When you use engraved cards or invitations, you have the finest work of the kind that can be produced. Even her royal highness, Queen Victoria, uses just such engraved cards as are sold at the COURIER office, but instead of Lincolnites paying $3.50 to $5.00 per hundred for them, which is the price in London, New York and Chicago, they pay but $2.50 per hundred. And this price does not change the quality of material or workmanship, for in the large cities you pay for style, while in Lincoln in order to create a demand we must get down close to cost prices. Call and see our work.

The nuptials of Mr. Samuel Wessel and Miss Pauline Friend were celebrated with great splendor at the Masonic Temple Thursday evening. The wedding service was conducted by Rabbi Berkowitz of Kansas City in the presence of a brilliant company numbering two hundred persons. The ceremony took place in the lodge room, which had been prettily decorated with cut flowers, an lax and plants.

The school teachers are about to scatter for the summer. Miss Florence Jones of the high school will return to Crete, Mrs. Emma Edwards will do institute work through the state. Mrs. King will visit her home in Iowa.

The pupils of Mr. Jacob Mahler gave a dancing party Monday evening to mark the close of the season. Each pupil was allowed to invite one friend, and the result was a large company of interested spectators from the best families in the city.

The graduating class of the State University introduced several new features this year, and the last act was a "promenade" at the state house. The members of the class of '90 and a few favored friends enjoyed a very pleasant evening before saying the words that would part many of them forever.
