Many good housewives are bearing bravely the burdens of a large household, but the sensible woman will lessen those burdens whenever opportunity offers to do so without adding to the family expense bill. Ladies are particularly supposed to like shopping, but there are many times when it is a burden because some trifling article is needed, and how often it happens in every household that the success of a meal depends on getting a single article. If there are children in the family much of this annoyance may be saved, because they can be sent to L. Meyer & Co's. on North Tenth street by a hired, busy mother, who may rest assured that no advantage will be taken of the child. It will receive prompt attention, and the price and quality of the goods will be O. K.

The largest and perhaps the jolliest select picnic of the season was held at Cushman park last Monday afternoon and evening. The festivities included dancing, boating, a fine luncheon, etc. The party were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maxwell and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Kern, Mrs. Griffith. The participants were Misses Sadie Baum of Omaha, Katie Kleutsch, Grace Oakley, Maud Oakley, Grace Burr, Grace Knapp, George Camp, Tillie Franklin, Minnie Franklin, Lucy Griffith, Flo Winger, Jo Winger, Marie Marshall, Jo Lottridge, Fay Marshall, Ella Raymond, Rachael Brock, Fannie Hawley, Libbie Seacrest, May Moore, Jesse Jary, Alleen Oakley, Messrs. Ray Chapman, Frank Seacrest, Foss Seacrest, George Gadd, Ray Leese, John Lottridge, Case Edwards, John McBride, Arda Chapman, Harry Lansing, Oliver Lansing, Bert Davis, Chas. Elliott, Eugene Pace, Guy Hurlbut, Wilson Winger, Frank Smith, Hugh Baker.

Masters Earnie and Frank Garrow gave a very enjoyable party last Thursday evening at their home, 825 J street, in honor of their cousins, Miss Lulu Bryant of Dunbar, Neb., and Miss Sanomah Cash of Talmage, Neb. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, with music and dancing, after which refreshments were in order. Those present were Misses Sanomah Cash, Lulu Bryant, Nannie Hood, Clara Quick, Mammie Joers, Belle Kramer, Lily Kramer, Mary Veith, Morel Stevenson, Minnie Cole, Mary Sullivan, Nora Gunthrem, Daisy Conder, Laura Dethlefs, Norma Keith, and Masters John Hood, Earnie Garrow, Frank Garrow, George Kelly, Fred Joers, George J. Joers, Robt W. Gharlers, Herbie Gardner, Charlie Ashton, Charlie Kramer, Fred Krone, Tommy Pray, Rob Lawlor.

Master Robert Noonan was the subject last evening of a happy surprise party at his home, 1725 Q street. The young folks met at the home of Miss Nellie Kruse, and about seven o'clock flocked in upon their unsuspecting host. The evening was filled up with dancing, games and refreshments. The company was composed of Misses Nellie Kruse, Mattie Jones, Blanche Garton, Dot Garton, Blanche Brown, Oda Classon, Mae Noonan, Nannie Hood and Olivia Kruse; Masters Henry Lindley, Walter Dean, Walter Hook, Willie Kruse, Elwood Rose, Oscar Kruse, Don Deputran, Guy Hoyt and John Hint.

If you want to gosomewhere for a summer vacation, either brief or extended, and don't know where to go, ask Ziemer, the Burlington City Passenger and Ticket Agent. He can tell you where you can make a ten day trip or a sixty day jaunt, how much it will cost, how you can go about it to have the most fun out of it, how to get there the coolest, quickest and cheapest way, and all about it. Ziemer is a veritable encyclopedia on summer travel and resort information and what he cannot tell you is not worth knowing.

E. K. Criley and family are pleasantly domiciled at Asbury Park on the Jersey shore in the Wilson cottage, which they have rented furnished for the summer. In a private letter Mr. Criley imparts the domestic information that even sea bathing and digging in the sand have their penalties and the children are bathing their sun burned anatomies in cream as a consequence. But that is hardly more distressing than the COURIER's inability to accept Mr. Criley's very kind invitation to drop in and enjoy life with him by the sea.

The children's temperance picnic at Cushman Wednesday was a grand success in every particular. About two thousand persons were present, of which over five hundred were children, the latter leaving on the 9 o'clock train. In the afternoon a large train load went out. Manager Andrus gave personal and careful attention to every detail as to the little folks enjoyment and the result was an elegant time for everybody.

Attorney General Leese left Monday for Chamberlain, South Dakota, on private business. Incidentally he ran over to Spirit Lake for the Iowa regatta on Tuesday and Wednesday. The weather was delightful at the lake, and he enjoyed the change hugely. The general even went so far as to get the price of an acre on the lake shore suitable for a cottage.

Edgar Wessel of New York, one of the contingents of the somewhat extended Wessel family, paid his cousin of the COURIER a visit this week. The young man with a generous stroke of luck captured one of the prizes of $5,000 in the recent lottery drawing and is now enjoying life accordingly.

It is said that in early fall, one of the most popular belles of the Pleasant Hour club will wed a prominent young business man of this city. It is also intimated that although rumor had circulated this report a little previous once before that it is authoritatively verified this time.

Henry Evans, foreman of the COURIER job department, with his wife and children visited in Omaha several days this week. While at the metropolis they were guests of H. A. Shipman, treasurer of the E. M. Hultz Manufacturing Co.

Poehler in a New Place.

There are few people in the city today that do not know or have not heard of George Poehler, the Confectioner, Ice Cream dealer and Baker. Poehler has catered to the best element of Lincoln trade for so long that his name has become familiar with every housewife in the city. However, the object of this article is not to give Mr. Poehler a puff or to introduce him to the people of this city, but to announce that he is now at home in his new and elegant quarters in the McBride block, corner Twelfth and P streets. He has fitted up the new premises in magnificent style, and it is indeed a very old moment these warm evenings that finds the ice cream parlors in any other than a crowded condition. It is a comfortable place where the young and old go to enjoy a plate of ice cream or fruit ices, with the usual cake accompaniment. And such ice cream as Poehler is making this season is good enough for anybody and cannot be excelled in the land.

A word regarding the bakery department. Heretofore in the old place it was necessary that all the products of the ovens had to be brought in through the ice cream parlor, which very often made it embarrassing for the workmen and none too pleasant for the patrons that were seated there enjoying the cooling luxury. Now all the baking is done in the basement and the goods brought up in an elevator. The bakery has been greatly improved and enlarged thereby giving Mr. Poehler better facilities for making bread, cakes, pies, and all the other goods that were formerly turned out in the old place. For making fancy cakes of all kinds his facilities are now better than ever and he stands ready at any time to furnish on short notice these delicacies for all social occasions, balls, parties, weddings, picnics, etc. In the way of ice cream and ices, he can furnish anything that you may want, either by the quart, gallon or in all sorts of forms and styles. Telephone orders promptly filled. When wanting anything of Poehler, call up Phone 457.

The Heat of Summer Time.

The season of the year has come when mortals look for the coolest and thinnest in the land for comfort, and just at this particular time there is no place that attracts the attention of ladies more than the popular Ladies' Furnishing store of Foreman & Crowe. Here our fair readers will find all they may desire in light, cool and comfortable apparel. Their line of summer underwear and hosiery is very fine and complete, and accessories as assortment of these goods such as would be a credit to a Chicago house. Ladies are requested to call and see these goods. Styles are correct and prices are right.

Of General Interest.

It is important to laundry patrons to see that their soiled linen is sent to the Evans Laundry Company. We have the very latest machinery for doing the work. Our process is original and that we keep abreast with the times goes without question. Your goods are handled with the greatest care possible.
