POPULATION OF LINCOLN, 65,000.

The city of Lincoln has just made a contract with S. A. Kenn & Co. of Chicago, whereby the latter agree to sell paving bonds aggregating $85,000 at par, receiving $330 as their commission. The bonds of Lincoln ought to be placed for the premium they would bring.

The ever glorious will be celebrated at Nebraska City in the good old fashioned style. There will be speeches by Major A. R. Anderson of Iowa, S. B. Pound of this city, and M. V. Gannon. The program includes a balloon ascension with a parachute leap and a long list of other customary events.

The regents of the State university have decided to ask the next legislature for $100,000 for a fire proof library. The university's library is now scattered through several buildings for want of a suitable place to keep it. The institution needs a building not merely for storing the books but with rooms and conveniences for study.

UNTIL within a few days there was much doubt about Senator Raymond's being a candidate for re-nomination, but he is now making an active canvass. The senator was a prominent member of the last legislature, and he had a vigilant eye for the interests of Lincoln and of Lancaster county. R. H. Oakley is also in the field for the Republic; can nomination and would make a good member.

The city has given the North Lincoln street railway the right to operate its lines through the city by electricity from overhead wires. The council has adopted a resolution instructing the police committee to secure from the police records the names of all owners of property who are renting their premises to lewd women and that this committee in turn deliver this list to the city attorney with instructions to bring actions against said owners according to law.

The educational work being done by the Chautauquans cannot be measured, but must be great. For example here is a partial list of the noted men and women engaged for the Crete assembly: Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, Dr. J. L. Huriburt, Dr. J. T. Duryea, Prof. Frank Beard, Dr. H. B. Palmer, Dr. J. C. Price, Miss Frances E. Willard, Mrs. M. G. Kennedy, Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus, Dr. John DeWitt Miller, Prof. J. C. Freeman, Dr. A. E. Wainship and Ex-Governor Will Comback. J. H. Vincent and General Clinton B. Fisk are also expected.

In answer to a magazine writer who had offered him a large price for a poem James Whitcomb Riley recently wrote: "I'd like to engage to write such a poem as you outline could I see a clear way to its conception. Like engagements, 'old, old centuries' old,' are slowly making me honest enough with later patrons to tell them frankly that my soundest promises won't hold shucks! I mean well but seem helplessly perverse in the righteous fulfillment of all orders. By this you are most justly to infer that my poetry, however poor, is better than my word. The verse must go, therefore, as I turn it loose—first come, first served, with great liberal landscapes of allowances."

SOME time ago the COURIER made mention of several women who are doing regular newspaper work on the Omaha papers. Among them was Mrs. Ella Peattie of the World-Herald. She has been writing a Chicago friend, and a part of her letter has strayed into the newspapers. Here is an interesting extract: "I am no longer a common reporter. I sit in the editorial chair and write about everything, from the Oklahoma bill down to the local political steals. Then when big, blustering men puff up our three flights of rinky stairs and thunder 'Who wrote that piece in this morning's paper?' I answer, smilingly, 'I did.' John L. Sullivan himself could not end the matter quicker. What are they to do with a woman that weighs only ninety-five pounds and smiles like an angel? Nothing, obviously."

THE business men and bankers of the state are being rallied into a strong organization to oppose prohibition. A meeting was held in this city Monday and elected the following officers: President, Guy C. Barton, of the Omaha & Grant Smelting works; secretary, Ex-Secretary of State E. P. Roggen, of Lincoln; vice presidents, Colonel W. L. Wilson, Nebraska City, for Otoe county; S. C. Smith, president First National bank of Beatrice, for Gage county; Hon. John Sherwin, Fremont, for Dodge county; C. H. Dietrich, president German National bank, Hastings, for Adams county; John D. Moore, Grand Island, for Hall county; W. A. Downing, Kearney, for Buffalo county; John Brodt, North Platte, for Lincoln county; Chauncey Witte, Fullerton, for Nance county; K. P. Mathieson, Blair, for Washington county.

SPORTING.

The Calumet lacrosse club of Chicago are expected to play in Lincoln July 4. The Des Moines, Kearney and Omaha clubs are expected during the season.

Wednesday's base ball game between Lincoln and Ulysses, was a remarkable one. Fourteen innings were played and the score was 4 to 3 in favor of Lincoln. Castone, the home pitcher, struck out seventeen men and but five hits were made off his delivery. Our Giants are hummers.

In the State Tennis tournament at Kearney, W. E. Davidson, of Kearney, won the men's championship, and Miss Doolittle, of that city, won the ladies' championship. S. Y. Osborn, of Kearney, was elected president of the association, and P. L. Johnson, of Hastings, vice-president.

