The family has the sympathy of a host of friends.

H. R. Nissley & Co. are doing a great business and their fall trade is larger than any previous year. A call there at any time always finds the store well filled with bargain seekers and seldom does an intending purchaser leave without having their wants fulfilled. Mr. King, one of the firm, is ever watchful of the interest of patrons, and everything moves smoothly and prosperous at this popular and old reliable resort.

The exhibition of the automatic key of Jerusalem at 140 south Eleventh street, which has been in progress for some weeks, will close today. Today is the last opportunity to witness this wonderful exhibition, already viewed by thousands. Jerusalem is shown as it appeared before the day of crucifixion during the reign of Herod, presenting the temple, the palaces of David and Solomon, the judgment hall, Mount Calvary, etc. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cents.

Max Kohn of Nebraska City, after a search of several months for a location somewhere in the west, has finally concluded to settle in Lincoln. Mr. Kohn has bought a half interest in the Eagle Suspender Co., which business will be greatly increased and the company's products will be more fully represented throughout the west than at present. Mr. and Mrs. Kohn were in the city yesterday to secure a residence here next week. Mr. Kohn is a gentleman of capital and his removal to this city adds to our commercial interests much prestige.

Now Louie Mayer & Co. are ready to receive their customers and friends at their handsome Tenth street store, recently altered and re-arranged. These changes make it one of the handsomest stores in the city. When you are in the neighborhood drop in. Louie Meyer & Co. carry a fine line of dry goods, notions, groceries, etc., making a specialty of the latest novelties. In dry goods they offer some rare bargains, well worth examining. Everything that is latest and best in the way of general merchandise. Remember, the best goods for the lowest prices. Anything in the above lines. Everything thoroughly reliable and warranted to give perfect satisfaction. Many years of honest dealing have given this firm an enviable reputation and they are now reaping the harvest in a very large and permanent trade. If you don't know the firm, call and get acquainted.

For a cut, bruise, burn or scald, there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It heals the parts more quickly than any other application, and unless the injury is very severe, no scar is left. For sale by A. L. Shader.

Ladies should visit Miss Johnston's hair emporium. Her new line of hair ornaments are now all in and in the stock is a beautiful line of genuine shell ornaments both carved and plain, cut steel, and others of gold. These goods must be seen to be appreciated.

H. P. Sherwin, 1134 O street, has a present for every one of his customers that cannot fail to be appreciated. He will give to every customer a fine crayon picture made from any photo that is desired and it will not cost you a cent. Call in at his drug and shoe store and see how it is done. 1134 O street.

A prominent physician and old army surgeon in eastern Iowa, was called away from home for a few days; during his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold and his wife bought a bottle of chamberlain's Gough Remedy for it. They were so much pleased with the remedy that they afterwards used several bottles at various times. He said, from his experience with it, in regards to it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen. For sale by A. L. Shader.

The Shoe Man.
Briscoe, the Shoe Man, continues to fit the feet by the hundreds, and his fits invariably give satisfaction. Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness yield to the powerful effects of this medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.
