There may be persons in this community who are at times troubled with colic or subject to attacks of bowel complaint. If so, they should try Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy. It will afford almost immediate relief, and when reduced with water is pleasant to take. It taken as soon as the first indication of the disease is felt it will ward off the attack. Many people use it in this way, and find that it never fails them. A 25 or 50 cent bottle may be obtained from A. L. Shrsder, the druggist.

THE Pleasant Hour club met Wednesday evening at Hardy & Pitcher's store, and effected an organization for the season of '90-'91. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, C. E. Magoon; vice-president, H. J. Hall; secretary, F. W. A. Kind; treasurer, S. T. St. John; master of ceremonies, Will Hardy; executive committee, Geo. N. Foreman, chairman, M. I. Aitken and C. E. Waite. A number of new names were proposed which will be voted on at the next meeting, Oct. 3, at which time arrangements will be made for the formal opening of the season. The first event will probably take the form of a reception to the members who have married since last season, and their wives, including Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Alliance, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wright, and Lieutenant and Mrs. T. W. Griffith. Never in its history has the Pleasant Hour club had such a brilliant prospect before it as now. Its membership is extensive and representative, and embraces all the elements which go to make up a thoroughly successful social organization. The winter of '90-'91, will, indeed, be a bright one. Following is a list of the hold-over members: J. B. Wright, F. C. Zehring, C. E. Waite, W. M. Leonard, W. E. Hardy, J. H. Lemist, Henry Mansfield, K. E. Hayden, C. E. Spahr, H. R. Nissley, C. J. Templeton, J. W. Maxwell, C. R. Richter, K. K. Korman, J. W. McDonald, M. I. Aitken, S. T. St. John, R. C. Troglan, W. R. Dennis, F. L. Sheldon, C. E. Magoon, Otto Mohrenstecker, H. J. Hall, Fred Sholes, Chas. Lippincott, C. J. Dawes, W. C. Reeves, T. W. Griffith, Geo. J. McArthur, W. B. McArthur, A. G. Beeson, Wm. Stull, D. C. Van Dyne, H. P. Foster, J. E. Thompson, Frank Polk, Alfred Kind, J. A. Buckstaff, A. B. Law, R. K. Cooper, Geo. N. Foreman.

Mrs. R. H. Oakley gave three elegant receptions this week, for Lieutenant and Mrs. T. W. Griffith, the afternoon receptions Wednesday and yesterday being specially for Mrs. Griffith. Those present Tuesday evening were: Prof. H. Hunt, Duke, Jesse, Sherman, Nicholson, Sewalls, and Ed. Green, Messrs. Gere, Lamb, Imhoff, Elliott, Sawyer, Hewitt, Curtis, Gregory, Hall, Richards, Thayer, Norton, Doctors Lowery, and Crim, Misses Moore, Newman, Harwood, and Hicks, Mesdames Rachel Lloyd, Harris, Oakley, Archibald, Dawes, Wright, Yates, E. E. Brown. Mrs. J. B. Wright assisted in receiving Wednesday afternoon. The guests were: Mesdames Ada Atkinson, R. Hurlbut, Little, Outcalt, Leonard, Funke, Hargreaves, Ogden, Moore, Harley, Perry, Cal. Thompson, Townley, Gregg, Hurta, Leming, Smith, Calvert, Coffroth, Noble, Bartlett, L. C. C. Burr, Maxwell, Hawkins, Mansfield, Beeson, Green, Mosher, June, Holyoke, Eddy, Hal Young, Camp, Barker, Hayden, Richards, Dow, Dennis, Foster, J. N. T. Jones, Honkle, Hirsaw, Burton, Ed. Holmes, Giffen, Muir, Misses Harris, Hawley, Hardy, Lillibridge, Newman, Dorris, Walsh, Latta, Parker, Martha Funke, Anne Funke, Grace Griffith, Dena Loomis, Anna Barr, Maud Hammond, Maud Stobbs, Gertrude Marquette, Cowdery. Yesterday afternoon the guests were: Mesdames Helmer, Hewitt, Sanders, Miller, McElwee, Smith, Manning, Morgan, Archibald, Fete, Weaver, Beaufort, Waldo, Franklin, Murphy, Pickett, W. F. Pickett, Guthrie, Guy Brown, Hale, Coleman, Wade, Appligott, Redway, Beebe, Miller, Johnson, Hohman, Kearns, Hewitt, Thompson, Hammond, Salisbury, Tyler, White, Tiffany, Pickett, Powell, Sheldon, Tucker, McDonald, Beachley, Misses McDowell, Allen, Braunsen, Loomis, Hearn, Wade, Miller.

