The engagement between a well known young man and a young lady not now in the city has been declared off by the latter. The probability is that if you try to guess the parties to this affair you will make a mistake; first, because this engagement was not known to everybody, and second, because there are several young ladies now out of town who are known to hold that interesting relation to Lincoln gentlemen. It is not fair to these ladies to mention their names, and therefore you had better do your guessing in your mind or in the secrecy of your own chamber.

Of the several Fourth of July picnic parties probably none was jollier than that which drove out to Woodland. It was composed of Messrs. Robt. Muir, F. W. Meyer, Frank Hathaway, John T. An old soldier's story: In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteer company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found one that would give me relief I would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy was brought to my notice. I use it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly A. E. Bending, Halsey, Ore. For sale by A. L. Shader.

SUMMER TOUR. Important Points and Suggestions. I am now supplied with a full line of finely illustrated pamphlets descriptive of the leading summer resorts of our country and can offer manner valuable suggestions to those contemplating a trip during the heated spell. Special attention is called to the celebrated fishing resorts of northern Michigan and the upper lake region, the charming and diversified scenery of the Alleghenies and the beautiful Lehigh valley, the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence, the quiet haunts of the Adirondacks the surf bathing of the Jersey coast, the health giving resorts of the grand old "Rockies," the Hot Springs of Dakota, with their attendant stage rides over superb mountain roads and amid scenes of indescribable grandeur, the boating and fishing of Spirit lake and Minnetonka, and to Saratoga, the queen of the fashionable resorts.

Inquiries concerning the above, either personal or by letter, will receive prompt and courteous attention. A. C. Ziemer, C. P. & T. A. He Got His $15,000. Mr. Wm. H. Shupe, the gentleman who recently won $15,000 in the drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery company, received the money last Saturday. Mr. Shupe stated that the lottery company was very prompt in sending the money and looked after the transportation with as keen an interest as he would himself, for all of which he feels thankful. He held the one-twentieth of ticket No. 21,203, which drew the first capital prize of $300,000—Adelphi, (Ohio) News, May 16.

Selling Books by subscription. The method of selling books by subscription has many advantages over any other, and is daily growing in importance and popularity. By this method the attention of the purchaser is called to valuable books of which he might remain in entire ignorance if they were sold in any other way. It is the most direct and altogether the most economical way to buy books. Books purchased at a retail book store have generally passed through the hands of from two to four middlemen, each of whom must have a profit. The Riverside Publishing Co., St. Louis, Mo., offers profitable employment to all who wish to engage in the business. Experience is not necessary, but any lady or gentleman with intelligence and industry can make a success of the work. Their publications are first class, just such books as our young people and our older people should read. Books that tend to make intelligent men and women; books that teach people things that they ought to know, such books as a splendid Family Bible, which is in itself a perfect cyclopedia of biblical knowledge. Ridpath's History of the United States is another splendid book; a sale of over 100,000 copies speaks loudly in favor of its great worth. The People's Cyclopedia of Universal Knowledge is another work that has carried its way to a wonderful success; 100,000 copies of this splendid cyclopedia, made and edited especially for the masses, have been sold, and the sale is still very large. They also handle the Red Letter Life of the Republic Stanley Explorations in Africa. The Pioneer History of America; People's Farm and Stock Cyclopaedia; The Physical Life of Both Sexes; Courtship, Love and Wedlock, and History of the Grand Army of the Republic. Another splendid book, averaging at fifteen hundred sets a month, is Ridpath's Cyclopaedia of Universal History, a book that is bound to be read by tens of thousands of scholars, and by those who lay no claim to scholarship, and who yet love a clear, straightforward, understandable record of the great events of the world's history. The popularity of this book is something wonderful. For further particulars, circulars, terms to agents, etc., address, The Riverside Publishing Co., 702 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. 9-10-3m

Garfield Beach on Great Salt Lake, Utah. The famous health and pleasure resort, Garfield Beach, on Great Salt Lake, Utah, 18 miles from Salt Lake City, and reached only by the Union Pacific "The Overland Route," is now open for the season. This is the only real sand beach on Great Salt Lake, and is one of the finest bathing and pleasure resorts in the west. Great Salt Lake is not a sullen, listless, sheet of water, beating idly on the shore, but on the contrary is as beautiful a sheet of water as can be found anywhere. It is 21 per cent. salt water and the ocean is only 3 per cent. and the water is so buoyant that a person is sustained on its surface indefinitely without the least effort on his part. Experience has proven its great hygienic effects. Owing to the stimulating effect of the brine on the skin, or the saline air upon the lungs the appetite is stimulated, and after a bath, the bathers are ready for a hearty meal, and feel greatly invigorated. Fine bath houses accommodating 400 people, have been erected at Garfield Beach, in connection with which there is a first class restaurant and a large dancing pavilion built out over the lake, all of these are run by the Union Pacific, who guarantee a first class resort in every respect. The Union Pacific has made low rates of fare for those desiring to visit Salt Lake City and Garfield Beach. For complete description of Garfield Beach and Great Salt Lake, send to E. L. Lemax, Gen'l Pass Agent, Omaha, for copies of "Sights and Scenes in Utah," or "A Glimpse of Great Salt Lake," or E. B. SLOSSON, Agent U. P. System, Lincoln, Neb. 6-7-St

Burlington Route—Still Another New Fast Train. The B. & M., keenly alive to the wants of the traveling public, have placed in service a new train whose superior appointments are sure to merit immediate recognition. This train leaves Lincoln at 7:25 p. m., arrives at Omaha at 9 o'clock and Chicago at 1 p. m., the time being slightly in excess of that of our celebrated Flyers. A through sleeper accompanies this train, and breakfast and dinner are served in dining cars. The local service between Lincoln and Omaha is now as near perfection as can be desired, including, as it does, four daily trains in each direction, the running time being only eighty-five to ninety minutes. As we have frequently remarked heretofore, do not waste your money in making experimental trips by other lines represented as being equally as good as the Burlington. They are not. A. C. Ziemer, C. P. & T. A.

