FAMILIAR PEOPLE.

George Holden, who has for sometime past, been manager of Stetson's pharmacy, left Tuesday for Denver to embark in business for himself. He has associated himself with Frank Stetson of this city, and a grain and commission business will be done under the firm name of Stetson & Co. George is a member of the Pleasant Hour club, and he has been deservedly popular in business and social circles during his residence in Lincoln. He has a warm place in the hearts of the boys. C. J. Cornwall of Buffalo, N. Y., succeeds him as manager of Stetson's.

The management of the Bradstreet Company at this point, which until October 1st, 1890, was in charge of H. C. Patterson, is now placed under the management of R. B. Lewis.
Mr. Lewis has been in the employ of the company for some years, and is thoroughly acquainted with the state of Nebraska, having traveled through the same for the past three years in the interest of said company.
The Lincoln office was established some two years ago as a sub-office of Omaha, Neb. As Lincoln has steadily increased in growth and importance as a jobbing and railroad centre, the facilities of the office have not been such as to give satisfaction to the larger jobbers of this city.
Through the aid of Messrs. Raymond Bros. & Co., Hargreaves Bros., H. T. Clarke Drug Co. and the State Journal Co., Mr. Lewis has succeeded in having this office established as an independent one, and hereafter the business will be conducted in the interest of the Lincoln jobbers.

Geo. N. Forsman, lately made traveling freight agent of the Elkhorn, has established headquarters in Omaha; but he will not allow any very long intervals to elapse between his visits to Lincoln.

Charley Carter, who used to be deputy commissioner of public lands and buildings, now holding down a good job in Columbus, Ohio, was in the city a few days this week looking up friends and relatives. Charley thinks he had a long head in sizing up the political situation six months ago, and he says he felicitates himself every day that he had the sense to get out of the way before the storm broke. His friends will be glad to hear that he is prospering in his new home.

Geo. B. Tedrick, general agent of the Pennsylvania railroad for Nebraska, and vicinity with headquarters in Omaha, was in the city this week bidding good-bye to his numerous friends. He has been ordered to Milwaukee, Wis., and will remove to the beer-brewing city December 1st.

M. W. Folsom, the real estate and loan agent, has associated himself with J. M. Vicker. These gentlemen will be pleased to see their friends at 121 North Twelfth street.

Camp Walleit, one of Lincoln's favorite traveling men, will be married to Miss Jessie Estelle Warrington, Wednesday, November 26, at the residence of the bride's mother in Oskaloosa, Iowa. Miss Warrington made an extensive visit in this city a year ago and will be remembered by many of our young people.

Invitations to the wedding of Miss Jennie Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morgan, and Ken. D. Binford, have been issued. The ceremony joining in wedlock these popular young people, is announced to occur Thanksgiving night, Thursday, November 27, at half-past eight; at the residence of the bride.

Miss Ethel Howe, the well known instructor in vocal music, has gone to New York, intending to make the metropolis her home. She will continue to teach.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment, For tetter, salt-rheum, scald-head, eczema and chronic sore eyes. Price 25 cents per box.

Brown's new branch restaurant, 1418 O street, is doing a large business, and persons in the east part of the city are to be congratulated on having so nice and convenient a place to dine at.

This Way For Overcoats.
You have read about overcoats that nearly every home in town has advertised, but as yet none of them can show a stock or give the inducements in them that Miltonberger offers at the Boston Clothing House, 1039 O street. He has them in all weights, all colors, all styles and in the very latest fabrics. You can't afford to buy elsewhere. Call in and let the boys show you their stock. Won't cost you a cent to look and while it will interest you yet you lose nothing by calling in. Remember the place, 1039 O street.

Ladies will find Miss Johnston an accomplished artist in hair cutting, bang trimming, hair dressing, etc. Call and see her, 1114 O street.

H. P. Sherwin, 1134 O street, has a present for every one of his customers that cannot fail to be appreciated. He will give to every customer a fine crayon picture made from any photo that is desired and it will not cost you a cent. Call in at his drug and shoe store and see how it is done. 1134 O street.

Southern Tours.
The Union Pacific system has in connection with its all the year round tourist rates to Ogden, Salt Lake and Pacific coast points, placed on sale winter excursion tickets at low rates to all Southern resorts in North and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, Mexico and to Havana Cuba. For rates and particulars apply to 1044 O street, or Union Depot.

