Mrs. Graham's OUCHMBER and ELDER Flower Cream.

Is not a cosmetic but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sun burn and freekles, and binexheads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap andwater nourshes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It constans no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00, at Druggists and at Mrs. M. T. Patterson's establishment, 46 South 11th st. Lancoln. Neb., where she treats ladiees for all blemiskes to face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her ittle book "How to be Beautiful."

If you Deposit your Savings

Lincoln a vings Bank

S. E. cor. 11th and P Sts.

At the Rate of 5-Five per Ct. per Annum-5

Save $500 a week and it amounts with interest in five years to $1,500,00. Bank opens at 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and

Saturday evenings, 5 to 8 p. m. Safes to Rent in Burgtar and Fire Proof Vaults

EVERYBODY

Strictly Pure and the Largest and Finest Line Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth, Miss Julia F. Smith and H. F. Williams, of the conserva-

In the City, at

FOLSOM'S

1307 O STREET.

We make a specialty of catering Ice Cream and Fruit Ices for Balls, Parties, Weddings, etc., and can serve them in the brick or by the quart on short notice at reasonable prices. Fancy Cakes of all kinds made to order. Telephone orders receive prompt attention. Call up 501.

Dr. Alma J. Coe, Office, 1704 M Street. LINCOLN, NEB.

Chronic and acute diseases of women and children. Will be at Opelts Hotel Wednes-day and Thursday of each week. Will treat difficult and complicated cases sent to the Office Hours: 8 to 12 a. m., 2 to 7 p. m.

W. T. SAWYER, Prop.

European or American Plan!

FINEST SUITES IN THE CITY

This beautiful new house is now unde new management. All the latest conveniences, such as bath rooms on every floor, passenger elevator and superb service.

Tabe Unsurpassed!

Street Cars to all Depots pass the door

Cor. 12th and Q Sts.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A. C. Cass of Denver is in the city. J. M. Knox is visiting in Des Moines.

Herbert Howe, of Auburn, is in the city. L. H. Vance has gone to Cincinnati, Ohio. Mrs. S. C. Elliott visited Chicago this

Miss Jeannette Wilson returns to school Monday.

A. W. Stewart left Monday for Seattle, Washington.

Muss Nettie Wilson, of Omaha, is attending the legislature

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. White left Tuesday for Salem, Oregon Edward Overton, of St. Louis, formerly of Lincoln is in the city M. B. Cheney has returned from a pleas-ant visit in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Furst of Denver are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swan.

Miss Minnie Jacks left for her home in Lebanon, Ind., this week. Sam D. Cox has returned from St. Louis

Miss Ella Condell of Springfield, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Bosselman.

accompanied by Mrs. Cox.

Miss Lillie Hathaway left for Boston to resume her studies Saturday evening.

The Loyal Legion will hold a banquet in The Lincoln next Thursday evening. Walter A. Leese, of the state library, re turned from Parkersburg, W. Va. this week.

Miss Nellie O'Brien and mother of Columbus, Neb., are guests of Mrs. D. W. Murphy. Miss Maud Marston, the talented newspaper writer of Kearney is in the city visiting triends.

Mrs. J. S. Barwick and Mrs. W. G. Roberts have returned from a pleasant visit in

Corn Weaver Miss May Campbell has gone to Ashland to

Miss Naomi Weaver returned last Friday

assume the duties of her new position, principal of schools. Master Joseph Webster entertained a num-

Safe Deposit Co. ber of his young friends at a birthday party last Friday evening. The Oratorio society has already commenced

THEY WILL BARN INTEREST FOR YOU practicing for the May festival. "Creation" W. E. Hardy left on the last Wednesday, on his annual purchasing trip. He expects to he gone a couple of months Miss Ida Hass, of St. Joseph, arrived in the city Tuesday and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Oppenneimer on N street.

The Misses Eikenbary of Plattsmouth, who have been visiting their cousins, the Misses Latta, returned to their home Sunday.