Several months ago, Mr. Henry Plummer, of Clements, Cal., who is subject to cramps, was taken with a severe attack. He had been accustomed to get relief by dosing with morphine, but the disagreeable effect that followed would make him miserable for hours after the cramp had been relieved. I persuaded him to try Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. He was much pleased with it, as its effect was almost instantaneous, and no disagreeable after effects accompanied its use. Chas. Bamert, manager Farmers' Trade Union, Clements, Cal. For sale by A. L. Shader.

W. W. Moore of the Grand opera house Des Moines, is an early settler in that part of Iowa, and has had a great deal of experience in his time. He says: "At various times I have had acute attacks of bilious colic and violent pains in the stomach, and found nothing that gave me relief like Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Every person," he says, "should have a bottle." For sale by A. L. Shader.

SOMETHING WRONG. It Proved to Be His Duster and He Promptly Gave It the Shake. Yesterday forenoon a tall, slim man, wearing a faded green hat and well enveloped in a linen duster of ancient date, entered the Woodbridge street station and said to the sergeant: "I just came in on the train. Look at me and see if I resemble Capt. Kidd or Charlie Ross."

"I can't see that you do," replied the sergeant. "But people are all looking at me and grinning. Anything wrong in my dress?" "Well, that—duster is a little off, perhaps."

"Oh! it's the duster. People don't wear 'em any more, eh?" "Not that style and color."

"I see. I'm a little ancient?" "A trifle."

"Well, off she comes. I bought it in this town six years ago. The man warranted it to me as a combination of duster, ham-mock, flying jib, liver pad, bed blanket, burglar alarm, life preserver and certificate of moral character, and it has pulled me through a steamboat explosion, two railroad smashups, a hotel fire and half a dozen free fights. Kinder hate to go back on her, but this is style, if the style has changed, then I've got to change with it."

He pulled it off, rolled it into a bundle and laid it on a chair and said: "Give it to some poor and disconsolate man—some one who hasn't a sensitive soul. It has kept out the flies, warded off the moths and saved me from rattlesnakes and mad dogs, but the time has come when we must part. When I strike Detroit and hear a boy call out 'Is that thing alive?' I know he means me and that duster. When I go up street and a man calls out, 'Schooner ahoy!' I know he means that duster and me. When I get into a car and see the women look me over and then hitch away I know they are wondering which of us is who and whether it will bite or not. I'm too sensitive by half, but I can't help it. I leave her in your hands. Good-by."—Detroit Free Press.

A Cold Weather Story. I have a story of cold weather which may serve instead of ice. It was the coldest day of last winter, and a trip across the Boston compass was a short Arctic journey. Around a big fire in a Boston street house were a jolly lot of young people, when to them entered one of the hale boys—Edward Everett Hale's sons. Lawrence Steven's famous saying was under discussion: "The Lord tempers the wind to the shorn lamb." "Yes, I know the saying," said young Hale, gravely, "and I've often thought of having a shorn lamb tethered out on the common near Park square, to try and make things just a little warmer there."—Chatter.

A Timely Job. Old Gentleman—No, I can give you no money. I don't like to encourage idleness. Why don't you go to work? "Tramp—It's easy to say that, but it isn't so easy to get a job. I've been trying to get work all the year." Old Gentleman—What kind of a job have you looked for? "Tramp—Winding an eight day clock.—Snacks.

He Knew by Experience. Teacher—John, of what are your boots made? Boy—Of leather, sir. Teacher—Where does leather come from? Boy—From the hide of the ox. Teacher—What animal, therefore, supplies you with boots and shoes and gives you meat to eat? Boy—My father.—Chatter.

At the Annamite Theatre. Here the female parts are performed by men in disguise. One evening the play was slow in commencing and the audience grew impatient. At length the manager advanced to the footlights and said: "I must ask the audience to excuse us a few minutes; the queen is not yet shaved!"—Gil Blas.

A Contented Client. "I tell you what, Heymann, the lawyer is a cute fellow, and no mistake! I ought to know, for he lately defended my son." "How's that?" "I thought your son had been sentenced!" "Yes, but only for a twelvemonth!"—Kladderadatsch.

Posted in Navy Matters. Clara—What do you think? That young naval cadet Sibmore sent me a "true lover's knot" in gold cord yesterday. Maud (all sympathy)—What did you do? Clara (scornfully)—Sent him back a scarf pin representing a pair of sister hooks.—Boston Post.

Looking Ahead. "No, my man, this is not mine. It was a twenty dollar bill I—"

"But it was a twenty dollar bill before I got it changed, sir."

"Och, sure, so the owner could conveniently reward me, sor."—Puck.

Spacious. Adolph—Why, Charlie, how is it you don't kiss your wealthy cousin Clara? Charlie—Well, there was a little falling out up at the house last night, come to think.—Chicago Times.

A Good Reason. Kicker (to editor)—What the deuce do you put twenty-two columns of advertising matter in a twenty-eight column paper for? Editor (with sublime resignation)—For cash.—New York Sun.

Biggs—Hair falling out, old man? Biggs—No. Biggs—What does that bald spot mean? Biggs—Well, there was a little falling out up at the house last night, come to think.—Chicago Times.
