The August number of the Forum will contain an essay on "The Decollete in Modern Life," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, which is a text from which the writer argues an alarming decay in delicacy in American society; and she traces the defects of this decay in our art, in our literature, in politics, and throughout the whole range of American activity.

Never weary in her good works, Outing has spread beyond the full service of its pages to the Outing Weekly Tennis Record in order to quicken popular interest in a game which is engaging as it does both sexes, is best adapted to a leisure hour of recreation to the entire household of a nation under a pressure of living unknown elsewhere. What ever Outing can do to popularize refined sport she will do unstintingly, and the day is near when Outing shall become the magazine not only of the many but of all gentilefoks.

We are all curious—and it is surprising how curious we are—to know the way other people live, especially well known people. For several months we have been treated to glimpses into "Some Homes Under the Administration," in Washington, in a fine series of beautifully illustrated articles in Demorest's Family Magazine. In the August number (just arrived), Postmaster-General Wannamaker's mansion is thrown open to us, and we are charmed with its beauties. The handsomely executed illustrations give us every detail as accurately as would a personal view, and it is a great pleasure to stroll with the writer and artist through the elegant apartments and the famous picture-gallery, the latter containing some of the rarest works of art in America.

Rev. H. L. Chapman, pastor of the M. E. church, Johnstown, Pa., says: "Soon after the great flood, at a time when diarrhoea was quite prevalent, I received a box of six dozen Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. As soon as it became known that I had the medicine for free distribution, there began a great run on it, which continued until it was about all gone. Every one, so far as I heard from them, testified to its virtues, declaring it the best medicine for the purpose they had ever used. Those who got it shared around with their neighbors, so that I am confident it was productive of great good. We used some of it ourselves and found it not only an excellent medicine for diarrhoea, but for all kinds of pain and uneasiness in the stomach and bowels. It has been regarded as the best medicine known here for the disease it is recommended. For sale by A. L. Shadler.

Excursion Rates to Eastern Resorts.
The attention of the traveling public is called to the advantages of the Oic. & Mississippi Railway as a route to New York, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Cincinnati and Louisville, as well as to the numerous health and pleasure resorts of the East.

Both morning and evening lines of Pullman Vestibule Buffet Sleepers are run from St. Louis to New York via the above named cities over the Baltimore & Ohio route. Deer Park and Oakland the twin mountain resorts of the Alleghenies, are on the direct route of these through sleepers to the East.

For Lake Chautauque and Niagara Falls our train connects in Cincinnati with trains of the Erie Route which runs through to New York via Lakewood on the southern border of Lake Chautauque; being the only line from the west running a sleeper or a coach of any kind to any points on Lake Chautauque.

For White Sulphur and other healing springs of the Virginias; Richmond, Old Point Comfort, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, our trains make direct connection in Union depot, Cincinnati with the "F. V. Limited" of the Chesapeake & Ohio Route.

Our rates to New York and other eastern points are lower than any other through car route from St. Louis, while our accommodations are unsurpassed.

To those who contemplate a trip east this summer we will be glad to furnish descriptive pamphlets of the different resorts, reserve sleeping car berths and furnish any additional information as to rates, time and routes.

Summer Excursion tickets to all the eastern resorts are now on sale in our office at reduced rates.

The Heat of Summer Time.

Their line of summer underwear and hosiery is very fine and complete, and embraces an assortment of these goods such as would be a credit to a Chicago house. Ladies are requested to call and see these goods. Styles are correct and prices are right.