Miss Amanda Kohn after passing the holilay season at home returned to her studies at the scademy of the Sacred Heart in Omaha. Charles Mayer of Mayer Bros. will leave tomorrow for New York City, where on February 17, he will be married to Miss Estelle

The Lincoln opened Tuesday afternoon. The first name to go the register was that of James E. Boyd, who gave Lincoln as his

Miss Bessie Turner gave a pretty party ast Friday. There was a very large attendance of young tolks who enjoyed themselves

Henry Evans, foreman of THE COURIER, left Thursday for a visit to his old home, Duluth, Minn., the first visit to his parents

tory of music, will give a recital Friday evening, January 16. Miss Pauline Goldsmith visited in Omaha during the week and attended the reception given Mr. G. L. Stonehill and bride Wednes-lay evening at the Metropolitan club. The Red Ribbon Club will give an oyster supper at their hall on T street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth. Supper and a good time will be the order of the evening. W. B. Wolcott will leave today on an extensive eastern trip. He will visit Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Washington and Baltimore. He will join Mrs. Wolcott, who has been east for some weeks, in Bost.no The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Young Men's Republican club held Wednesday night in Justi 'e Foxroothy's office: President, C. E. Waite; first vicepresident, F. G. Kaufman; second vice-president, W. L. McClay; secretary, George McArthur; treasurer, J. J. Kirby. The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday evening.

One of the finest musical entertainments ever given in the city will be given Tues lay evening, January 13th at the First Baptist church under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. by the Sweedish Lutteman Sextette of Stockholm, Sweeden.

The Chicago Herald of Sunday, Oct. 26th 1890, says.

The Lutteman Sweedish Sextette appeared sefere a fine audience at Central Music Hall last night, its first American audience. The organization has just arrived in the United States and brings a spiendid European repu-tation, which was fully justified by the exellent programme given last night.

Reserved seats are on sale at Clason & Fietcher's, 1120 O street.

Jupitor Coal is a winner and Betts & Weaver, sole agents have plenty of it. Try a ton.

Only place in Lincoln that uses mineral water in baths is at 1016 O street.

Miss C. J. Guilmette, modiste, second floor Exposition building. Take elevator.

E. R. Guthrie has added a saddle manu factory department to his carriage establish ment and is now prepared so supply any and all kinds of harness or saddlery goods, just as you want it,on short notice and on most rea-sonable terms. You know the number, 1540 Ostreet.

Doctors Balley & Goodell, office 1347 L street. Telephone, 617.

Mrs. Graham's Boudoir at Exposition

Lincoln St.Joe & KansasCity. Through Sleepers and Parlor Care.

The day of transfers, changes and delays between Lincoln, St. Joe and Kansas City is over, the B. & M. having placed in service a line of combination sleepers and parlor chair cars that for convenience, elegance and comfort surpass anything heretofore run between these points. The present schedule is as follows: Leave Lincoln, 8:30 p. m. daily, arrive in St. Joe 5:27 a. m., Kansas City 7:50 a. m.; returning, leave Kansas City 9:15 p. m. daily. St. Joe 11:45 p. m., arrive at Lincoln 7:50

These trains run via Beatrice, Wymore and Table Rock and make close connections at terminal points. The service is really excellent and we can recommend it with much confidence. Further information can be obtained at union depot or city office corner O and Tenth streets.

A. C. ZIEMER, City Passenger and Ticket Agent.

"Is this the best?" Is a question often asked when medicine is wanted. The following are a few of the medicines of known re liability sold by A. L. Shader, druggist of his place. They have many other excellent medicines, but these are worthy of special mention:

HAMPERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY, famous for its cure of severe colds, and as a preven tative for croup. Price 50 cents per bottle. CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN BALM, a general tamily liniment and especially valuable for rheumatism. Price 50 cents per bottle.

HAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CROLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY, the most reliable And known medicine for bowel complaints. It is especially prized by persons subject to colic. It has cured many cases of chronic diarrhoea Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

St. Patrick's Pills, for disorders of the liver and bowels. A vigorous but gentle physic that cleanses and renovates the whole system. Price 25 cents per box.

The Whitebreast Coal and Lime company is again at the front supplying the fluest grades of coal at the lowes price.

Ladies will find a complete line of fine shoes and all the latest styles at the proper prices at Sherwin's Boston Shoe Store.

The Rambler bicycle is coming more in popular favor daily as the machine comes into general use. It is undoubtedly the best adapted for speed, comfort and safety, of from Omaha, where she was the guest of Miss any of the machines. Call and see it at E. R. Guthrie's, 1540 O street.