Lawn tennis has hitherto been the only leading sport not represented by a publication devoted exclusively to its interests. But at a recent meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis association the publishers of Outing—the illustrated magazine of out-door sport and recreation—were authorized to publish a weekly supplement devoted exclusively to lawn tennis and to officially represent the association. The initial number is at hand. It is called "Outing Weekly Tennis Record" and is a handsome affair typographically, its sixteen pages being patterned after the shape and size of Outing, to which it may be bound with perfect ease. The "Record" reports Lawn Tennis in a full and pleasant manner, the matter covering the movement, play and player all over the country. The contents will include letters from England, Ireland and the leading tennis centers of America. The first number contains, among other things, reports from all the clubs, private games, and tournaments, several special articles and a bright editorial department called the "Editor's Court." There also appears in the first number an illustration showing style of tennis dress, a full page picture of the tennis court of the Berkeley Oval and portraits of J. S. Clark, the president of the U. S. N. L. T. A., and A. H. S. Post, the southern champion. The subscription price of the Tennis Record is $1.00 per year, or 50 cents for six months. The subscribers to Outing receive each number of the "Record" free.

This Summer

Is the time to visit the famous Shenandoah Valley, Va. This valley is not only full of historical reminiscences, but is one of the finest agricultural, fruit-growing and dairying countries in the world. Here is the place for the farmer, the manufacturer, the dairyman and the stock raiser. The hills are full of high grade iron ore and coal, and the valleys abundantly productive. The climate is a golden mean, pleasant in summer and delightful in winter. The water is abundant in quantity and pure in quality. Lands are cheap, contiguous to market and can be secured by homeseekers on the most favorable terms. Come and look over this region, so favored by nature, while the growing crops and grass demonstrate the fertility of the soil and the geniality of the climate. If you wish to make an investment that will never think of except with unalloyed pleasure, or to secure a home that will be the delight of yourself and family, don't let this opportunity pass unimproved. This is not the veritable garden of Eden, but is one of the best regions to be found in the best country in the world. For further and more definite information, call on or address

Sells Brothers' and Barretts' Recent Consolidation.

During the amusement vacation last winter the two largest and most important itinerant exhibitions of America—what may say of the world—by a bold and politic master of their respective managements, effected a consolidation that in point of magnitude and in extent and diversity of attractive features never has had a parallel. This season, consequently, the plants of the Sells Brothers and of S. H. Barrett are on the road exhibiting in vast and unprecedented union, and causing most of it not all coteremporaneous traveling shows to stand appalled at this new and formidable Goliath of the equestrian, zoological and hippodromic world. This formidable coalition is to exhibit here on the date announced in our advertising columns, and amusement patrons may anticipate the delectation of witnessing the largest, the most interesting and the best tented entertainment ever projected or perfected. The Sells Brothers announce their exhibitions in this city Wednesday, June 25th. Show grounds on Q street between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-seventh.

The History of the Past Teaches The Future.

Here are the returns of the 240th grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana state lottery which occurred at New Orleans, La., on May 13th, 1890. Ticket No. 45,350 drew the first capital prize of $300,000. It was sold in twentieths at $1 each. Tax were collected through the Tacoma National Bank, Tacoma, Wash.; one through the First National Bank Concord, N. H.; one through Farmers' and Traders' Bank, Owensboro, Ky.; one through First National Bank, Jackson, Tenn.; one held by Albert Cobb, Boston, Mass.; one by Mrs. Ellen M. Foote, Danbury, Conn.; one by John Kilgallon, 2041 Firth street, Philadelphia, Pa.; one by W. H. Schuebel, 520 Jefferson street, Philadelphia, Pa.; one by Wm. Waldorf, 405 N. Gay street, Baltimore, Md., etc. Ticket No. 39,825 drew the second capital prize of $100,000 sold as a whole to Alfred A. Marcus, 127 Dartmouth street, Boston, Mass., and was collected through the Central National Bank there. Ticket No. 35,287 drew the third capital prize of $50,000, sold in twentieths at $1 each. One to Lewis and Gurry, Pawtucket, R. I.; another collected through Kidder, Peabody & Co., Boston, Mass.; one to S. Markendorff, 357 Eighth Avenue, New York; one to B. H. Davis, 41 Maiden Lane, New York; one to Gaston & Gaston, Dallas, Texas; one to Jacob Reht, 683 Broadway, New York; one collected through North Texas National bank, Dallas, Texas; one to J. Blenderman, 100 West street,

New York; etc. Ticket No. 62,647 drew the fourth capital prize of $25,000 and was sold to parties in New Orleans, New York, Grand Rapids, Michigan; Galveston, Texas, and Montreal, Canada. This company's present charter does not expire until January 1, 1895, and the only question now under consideration is—shall the present charter which expires in 1895 by limitation be extended for another term of 25 years? The 242nd grand monthly drawing will take place on Tuesday, July 15, and all information will be furnished on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

The Chicago & Atlantic Railway's Limited

Travel on the Chicago & Atlantic has greatly increased of late and the merits of this great line have been so well appreciated by through travel between Chicago and the east that it has been found necessary to restrict passengers of second class travel from using the Limited Vestibule train and hereafter none but first class tickets will be good on that train.
