SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. The Tuesday Evening Club which is an intellectual as well as a social organization.

varied its literary session this week by presenting a dramatic performance. The time ASKS YOUR ATTENTION FOR and place of holding it were Monday evening sentation proved to be a most happy diversion. The two west parlors of the hotel were secured $ 1.00 for the occasion, the east one serving as a stage, the west one as an auditorium while the folding doors were pressed into service in lieu of a stage curtain. W. Morton Smith acted as stage manager. The drama presented was "The Quiet Family." The dramatis persona

Mr. St. John proved the star of the occasion and acted his part with a naturalness that seemed real rather than assumed. Miss White as his spouse proved a most excellent indig-nant wife and Miss Latta is also deserving of commendation for the queenly manner in which she acted her part. The crowning event of the evening was the great osculatory act when everybody kissed and made up. Mr. St. John and Miss White were particuarly successful in the part, while Dr Ladd and the rest were not far behind This brought down the house. Loud and enthusiastic applause followed. It swelled into an encore, and there being no re-Buffalo Flour, per Sack $1.40 sponse, the audience verbally clamored for a repetition of the scene. But the budding young actors and actresses were too modest to re-appear and repeat the performance. The whole drama was most creditably presented and was well received. The success of the affair will probably lead to a more ambitious effort in the future as there is no loubt that there is some excellent histrionic talent in the club. The change from high five and other well worn forms of entertainment is most grateful and parlor theatricals will probably play a prominent part in many future parties in Lincoln.

Among the other features of Monday evening's entertainment was a discussion of the friends of the two were present. A varied works of Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Miss Maude Smith gave a very pretty interpreta-tion of the "Ladies Yes." G. W. Gerwig of an elegant gold watch and a purse well Browning's works. Miss Dena Loomis gave an interesting sketch of the life of the poetess. mandolin music by Misses Barr and Griffith A dainty luuch was served. Dancing followed.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coffroth, Misses Minnie Latta, Olive Latta, Maude Stobbs, Maud Burr. the bridesmaid, Miss Hattie Sterns. A splendid wedding supper was served. The pres nts were numerous and costly.

Wednesday was the sixty-sixth anniversary of Mrs. Thomas Crebbins' birth, and was celebrated by a surprise given her in the shape of a dinner, at the residence of her son, John E. Patmore, 1110 South Eighteenth street. There was a grand family reunion of sons, daughters, grandsons and grand daugh-ters. A very pleasant evening wasspent and the guests departed at a late hour, wishing many happy returns of the day.

Miss Lena George is a charming entertainer and when she issued invitation for a party to be given Saturday night there was not a sinle one of her friends who sent back "re rets." The event as expected proved a most njoyable one. Games, music and the other t ceteras of an evening's amusement made he hours fly quickly and the guests were stonished when the clock warningly tolled idnight and the advent of Sunday.

Misses Aura and Jennie Hitchcock, two bright and popular young ladies living at Twenty-eighth and Hitchcock streets, were treated to a most enjoyable surprise party on Saturday. The mother was in the secret, however, and had made full preparations for the guests so that the young hostesses were spared any embarrassment in that line. A delightful time was enjoyed both by the entertainers and those entertained. Cards have been received at THE COURIER office announcing the marriage of Miss Effic Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. ackson, to Mr. C . Arthur Chandler on Wed nesday, February 4th. After April 1st they will be at home to their friends at 412 Laramie street, Atchison, Kan. THE COURIER IS in receipt of fine samples of wedding cake.

The sad intelligence announcing the death of John Lahr at Lafayette, Ind., was received in this city yesterday. Frank Lahr left Tuesday for the bedside of his dying parent, but arrived too late to see the old gentleman in life. Frank's many friends will regret to hear of this sad affliction and extend idolence on his return.

A reception was given last evening at the First Presbyterian church to Rev. E. H. Curtis and his estimable wife A large number of members of the church and personal filled with greenbacks.

It was a jolly party of congenial souls that gathered Saturday evening at the nome of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boppuk, Twenty-sixth and Lynn streets. The good old fashioned game of euchre was the main amusement while conversation, music and refreshments added their quota to the evening's enjoyment Mrs. Tot L. Walker, who has been enjoy ing a delightful visit with her brother, Mr A. Z. Palmer, and a number of Lincoln friends, returned to her home in Chicago the first of the week. In the spring she starts on a pleasure trip to California, Utah and Monroute

Last evening the East Lincoln C. I. S. C. was delightfully entertained by Miss Amber Barnaby at her pleasant home, 2530 Vine street. The programme was specially interesting and the attendance large. Some very interesting essays were read.

Thursday evening Miss Katie McArthur was the victim of a surprise party a: her home, 1820 C street. The arrangements were carried out so quietly that the surprise was complete. A pleasant evening was passed.

Mrs. Ed. Peebles, 2235 T street, treated her husband to an agreeable surprise party by a large number of invited guests. The means of a blackboard of the manner in which groom's best man was Mr. George Herr, and different animals eat. Miss Opal Touzalin of Omaha, has been visiting Lincoln friends this week.

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces un-sightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, cars, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." It is a more formidable enemy than consumption or cancer alone, for scrofula combines the worst sible features of both. Being the most ancient it is the most general of all diseases or affections. for very few persons are entirely free from it. How can it be cured ? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the cures it has accomplished often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. For all affections of the blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is unequalled, and some of the cures it has effected are really wonderful. If you