A FINANCIAL AFFAIR.

The Remarkable Success of Bertle and the Secret of It.

When Bertie Fitzmordaunt Townsend brought his dull, blase manner, his English accent, his craventan gloves, his carefully creased, twenty-two inch trousers, and his enameled leather shoes with spotlessly white overgaiters, into the office of Lewis & Haydock, it is needless to say that he created a profound sensation. The porters always took off their hats to him, and country customers mistook him for a special partner. However, all this gorgeousness cost the house only the mere trifle of $3 per week.

Bertie was a young gentleman of wealthy and aristocratic antecedents. He had been rusticated from Harvard, where he had done his best to convince his father that a son at college was nearly as expensive a luxury as a steam yacht, and had been placed with us in order to give him a chance to form some idea of the laborious-ness of the money getting process. Mr. Lewis said he was cheap at any price, for whenever he felt blue over the drop in Astrakbans or the slow sale of dress goods he had only to look at Bertie, and a fierce desire to get up and kick him would arise and sweep from his mind all gloomy and depressing thoughts.

By way of a start Bertie was detailed to look after the smaller city collections and we used to picture to ourselves the consternation of the tradesman whose little shop was invaded by so overpowering a

But we soon had reason to admit that he was not so stupid as he looked, for the small bills were henceforth collected with usual ease and rapidity

Delinquent debtors paid up long standing accounts in a manner that was truly But the climax was reached when Bertie turned in the sum of $4.75, which he said was in settlement of the five years' old account of Mrs. Mary McGee, No. 4,765 Third On this occasion Mr. Lewis called him into the private office and congratulated him on his success, remarking that if he kept up this creditable display of business enterprise he would unquestionably develop into a future A. T. Stewart. But the crash was to come. One day Mrs. McGee came into the store, and as a necessary preliminary to obtaining more goods, offered to pay her last bill. The bookkeeper looked the matter up and told her it was paid in full. She said it was not. He insisted that it was, and a wordy discussion ensued, which resulted in her putting her money in her pocket, and departing with a happy grin on her face. When Bertie came in from his rounds the bookkeeper tackled him. "Isn't Mary McGee's account setyled?"

"Certainly," returned Bertie. "But she was in today and wanted to

Well, it's paid, ye know; I ought to know, ye know, for—ah—I—ah—paid it me-self, bah Jove!" You paid it yourself?"

"Yaas. I got tired of going to see the beggsh—the lahdy, I mean—and I paid it myself to save bother." An investigation proved that Bertle had pursued this course wherever collections were difficult, and his brilliant financial career came to an abrupt and untimely close.—Harry Romaine in Life.

Poor Hankinson. Her Father-You say young Hankinson wants to marry you?

'He does, pa. "Does he know I haven't a cent to give

"Yes. He says he wants me for myself alone. "H'm! Has he known you long, 'Man-

'Oh, yes! Years and years."

I will be obliged to go there soon. What both a bigger fool than I want in sort of a country is it—wretched, I sup-"Oh, yes! Years and years." my family."—Chicago Tribune.

What She Was Ashamed Of. A little girl who lives on Columbia heights has a very stubborn will. She was recently punished with some severity, and when the chastisement was over her mother said:

"Now, aren't you ashamed?" "Yes'm.

"What are you ashamed of?" "Of you," was the prompt and imperti-nent reply.-Washington Post.

Cause and Effect. Husband-My stars! What has hap pened? Here's a thousand dollars' worth of bric-a-brac smashed all in pieces. Wife (helplessly)-I-don't-know. I've been taking a nap. Has there been an earthquake this afternoon? Husband-No. Wife-Then Bridget has been dusting .-

MY SUMMER GIRL

How it came about I know not; She was merry—I a dreamer, never thought of aught at all excepting studious art. The story goes as usual She, the pretty little scheme With her arrows deftiy pointed made a target of am not, as a rule, contented To be lured from 'neath my skylight, outing days continued as the summe longer grew; And hours filled with pleasure On from dewy morn to twilight, full often somewhat later, winged then flight as bours do.

