made for a Christmas present.

The reception given by Mrs. Parker last week of which brief mention was made in Saturday's COURIER was a very elegant affair and reflected much credit on the hostess. It was the first event in the new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Parker and so partook largely of the nature of a housewarming.
There were extremely pretty decorations and all of the arrangements for the entertainment of the guests were perfect. Cards and dancing constituted the principal amusements. Mrs. Parker was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Geo. H. Clark and Mrs. L. C.
Burr. Mrs. W. Q. Bell presided at the piano.
Those present were: Mesdames W. H. Mc Creery, F. Brinker, J. E. White, Wm. Kirby, rine.

A new club called the "Sans Souci"—without care—has been organized among the young people of South Lincoln. Its object is improvement and pleasure. Two weeks ago the first public meeting was given at the home of the president, Mrs. J. H. Book, when a very entertaining programme was presented. Last Friday evening the club was invited to the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Sizer on D st. After the programme delicious refreshments and a general good time were enjoyed by all. This week the meeting was held with Mrs. Dr.
Norton on D st. The members are Misses Maude Leyton, Julia Beebe, Anna Lidell, Christina Norton, Bessie Sizer and May Beek; Messrs Will Manatt, Melvin Beebe, Ed. Sizer, Ed. Vanhorn, Fred Leyton, Fred Beebe, Vernon Hedge, Eugene Park, John Beebe and Harlan Howitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham F. Betts entertained dames E. C. Rowick, H. P. Waugh, J. P.

Maule, C. L. Hall, W. E. Kirker, A. H. Weir, Lansing, W. H. Weaver, Dr. and Mrs. Stanhope, Dr. and Mrs. Giffed. Invited guests were also present as follows: Messrs. and Mesdames John R. Wright, J. W. Maxwell, Saunders, T. W. Griffith, R. Rehlander, Dennis, Chas. Keith, Dr. and Mrs. H. M.
Casebeer, Misses Ellison and Casebeer of Fort Wayne, Ind., Talbot, Eva Knapp, Covert, Naomi Weaver, Messrs. Cornish, Miller, John T. Dorgan, Goss, Clark, Graham, Geo.
Crancer, Frank Polk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cambridge gave an enjoyable high five party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Ella Brindley. Mrs.
Cambridge's sister. The royal prizes were awarded to Miss Donley and Mr. Love, while the boobies fell to the lot of Miss Binford and Mr. Patten. Those present: Misses Covert, Wirick, Steen, Heaton, Weaver,

Wilson, Lewis, Longwell, Johnson, Crancer, Bigger, King, Bostrom, Graham, Patten, Prof. C. W. Hill, Love.

Dr. Margaret Sabin entertained a number of young people Wednesday evening at high five. There were present: Messrs. J. A.
Cunningham, John T. Dorgan, E. O. Bradley, Malcolm McKinnon, H. J. Hall, Hal Northam, Frank Everts, S. T. St. John, Goss; Misses Bertie Cook of Blair, Dena Loomis, Clara Walsh, Minnie Latta, Olive Latta, Anna Barr, Florence Brown, Grace Griffith, Anne Funke. Miss Latta and Mr.
Dorgan secured the greatest number of points.

A very interesting programme was rendered at the Manchester Martyrs memorial exercises at Fitzgerald hall Monday evening, by the following persons: Mr. Charles McGilare, Prof. Gibault, Mr. Joseph Smith, Mrs. J. A.
Kilroy, Hon. P. O. Cassidy, Mr. John J. Sutton, Mr. Nicholas Lawler, Miss Birdie Sutton, Rev. Father Walsh, Hon. John Fitzgerald, Rev. Father Laughlin, Mr. J. A. Mulligan, Mr. Thomas Maloy, and Mr. J. A. Kilroy.

Ken D. Binford and Miss Jennie Morgan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morgan, were married Thursday evening at 8:30 o' clock at the residence of the bride. The groom, one of Lincoln's popular young men and the bride, well known in social circles here, enjoy the friendship of a large circle of acquaintances whose best wishes for future happiness they have.

Miss Isadora Hosman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Hosman of 1227 P street, and Mr.
Theodore M. Minard, were married Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride, Rev. O. A. Williams, pastor of the First Epistalian church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Minard will spend a few days at York, after which they will be at home at 1227 P street.

E. R. Pukham of Omaha and Mrs. Augusta S. Adams of this city were married at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fradenburg, 920 South Eighth street, Rev. O. A. Baker officiating.
The bridal couple proceeded to Omaha, where they will reside in the future, immediately after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Brown entertained the high five club, as yet unnamed, mentioned in last week's COURIER, Tuesday evening.
In addition to the regular members, the following were present, Messrs. Will Clark, Charles Burr, S. T. St. John; Misses May Burr and Inez Dorris. The prizes were won by Miss Dorris and Dr. Holyoke.

