There may be persons in this community who are at times troubled with colic or subject to attacks of bowel complaint. If so, they should try Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy. It will afford almost immediate relief, and when reduced with water is pleasant to take. If taken as soon as the first indication of the disease is felt it will ward off the attack. Many people use it in this way, and find that it never fails them. A 25 or 50 cent bottle may be obtained from A. L. Shrader, the druggist.

IN THE SOCIAL SWIM.

SOCIETY during the week in the line of dancing has not been very active, and only on one occasion has Masonic Temple been brightly illuminated, which was on Monday evening when the Simches Thora ball was given by Lincoln's Jewish society. Simches Thora is a Jewish festival, one of the oldest known holidays in history, and its origin dates back nearly three thousand years before Christ. On that day, the beginning of winter, the five books of Moses, which were read by chapters each Sabbath, were completed, the harvest had all been gathered, the winter's store was laid in and this was cause for rejoicing and thanksgiving.

The affair Monday evening was a delightful success, in which about fifty couples participated, many being present from abroad. Music, such as is seldom heard in Lincoln, was furnished by the Musical Union orchestra of Omaha under the direction of that incomparable leader, Mr. Harry Irvine. This part of the evening's enjoyment was the happiest portion of the program. It was full of inspiration and harmony and during the evening many complimentary remarks were heard thereon. The costuming of ladies was particularly handsome, many exquisite toilets being noticeable, while the male sex were attired in the conventional "claw hammer" dress. The guests' enjoyment was looked after by L. Wessel, Jr., master of ceremonies, the reception committee, Messrs. Louis Meyer, M. A. Newmark, David Wise and Louis Mayer, and Messrs. Louis Keesky, M. A. Ackerman, Sam R. Ch and Henry Mayer, the floor committee.

There were sixteen numbers on the program, including two beautiful promenades, the festivities commencing shortly after nine with a grand march, headed by the master of ceremonies, assisted by Miss Florence Adler of Omaha, which, after a number of intricate movements, glided into a waltz, and the entertainment was on the wing.