The Pleasant Hour juniors are no more. At the annual meeting held Wednesday evening, the name of the club was changed to "The Assembly." It will commence with the approaching season as a new and independent organization, and there is every reason to believe that the brilliant successes of the past few years scored by the juniors will be duplicated and even exceeded by the new Assembly. The foundation is strong. The superstructure will be stronger. A second meeting will be held Monday evening to arrange for the opening party, which will doubtless be given in a few weeks. The following officers were elected Wednesday: President, Will Clarke; Vice President, Fred Houts; Secretary, C. Y. Smith; Treasurer, Frank Hathaway; Master of Ceremonies, Frank Burr; Executive committee, Frank Burr, Charles Clarke, and Will Hammond. E. O. Bradley, R. M. Joyce, and Fred Howe were elected new members. The hold overs are as follows: Will Clarke, Charles Clarke, Frank Burr, Charles Burr, Fred Smiser, Lew Marhall, Will Hammond, Clint Andrus, Bert Wheeler, C. Y. Smith, Fred Houts, John T. Dorgan, Frank Hathaway, Robert Muir, Geo. Holden, Charles Hall, John McBride, E. A. Mullen and John West.

The recently organized literary society, the Tuesday Evening Club, held its first regular meeting Tuesday evening at the residence of Miss Maude Smith, 1330 J street, with a good attendance. W. D. Howells was the author discussed. Essays were read by Dr. Frank Ladd and G. W. Gerwig. Readings and recitations were given by Miss Minnie Latta and Miss Maude Smith, and the musical part of the program was in the hands of Miss Carrie Allan. This new club, which will meet every other week, consists of the following members: Messrs. Will Hardy, G. W. Gerwig, J. B. Cunningham, Frank Zehring, Malcolm McKinnon, John Dorgan, Dr. Frank Ladd, W. Morton Smith, Misses Carrie Allen, Anna Barr, Minnie and Olive Latta, Clara Walsh, Maude Smith, Anne Funke, Cora Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coffroth. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Miss Clara Walsh.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burr gave a very large reception last evening for Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Henkle. Mrs. Burr was assisted in receiving by Miss Lana Dundy of Omaha, and the following young ladies assisted with the refreshments: Misses Olive Latta, Martha Funke, Lulu Valentine of Omaha, Anne Funke, Nellie White, Carrie Wasmer of Grand Island, and Maud Burr.

J. C. Small of Leming's and Miss Clara Wallace were united in marriage at the residence of the bride, Twenty-third and W streets Thursday evening, Rev. Morrow of the United Presbyterian church officiating. A number of very handsome presents were received.

Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Newman were visited by a large company of members of the First Christian church last Friday evening, the occasion being the wooden anniversary of wedding of the pastor and his wife. The latter were presented with a handsome sideboard.

Joseph F. Deisher and Miss Theresa Schluter were married at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. Father Kuppenbender, the ceremony taking place in the St. Francis De Sales church. They are now at home in their residence, Sixteenth and V streets.

A quiet wedding took place in the parlors of the Bostwick hotel last Tuesday morning, the contracting parties being Wm. A. Bayles of Plattsmouth, and Miss Cora A. Muggs of Lincoln, Judge Burton officiating in his usual happy manner.—Hastings Gazette Journal.

Hans H. Rasmussen and Miss Mattie Copeland of Unadilla, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon by Rev. Luther P. Luden, at the latter's residence on D. street.

Jewelry at Auction!

Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Etc.

AT YOUR OWN PRICE.

Owing to the depression of the times and the very dull trade, I now find myself heavily stocked with a line of goods never before surpassed in Lincoln. I bought heavily last spring contemplating a large trade, but like in all branches of trade, business has been very dull and I now have the goods which must be turned into money at whatever they will bring.

Commencing October 4th,

I will offer at public Auction my entire stock, and the goods will go to the highest bidder be that much or little. Mr. P. J. Bourroughs of Chicago will conduct the sale, commencing at half past two, and continuing afternoon and evening.

Special Attention Given to Lady Bidders.

Now's the Time---Jewelry at Your Own Price! No Reservations!

Everything Goes! Come and Give us Your Bid!