People who are desirous of presenting Lincoln to their eastern friends in the best light, should mail sample copies of THE COURIER containing the description of the Charity Ball. A large extra edition has been printed and copies may be obtained at the office or at the newsstands.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Lash entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening, the event being the seventeenth anniversary of their wedding day. Pleasant entertainment was provided and the gathering was a very happy one.

Miss Sarah Wool Moore, instructress in art at the state university, and her sister, Mrs.
Dr. Norton entertained a number of the former's students at dinner Thanksgiving day.

The Browning club will not confine itself to the exclusive study of Browning this winter; but will take up such other authors as may be decided upon by the committee.

Following the usual custom the state university alumni gave an elaborate and highly enjoyable banquet in Palfadian hall Thanksgiving eve. An entertaining literary and musical programme was also rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McFarland will give a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Nisley Thursday evening. The latter are expected to arrive in Lincoln Wednesday.

The F street card club met last evening at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Warren. Next Friday the club will meet at the residence of Mrs. F. A. Brown.

Edworth B. Buckley and Miss Lucy Thrush were united in marriage Thursday afternoon at the Hotel Mack, Rev. O. A. Williams officiating.

C. C. Lewis and Mrs. Agnes Brown were joined in marriage by Rev. E. H. Chapin, Thursday evening, in the presence of a few intimate friends.

Miss Bessie Lane entertained the resident students and members of the faculty of the conservatory of music at her home Thursday evening.

John G. Sharpe of Ord, and Mrs. Bessie Wooley of this city, were married last Friday at the residence of R. Binford, 1220 R street.

There will be a business meeting of the Pleasant Hour club Wednesday at 7:30 at Hardy & Pitcher's store.

Mrs. David Wise gave an elegant reception and luncheon yesterday afternoon.

The youngest son of Louie Meyer after a severe illness is convalescent.

Miss Ida Friend gave an enjoyable high five party last night.

Mrs. C. H. Holmes is greatly improved in health.

Cut this out of THE COURIER and get an additional ten per cent off on all purchases next week at the Wreck sale, 1016 O street.

The storeroom recently vacated by the Fitzgerald dry goods company is now occupied by Talbot R. Gadd, who has opened an immense line of crockery, glassware, silverware, etc. This stock of goods was secured in a trade and as Mr. Gadd has no use for them and has no desire to embark in that calling, he will sell everything at a sacrifice to close them out. This is no advertising dodge, but a genuine sacrifice sale of fine china, glassware, silverware, fancy articles, etc., and a line of goods just such as will make a fit holiday present.

An elegant Remarque proof etching, nicely framed, only $6 at Crancer's, 212 South Eleventh street.

The manicure department at Miss Johnston's, 1114 O street, has grown steadily from the day of opening so that it has become a most popular resort for the ladies to visit.
Miss Johnston gives this her personal supervision which always gives entire satisfaction.

For a cut, bruise, burn or scald, there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm.
It heals the parts more quickly than any other application, and unless the injury is very severe, no scar is left. For sale by A. L.
Shader.

The millinery department of Herpolsheimer & Co. promises to be one of the most attractive in their entire business. The newest styles and shapes are shown and suggested. Give them a call.

A very choice stock of fancy and art goods —toys—holiday goods—at Herpolsheimer & Co's.

Infants fine kid slippers for a quarter at the Wreck sale, 1016 O street.

Miltonberger's new Boston Clothing house leads the van in prices on overcoats. Such garments as other houses sell for $30, he sells for $15, $18 coats for $14, $15 coats for $12, etc. Prices talk. Call and see them. Nice patterns, perfect fit, fine linings, excellent styles and just what you want. You need a coat and must eventually buy one, so why put off. You might as well get a full season's use out of it as to only have it a few months. Make it a point to go in and see Miltonberger at 1039 O street.

Nice little baby shoes only twenty-five cents at the Wreck sale, 1016 O street.

The holidays are rapidly approaching, and it behooves intending purchasers of Christmas gifts to bestir themselves. No more acceptable gift can be made than a crayon portrait, especially one done by C. W. Burkitt the well-known artist of 1132 N street. Mr.
Burkitt has drawn portraits of Lincoln's most prominent people and his work invariably gives the utmost satisfaction. His work is always artistic and there is an expressiveness in his portraits seldom seen. Orders should be left promptly.

Lincoln St. Joe & Kansas City. Through Sleepers and Parlor Cars.

The day of transfers, changes and delays between Lincoln, St. Joe and Kansas City is over, the B. & M. having placed in service a line of combination sleepers and parlor chair cars that for convenience, elegance and comfort surpass anything heretofore run between these points. The present schedule is as follows: Leave Lincoln, 8:30 p. m. daily, arrive in St. Joe 5:27 a. m., Kansas City 7:50 a. m.; returning, leave Kansas City 9:15 p. m. daily, St. Joe 11:45 p. m., arrive at Lincoln 7:50
p. m.

These trains run via Beatrice, Wymore and Table Rock and make close connections at terminal points. The service is really excellent and we can recommend it with much confidence. Further information can be obtained at union depot or city office corner O and Twelfth streets.

A. C. ZIEBER,
