When you use engraved cards or invitations, you have the finest work of the kind that can be produced. Even her royal highness, Queen Victoria, uses just such engraved cards as are sold at the COURIER office, but instead of Lincolnites paying $3.50 to $5.00 per hundred for them, which is the price in London, New York and Chicago, they pay but $2.50 per hundred. And this price does not change the quality of material or workmanship, for in the large cities you pay for style, while in Lincoln in order to create a demand we must get down close to cost prices.
 Call and see our work.

The York club has been noted for the energy of its management and the excellent taste displayed in the details of its parties.
 These qualities seem to be shared by the ladies who have been identified with the club, for on Thursday evening they had the largest select picnic party of the season at Cushman park, and the young men who were their guests are overflowing with praises. The affair was managed entirely by the young ladies, at whose head were Miss Mason and Miss Naomi Weaver. About forty couples participated and they went out about 5 o'clock. There was a fine luncheon, dancing, boating, etc.
 The dancing hall was handsomely decorated, there were printed programs, one of the best city orchestras was at hand, and the enjoyment may be imagined. Among those who took part were the following: Messrs. Phillips, Bradley, Dorgan, Teasdale, Hall, Covert, Kimball, Hallett, Longwell, Camp, Binford, Clark, Love, Heaton, Clarkson, McCall, Joseph Bigger, Wm. Bigger, Weckback, Comstock, Low, Wilson, Griffith, Lottridge, Sweet of Pittsburg, Hammond, Laird, Cran-cer, Andrus, Giers, Phillips, Scott, Girabani, cago, Binford, Ida Bierworth, Hattie Bier-worth, Doran, Leese, Talbot, Bonnell, Scott, Long, Weaver, Armstrong, Andrus, Sabin of Beatrice, Buncher, Brindley, Mr. and Mrs.

 Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Andrus, Mrs. Hammond.

A very pleasant impromptu picnic was given yesterday at Cushman. The party left in a carry-all at two and returned last evening about eleven. As one of the gentlemen expressed it before leaving for the park, "there will be no dancing, no cards, nobody's business, but just an old time" picnic in which

AT THE PARK.

Manager Andrus has arranged to give the politicians a day of rest and quiet, and they are expected to be at Cushman Park tomorrow. The state and county nominees have been invited to be present and make short speeches. Among the special attractions will be Williams Brothers and Hubbard, the famous singers, whose singing in Indiana greatly helped the Republicans to carry that state for President Harrison.

The big event of next week will be a grand union picnic to be given on Wednesday by the Exposition department stores. This picnic is given for all the friends and patrons of these stores, and the public are cordially invited to call at the exposition and receive an invitation, which will give them free admission to the park. The only expense will be the railroad fare, which is the trifling sum of fifteen cents for the round trip. Trains will leave at 2, 4:30 and 6:30 p. m., returning at 7 and 10:30 p. m. Remember that all are invited, and that invitations are free.

One of the future attractions of the Park will be Kate Field in a lecture.

It is one of the interesting facts established by science that a blue, yellow or red substance has its particular color because the blue, yellow or red rays of light (as the case may be) are reflected. White is white because all the rays are reflected, and black is black because all the rays are absorbed. It is for this reason therefore that black wearing apparel is warmer than other colors.
 That is why a black shoe is warmer than a russet shoe, and the coolness of the russet shoe is one of the reasons why it has become so popular. And that is why Briscoe the Shoe Man carries the biggest line of russet shoes and oxfords for infants, children, misses, ladies and men in all widths from A to E. He is making a special drive on prices, and if you want a cool shoe do not fail to call on Briscoe.

The Lincoln Steam Laundry having recently changed hands and undergone many improvements is now better than ever prepared to execute work in the very best manner, promptly and at popular prices. Mr.
 A. W. Day the new proprietor has adopted a new and improved process for washing and handling garments, by which no bleaching or injurious materials are used; the finest fabrics such as silks, laces, flounces, flannels or cotton goods are laundered in first class manner, without the least damage. One trial will convince the most skeptical that the Lincoln Steam Laundry does the finest work in the city. All goods called for and delivered.

One hundred and eight years old. The magnitude of the sums of money handled by fire insurance companies can be imagined by the following excerpt: "The Phoenix fire insurance Co. of London, organized in 1782, has paid in losses since then of nearly $85,000,- 000 cash. Its standing is of the very highest order, carrying a surplus to its policy holders of some $5,000,000." Atty. C. L. Richards represents this company here.
