James Pollock and Mr. Howie. H. R. Persinger, editor of the Des Moines Mail and Times, was in the city Monday on his way to visit a banker brother at Central City. Mr. Persinger is the founder of society journalism in the west and is one of the best known men in Iowa. His papers and his work have been models for a great many imitators. Miss Bertha Avery entertained a few friends Tuesday evening informally but pleasantly. High five and other games were the features. The guests were Messrs. Mark Woods, Fred Gadd, Floyd Seybolt, Graham, Misses Cora Weaver, Maud Scott, Jennie Morgan and Ella Brindley. Miss Maud Burr entertained a few friends informally Tuesday evening; Messrs. Baker, Bradley, Langworthy, Hammond, Graham, Wheeler, Hathaway, and Muir; Misses Nellie Baum of Omaha, Fanny Wilcox of Nebraska City, Hathaway, Burr, Wilson, Alice and Kittie Cowdry.

H. & M. Changes.

The Burlington's new card, which takes effect at six o'clock p. m. tomorrow, makes several changes in time of trains in and out of Lincoln. The most important is the "Flyer," which arrives from the east at 4:45 a. m., and leaves at 5 a. m., making a daylight run to Denver, reaching there at 6:30 p. m., and making the best time ever attained between Chicago and Denver. The "Flyer" east bound reaches Lincoln at 2:15 p. m. and departs at 2:40. The "Flyers" carry the celebrated Burlington dining cars. No. 5 arrives from the east at 11:55 a. m. and takes the place of present No. 1 westward. No. 5 arrives at 8:25, twenty minutes earlier than at present, leaving at 8:55. No. 72 for Atchison, St. Joe, Kansas City and St. Louis leaves at 2:30 p. m. No. 82 for Nebraska City leaves at 2:25 p. m. The Wymore passenger leaves at 8:30 p. m. and arrives 2:15 p. m. The Concordia passenger leaves at 12:35 p. m., and arrives at 4:15 p. m. The time of other trains remains about as at present.