E. B. SLOSSON,
City Ticket Agent.

Lincoln St. Joe & Kansas City. Through Sleepers and Parlor Cars.
The day of transfers, changes and delays between Lincoln, St. Joe and Kansas City is over, the B. & M. having placed in service a line of combination sleepers and parlor chair cars that for convenience, elegance and comfort surpass anything heretofore run between these points. The present schedule is as follows: Leave Lincoln, 8:30 p. m. daily, arrive in St. Joe 5:27 a. m., Kansas City 7:50 a. m.; returning, leave Kansas City 9:15 p. m. daily, St. Joe 11:45 p. m., arrive at Lincoln 7:50 p. m.

These trains run via Beatrice, Wymore and Terminal Rock and make close connections at several points. The service is really excellent and we can recommend it with much confidence. Further information can be obtained at union depot or city office corner O and Twelfth streets.

A. C. ZIEMER,
City Passenger and Ticket Agent.

SOUTH LINCOLN.

J. H. W. Hawkins left Wednesday for Omaha.
Mrs. E. S. Past left on Sunday for Omaha, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hunt.
The Third Presbyterian church has been located at corner of Peach and 11th streets.
Mr. and Mrs. W. McCombs from Broken Bow are the guests for a few days of their nephews, C. L. and Will Lewis.

Mrs. D. K. Taylor, wife of the mayor of Wymore, is the guest this week of Mrs. E. Baker, at 1029 Washington street.
Mr and Mrs. S. W. Lane and Miss Anna Horton will attend the State Christian Endeavor Association at Hastings on Sunday.

Dwight Lewis of Des Moines, Iowa, left on Thursday for home, after a short but pleasant visit with his brother, C. L. Lewis at 2123 C street.
Eugene Parks, the small boy who accidentally shot himself in the hand last Saturday, is doing nicely under the skillful treatment of Dr. Crim.

A very pleasant reception was given on Tuesday night at the Trinity M. E. church in honor of Elder Davis, the retiring and S. D. Roberts, the new minister.

Mrs. George Wing gave a very pleasant reception at her home, South 14th street, on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her two sisters-in-law, who are her guests from Providence, R. I.

AUNT SAMANTHA.

A prominent physician and old army surgeon in eastern Iowa, was called away from home for a few days; during his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold and his wife bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for it. They were so much pleased with the remedy that they afterwards used several bottles at various times. He said, from his experience with it, he regards it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen. For sale by A. I. Shader.

Some very nice and new things in hair ornaments are now being shown at Miss Johnston's, 1114 O street. Some elegant novelties for evening wear. Call and see them.

More Than Even a Mummy Could Stand.

Mr. Doodle (the caricaturist)—Ha, ha! I have it! I'll draw a man with an ax cutting up a boarding house pie.

A Clear Case. Jagers—What ever became of Pea-sought's dog? You know it used to give you so much trouble. Wiggler—Oh! It's dead. Jagers—Did you kill it? Wiggler—No. It committed suicide. Jagers—Suicide! How? Wiggler—It came over into my yard while I was sitting here with a loaded pistol.—Munsey's Weekly.

But What Was On It.
"What do you think of the table?" asked the landlady of the new boarder, who is of a vivacious nature, and at the same time hates to hurt anybody's feelings.
"Really," said he, after some hesitation, "I can conscientiously endorse your table as a masterpiece of cabinet making."
—Washington Post.

Pays Cash.
Merchant—I wish to insert an advertisement in The Morning Bugle.
Clerk—Yes, sir.
"Commence it in this way: Pay cash, and put those words in large letters."
"Yes, sir."
"And I wish you'd trust me for the amount for a month or so."
—Yankee Blade.

How It Sounded.
"No, I haven't!" shouted Mr. Ardup angrily, sitting up in bed.
"Haven't what, dear?" asked Mrs. Ardup, only half awake. "What are you talking about?"
"I am answering that blamed katydid. It keeps on saying: 'Got your coal? Got your coal? Got your coal?'"
—Chicagoan.

Accidents Will Happen.
Miss Gushington—I admit, Arthur, that this is not the first time I have been engaged, but I'm sure your noble, generous heart—
Little Brother—Sis, the baby's got your bag of engagement rings.—Street & Smith's Good News.

And Long Terms.
"Dear me," said the philanthropic lady who was visiting the jail, "I can't believe that you are entirely devoid of principle."
"Believe me, madam," was the reply, "I often had very strong convictions."
—Washington Post.