One morning in September She was standing on veranda started for reflection in a walk along the

She said, "Before you go out On your usual meander Perhaps you'd like to know I'll be your summer girl no more. I think I must have shown ber That the news was far from pleasing, she came a little nearer—near enough for me to see That her blue eyes were a twinkle With the eestasy of teasing, she whispered, "Why not ask me, too, your winter girl to be?"

The outcome? I surrendered.

when she pinned in my cravat a creamy jeweled pearl She said, "It's not an emblem Of your own transcendent beauty, But just a small reminder that I'm your all season

-J. S. Goodwin in Judge.

Church and parson did their duty;

Unexpected Munificence. "Jane," said Mr. Skinnphlint, a softened light shining in his eyes, "I think I have never given you anything for a Christmas present, have I'' "No, William," answered Mrs. Skinnphlint, "you never have."

giri."

"This Christmas, Jane," said Mr. Skinnphlint in a voice trembling from unwonted feeling, "shall be a different one from any we have ever had. What would you say to a present of some useful article for the

"I would like it very much, William." Something, for instance, that would be both useful and ornamental? Something that you could select yourself? How would that do? "It would please me above all things." "Then, Jane," said Mr. Skinophlint, with an effort to retain his composure, "we need a new bootjack. Here is twenty-five cents to buy it with. If it costs less, Jane," he added in a broken voice, "you can keep the change."-Chicago Tribune.

A Poser for Pop. Small Boy-Pop, did you ever fall down stairs? Pop-I suppose so.

"Did you ever fall up stairs?" "Of course not."

"I did." 'Nonsense. "I fell the whole length of the stairs and landed on the second floor."

Nonsense. "I was up stairs when I fell, an' so I fell up stairs, didn't I? I started from the third floor."-Street & Smith's Good News.

The Lambs Gamboled.

Robert-Pa, what does gambol mean? Teacher said we were to find another meaning for it before we recite this after-Robert's Father-Gamble? It means to play games of chance, thereby winning or losing large sums of money. That afternoon Robert electrified his teacher by reading, "The little lambs played games of chance on the hills, thereby winning or losing large sums of money."-Lowell Citizen.

"Bridget, why don't the landlady have sweet potatoes any more?" "S-s-h! Oi'm thinkin' the proice av sugar has riz."—Harper's Bazar.

Valuable Bric-a-Brac. Tom-In confidence let me tell you that I have won the heart of Miss Vieuxtemps. Congratulate me, dear boy. Jack-Certainly, my dear fellow, for you have won a golden prize.

Tom-Do you think so? Jack-1 do indeed. I won it once myself and had the misfortune to break it. As I had to put a golden band worth several thousand dellars around it to mend it I know how dear it is .- Chicago Times.

Prejudiced.

St. Agedore-I heard an awfully good argument on the beauties of college football just now. How manly a sport it is, healthy and all that sort of thing. De Mascus-Ah! Who was your informant? "A drummer." What for?

"An arnica house."-Munsey's Weekly. A Predestined Pessimist. Miss Battersley (complaining spinster)-

Mr. Patterson-Why, it's a land flowing with milk and honey.

Miss Battersley—How dreadfully bad the flies must be there!-Judge.

Curing a Patient. Patient-Isn't there some mistake about that bill you sent me. Doctor-No, sir; it's correct, five hundred dollars.

Patient-To pay that will take every cent I have. I'll starve. Doctor-Well, dieting is what you need. Street & Smith's Good News.

Clara—What do you think of the "girl graduates," Mr. Freshmanne? Freshmanne-I don't believe in them. 1 more than I. Clara-Then you propose to remain single!-Munsey's Weekly.

Limiting His Choice.

THE WATCHDOG OF THE TREASURY.

Life Record of Gen. Francis E. Spinner, Recently Deceased.

Gen. Francis Elias Spinner, who died recently at Jacksonville, Fla., from cancer of the face, will always be remembered as one who played an important part in the great crisis of the civil war. He was born in 1802 at German Flats, N. Y., received a fair education, learned a trade and then became a merchant. He also went to sol diering as a member of the militia, and rose to the rank of major general of the Third division of artillery. He was elected sheriff of Herkimer county in 1834, and from that on took an active interest in polities, among other positions holding that of auditor of the port of New York.

