The St. Paul, Minn., Pioneer-Press gives the following account of the wedding of a Lincoln man who slipped out of town quietly and got married: "The prettiest wedding of midsummer was that of Mr. Leonard C. Chapin, of Lincoln, Neb., to Miss Milla H. Atherton, which was solemnized at the residence of Mr. J. E. Atherton, of 115 Summit avenue, at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening last. The handsome parlors were tastefully decorated with a profusion of palms and choice cut flowers, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Forbes. The bride was attended by Miss Lizzie L. Sumner, of Ripon, Wis., and Edward W. McCune of St. Cloud was best man. The bride's gown was of heavy cream satin with moire, and that of the bridesmaid was cream and pink satin. Only the immediate friends of the young couple from abroad and at home were present. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin will reside in the future at Lincoln, Nebraska." To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.

Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

Peculiar in strength and economy - Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home" - there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.
