

THE Bazar

1023 O Street,

Our special Cloak sale has been such an eminent success, and our garments are selling so rapidly, that we earnestly urge ladies to call on us at once if they want to profit by our bargain prices.

We have been questioned repeatedly why we can sell cloaks so much cheaper than any of our competitors? Why our garments are so far superior in quality, elegance and finish?

THIS EXPLAINS IT ALL.

Because we possess advantages that even the largest dry goods houses cannot boast of.

Our ten years' experience at cloak manufacturing in New York, and our intimate acquaintance with every detail of the manufacturing of these garments and the people engaged in it, gives us opportunity to procure goods at 25 to 30 per cent below the regular cost price. This is why we can sell our jaunty all wool beaver Reeler neatly trimmed at $4.25. It is therefore that we can offer our patrons a stylish all wool cheviot vest jacket, bound and trimmed with silk at $6.25.

This is why we can sell Newmarkets of finest imported Worumbo beaver, richly trimmed and embroidered at $11, $14, and $16, worth from $20 to $27.50.

This is why we can surprise you with a full length plush cloak, real seal ornaments, all silk lined at $12.50, worth anywhere else $17.50.

Our experience as practical cloak manufacturers gives the unusual elegance and finish to even our cheapest garments.

IN OUR

FUR

DEPARTMENT!

We offer a complete line of capes and muffs such as:

Persian Lamb, Astrachan, Gray Persian, Mink, Woodcock, Marten, Russian Sable, Thibet Angora, Beaver, Bear, and Monkey, ranging in price from $9 to $35 for capes, and from $6 to $10.50 for muffs.

We keep only the genuine article and give a written guarantee with every cape and muff.

— OUR —

DRESS GOODS

DEPARTMENT!

Has been the sensation of this city. It is, if not the largest, certainly the most complete for quality and style. We do not fill up our store with trash and rocky goods.

We sell only reliable goods of reputed manufacture, but at such reduced figures that they are within the reach of everybody's purse.

We call your attention to the combination dress patterns displayed in our windows. They are all wool, and silk trimmings, ranging from $2.35 to $4, worth from $4.50 to $7.50.

IN OUR

UNDERWEAR

DEPARTMENT!

We offer this week a lot of Ladies' heavy ribbed vests, crew and gray, at 39c. A lot of natural wool ribbed vests and pants at 65c, worth $2.25.

Just received a lot of knit goods, the prices of which will surprise you.

Our department for linen and silk handkerchiefs, ruchings, collars and cuffs and general notions is now more complete than ever, and contains some of the daintiest and choicest goods.

Our efforts to establish in Lincoln a fashionable store for the exclusive sale of ladies', children's and infants' outfits has already been greeted with flattering success, and we hope that Lincoln ladies will see that it is to their interest to aid us by supporting such an establishment.

Complaints occasionally reach this office regarding irregular delivery of THE COURIER. Such complaints are carefully looked up and examined, but in many cases subscribers that do not get the paper on time, never report the fact to the office and consequently we have no means of knowing the fault and cannot make a change. It is our purpose to have THE COURIER at your door on Saturday and if it reaches you later or irregularly we will thank you to stop in and inform us or send notice of same on a postal card.

A GREAT AMERICAN MAGAZINE.

The Success of "The Century" and its Plans for 1891.

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE is so well known that totality of its past success seems almost an old story. The N. Y. Tribune has said that it is the companion, St. Nicholas for Young Folks, issued by the same house, "are read by every one in thirty of the country's population,"—entirely true. The magazine is sent beyond the seas. It is an interesting fact that a few years ago it was found that seven thousands copies of The Century went to Scotland—quite a respectable edition in itself. The question in England is no longer "Who reads an American book?" but "Who does not see the American magazines?"

A few years ago The Century about doubled its circulation with the famous War Papers, by General Grant and others, adding many more readers later with the Lincoln History and Kennan's thrilling articles on the Siberian Exile system. One great feature of 1891 is to be "THE GOLD HUNTERS OF CALIFORNIA," describing that remarkable movement to the gold fields in '49, in a series of richly illustrated articles written by the greatest of the narrative of men who went to California by the different routes, accounts of the gold discoveries, life in the mines, the work of the vigilance committees, by the chairman of the committee) etc. General Fremont's last writing before his death. In November appears the opening article, "The First Emigrant Train to California,"—crossing the Rockies in 1841,—by General Bidwell, a pioneer of pioneers. Thousands of American families who had some relative or friend among the Argonauts of '49" will be interested in these papers.

MANY OTHER GOOD THINGS ARE COMING,—the narrative of an American's travels through that unknown land. There (for 700 miles over ground never before trod by a white man); the experiences of escaping War Prisoners; American Newspapers described by well-known journalists; accounts of the great Indian Fighters, Custer and others; personal anecdotes of Lincoln, by his private secretary; "The Faith Doctor," a novel by Edward Eggleston, with a wonderfully rich programme of novelettes and stories by most of the leading writers, etc., etc.

It is also announced that The Century has purchased the right to print, before its appearance in France or any other country, extracts from advance sheets of the famous Talleyrand Memoirs, which have been secretly preserved for half a century—to be first given the world through The Century, an American magazine. All Europe is eagerly awaiting the publication of this personal history of Talleyrand—greatest of intriguers and diplomats.

The November Century begins the volume, and new subscribers should commence with that issue. The subscription price ($1.00) may be remitted directly to the publishers, The Century Co., 31 East 17th St., New York, or they will be purchased at any news-dealer. The publishers offer to send a free sample copy—a recent back number—to any one desiring it.

Mrs. Graham's CUCUMBER and ELDER Flower Cream.

Is not a cosmetic but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sun burn and freckles, and blackheads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, should use it, as it gives a youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the grass. Price $1.00, at Druggists and at Mrs. M. T. Patterson's establishment, 46 South 11th St., Lincoln, Neb., where she treats all skin blemishes to face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter.