RURAL VISITORS RECEIVED BY 3 de Summe

From the date of organization of the Re

publican party Gen. Spinner was a consistent and influential member of it. Twice re-elected to the national legislature, he sat three terms in the house of representa-tives—from the first Monday in December, 1855, to the memorable and exciting 4th day of March, 1861. Lincoln's administration began amid clouds and darkest presage. Salmon P. Chase, of Ohio, was chosen secretary of the treasury. He in turn, knowing the man's inflexible honesty, financial experience, system and activity, requested that Spinner be appointed treasurer of the United States. This selection was made, and he whose "grapevine" autograph on the greenbacks and national bank currency made him celebrated in monetary and business circles throughout the world, had charge of the strong vaults and precious boxes of the government for an uninterrupted period of fourteen years. On the last day of June, 1875, when there were three-and-seventy milestones checked upon the tablets of his earthly journey, he ssed his official portfolio to his successor. His books came within a cent of balanc-ing, and that cent was found after a long

Deserving of every honor conferred upon him, it is yet a luminous fact that Gen. Spinner's surest fame rests upon and is closely identified with the most peculiar of all strikingly original autographs. This signature has been pronounced "the despair of graphologists and the treasure trove of collectors." On its light and heavy mystifying pen curves cautionary signals are hung that there's to be no char acter reading attempted from a whirligig in ink which fairly, if not squarely, outrivals the distortions of an eel.

The forger has never been thrilled by a microscopic contemplation of Francis E. Spinner's every day handwriting, yet it continues the delight of ardent seekers and lovers of the curious. Seeing this remark-able signature for the first time an expert would be nonplussed, for there is nothing in it or about it that in the least reflects the outward manner or the true inwardness of its architect.

In the evening hours of his life Gen. Spinuer prepared an important work on the historical and political aspects of American finance. Insidious disease, however, undermined the constitution that had long known. He is called Sergius Stepniak-"the son of the steppes" is its translation from the Russian-and by that nom de curse him. Michael Dragomonoff is said to be the man's proper appellation, but there is no proof to substantiate the asser-

SERGIUS STEPNIAK.

However, it is as Stepniak that the noted nihilist has made his way to the list of personages. So far as ascertained he has been an intellectual and moral rather than a physical force agitator. By his writings he has appealed from the czar to civilization, yet he frankly avows his sympathy with Padlewski, the slayer of Gen. Seliverskoff and other "rash" devotees of nihilism. Regarding the use of force Stepniak agrees with Liebknecht, the leader of the German Social Democrats, who, when asked if he sanctioned violence, said: "In countries where anything else is possible, no. In Russia, where there is no other hope, yes." Stepniak, who is now about 40 years of age, visits America to raise funds for "the cause" by a series of lectures. His home for some years has been in England. He is reticent about his early credence. Criticism of French Justice.

life, and biographical sketches published regarding him are not worthy of much

Commenting on legal proceedings in France, and referring particularly to the conduct of the Eyraud murder case, The London Graphic says that "lynch law in its most turbulent manifestations would shall never marry a woman who knows be preferable to the combination of human torture and repulsive sensationalism which passes in France for the methods of jus-

The Atlantic

For 1891 will contain

The House of Martha,

Frank R. Stockton's Serial.

Contributions from Dr. Holmes. Mr. Lowell.

and Mr. Whittier. Some heretofore unpublished

Letters by Charles and Mary Lamb.

Mr. Percival Lowell will write a narrative of his adventures under the title of Noto: an Unexplored Corner of Japan.

The Capture of Louisbourg will be treated in A Series of Papers by Francis Parkman.

There will also be Short Stories and Sketches

Rudyard Kipling, Henry James, Sarah Orne Jewett, Octave Thanet, and others. Untechnical pa-pers on Questions in Modern Science will be contributed by Professor Osborn, of Princeton, and others; topics in University, Secondary, and Primary Education will be a feature.

Mr. Richard Watson Gilder, Dr. Parsons Mrs. Fields, Graham R. Tomson, and others will be among the contributors of Poetry.

The Atlantic for 1891. TERMS:—$4.00 a year in advance, Postage Free; 35 cents a number. With new life-size portrait of Lowell, and also portraits of Hawthorne, Emerson, Longfellow, Bryant, Whittier, or Holmes, $5.00; each additional portrait $1.00. The November and December numbers sent free to new subscribers whose subscriptions for 1891 are received before December 20th.

Postal Notes and Money are at the risk of the ender, and therefore remittances should be made op money-order, draft, or registered letters, to Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

4 Park Street Boston, Mass.

-THE-

Library of American Literature

In Eleven Elegant, Large Octavo Volumes, with over 6,000 pages, handsomely illustrated with 160 full page portraits. The cream of 500,000 works copyrighted by American wri-ters. E07 authors quoted, Over 267 selections covering every branch of literature from 1697 to 1890, chronologically arranged. Compiled

Edmund Clarence Stedman and Ellen

Mackay Hutchinson,

and published by CHAS. L. WEBSTER

& CO., New York. I do not see how any school in America can spare this work from its reference library for teachers and pupils.—Dr. W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education. With it on the shelf, one may say to anybody: "Name your mood, and I will satisfy its appetite for you."—S. L. Clemens (Mark Treain) The best aggregate expression of what the undermined the constitution that had long defied the ills to which flesh and age are heirs. A cancer of the face slowly sapped his vitality. He spent his last years living in a tent on his Florida estate, the mildness of the climate and constant contact with nature doing much to alleviate the pangs of his incurable ailment.

The illustration given herewith is reproduced from Scribner's Monthly for April, 1873, and exhibits the then treasurer of the United States giving courteous welcome to two rustic visitors.

Stepnlak His Nom du Guerre.

There arrived in New York city the other day a man who is known by fame the world over, and yet whose real name is not known. He is called Sergius Stepniak—"the san of the stepness" is its translation. The entire wid delivered on receiver of the stepness" is its translation. best aggregate expression of what the Sold on the installment plan. The entire set delivered on recript of first payment and balance divided into monthly payments. For a set of this great work, or for a permanent situation, write at once to N. E. LEACH State Agent. 2322 Vine St., Lincoln, Neb.

Notice to Defendant.

John Creighton Ballinger will take potice that on the 3rd day of December, 1890, John B. Cunningham and Chas A. Hanna, plaintiffs herein, filed their petition in the District Court of Lancaster county. State of Nebraska, against said defendant. The object and prayer of which are to forclose a certain mertgage executed by John Z. Ballinger and Emma E. Ballinger to the plaintiff upon the following described premises, to-wit: Lot 6, Block 9, of Second East Park Addition to the City of Lincoln, Lancaster county, State of Nebraska, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note, dated the 10th day of March, 1890, for the sum of $600, due and payable in monthly installments from the 15th day of May, 1890, $15, payable each month with interest on the entire amount remaining from time to time unpaid at the rate of $ per cent, per annum, from the 10th day of March, 1890, payable monthly. Plaintiffs pray for a decree that defendants be required to pay same or that the premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 5th day of January, 1891.

Dated December 3, 1890.

JNO, B. CUNNINGHAM.

Atty, for Plaintiffs,

Notice Pictite of Will.

Notice Probate of Will.,

Theodore S. Ganter, Deceased.

In County Court, Lancaster county, Neb.

The State of Nebraska to the heirs and next of kin of the said Theodore S. Ganter, deceased:

Take notice,—That appn filing of a written instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Theodore S. Ganter for probate and allowance, it is ordered that said matter be set for hearing the 28th day of December. A D. 1890, before said County Court, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m.. at which time any person interested may appear and contest the same; and notice of this proceeding is ordered published three weeks successively in the Capital City Courier, a weekly newspaper, published in this State.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the County Court at Lincoin this lith day of December, A.D., 1890.

W. E. Stewart,

3t-12-29.

County Judge. Legal Notice.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of license to me granted, by the district court of Lancaster county, Nebraska, I will sell for cash, at public auction, at the east front door of the Court House in the City of Lincoln, on Tuesday, the 20th day of January, 180t, between the hours of one and two o'clock p. m. of said day, the following real property, of the estate of John McAllister, deceased, towit: Lot 11, of block 17, and the west 34 of lot 9, and the east half of lot 10, of block 53, all in the City of Lincoln, Nobraska,

John S. Gregory,

Administrator, estate of John McAllister.